

Piracy Act 1698 ^{F1} (repealed 5.11.1993)

CHAPTER 7

PIRACY ACT 1698 (REPEALED 5.11.1993)

- [I]—VI
- VII Natural-born Subjects committing Acts as herein mentioned, deemed, and upon Conviction, to suffer according to Stat. 28 Hen. VIII. c. 15.
- VIII Commanders of Ships, &c. turning Pirate, &c. or attempting to corrupt other Commanders, &c.
- IX, X
- XI When Officers and Seamen killed or wounded in defending Ship which shall be brought to Port, Judge of the Admiralty, &c. may levy £2 per Cent. upon the Owners, &c. for Benefit of such Officers and Seamen, or their Widows and Children, as herein mentioned.
- XII Rewards to Informers, of Conspiracy to destroy or run away with Ship.
- XIII
- XIV
- XV
- XVI,
- XVII
- XVIII

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Piracy Act 1698 (repealed 5.11.1993).