

Social Care (Self-directed Support) (Scotland) Act 2013

2013 asp 1

SOCIAL CARE (SELF-DIRECTED SUPPORT) (SCOTLAND) ACT 2013

General principles

- 1 General principles
- 2 Further general principles applicable to this Act

Adult carers

- 3 Support for adult carers

Options for self-directed support

- 4 Options for self-directed support
- 5 Choice of options: adults
- 6 Choice of options under section 5: assistance
- 7 Choice of options: adult carers and young carers
- 8 Choice of options: children and family members
- 9 Provision of information about self-directed support
- 10 Provision of information: children under 16
- 11 Local authority functions
- 12 Eligibility for direct payment: review
- 13 Further choice of options on material change of circumstances
- 14 Power to modify section 4

Direct payments

- 15 Power to make further provision about direct payments
- 16 Misuse of direct payment: recovery

Local authority functions

- 17 Assessments under section 12A of 1968 Act: assistance

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Care (Self-directed Support) (Scotland) Act 2013. (See end of Document for details)

- 18 Power to charge for services provided under section 3
- 19 Promotion of options for self-directed support
- 20 Delegation

General

- 21 Guidance and directions
- 22 Regulations: general
- 23 Power to modify application of Act
- 24 Interpretation
- 25 Consequential repeals
- 26 Ancillary provision
- 27 Transitional provision etc.
- 28 Commencement
- 29 Short title

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Care (Self-directed Support) (Scotland) Act 2013.