

Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020

2020 asp 18

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION AND TRIBUNAL MEMBERSHIP (SCOTLAND) ACT 2020

PART 1

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Appointees

- 1 Appointment of person to act on behalf of child
- 2 Appointment of person to act on behalf of individual

Non-disclosure of health information

- 3 Determination of entitlement to assistance: non-disclosure of information

Top up of reserved benefits

- 4 Offences
- 5 Investigations
- 6 Transitional provision in consequence of section 5
- 7 Uprating for inflation
- 8 Transitional provision in consequence of section 7

Identifying possible eligibility

- 9 Duty to inform about possible eligibility
- 10 Transitional provision in consequence of section 9

Diagnosing terminal illness for disability assistance purposes

- 11 Persons who can give diagnosis

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

Suspension of assistance

- 12 Power to suspend payment of assistance

Power to set value of assistance as nil in certain circumstances

- 13 Power to set value of assistance as nil in certain circumstances

Assistance given in error

- 14 First-tier Tribunal's jurisdiction

PART 2

TRIBUNAL MEMBERSHIP

- 15 Authorisation of judiciary to sit in Scottish Tribunals
16 Consequential modifications

PART 3

FINAL PROVISIONS

- 17 Ancillary provision
18 Commencement
19 Short title

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020.