

Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018

2018 CHAPTER 10

An Act to make provision establishing a new financial guidance body (including provision about a debt respite scheme); to make provision about the funding of debt advice in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland; to provide a power to make regulations prohibiting unsolicited direct marketing in relation to pensions and other consumer financial products and services; and to make provision about the regulation of claims management services. [10th May 2018]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART 1

FINANCIAL GUIDANCE ETC

Establishment of the single financial guidance body

1 The single financial guidance body

- (1) A body corporate with functions relating to financial guidance is established (the “single financial guidance body”).
- (2) Schedule 1 makes further provision about the single financial guidance body.
- (3) The name of the new body is to be determined by regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (4) The regulations may—
 - (a) amend any provision of this Part, or of any Act amended by this Part, so as to replace the words “single financial guidance body” with the name of the body;
 - (b) make incidental, supplementary and consequential provision.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The power to make regulations under subsection (3) is exercisable by statutory instrument; and an instrument containing such regulations is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (6) The consumer financial education body is dissolved.
- (7) Schedule 2 makes provision about schemes for the transfer of staff, property, rights and liabilities—
 - (a) from the Secretary of State and the Pensions Advisory Service Limited to the single financial guidance body;
 - (b) from the consumer financial education body to the single financial guidance body and the devolved authorities.

Objectives and functions of the single financial guidance body

2 Objectives

- (1) The objectives of the single financial guidance body are—
 - (a) to improve the ability of members of the public to make informed financial decisions,
 - (b) to support the provision of information, guidance and advice in areas where it is lacking,
 - (c) to secure that information, guidance and advice is provided to members of the public in the clearest and most cost-effective way (including having regard to information provided by other organisations),
 - (d) to ensure that information, guidance and advice is available to those most in need of it (and to allocate its resources accordingly), bearing in mind in particular the needs of people in vulnerable circumstances, and
 - (e) to work closely with the devolved authorities as regards the provision of information, guidance and advice to members of the public in Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- (2) The single financial guidance body must have regard to its objectives when it exercises its functions.
- (3) In this section “information, guidance and advice” means—
 - (a) information and guidance on matters relating to occupational and personal pensions,
 - (b) information and advice on debt, and
 - (c) information and guidance designed to enhance people's understanding and knowledge of financial matters and their ability to manage their own financial affairs.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

3 Functions

- (1) The single financial guidance body has the following functions—
 - (a) the pensions guidance function;
 - (b) the debt advice function;
 - (c) the money guidance function;
 - (d) the consumer protection function;
 - (e) the strategic function.
- (2) The single financial guidance body also has the function of providing—
 - (a) advice and assistance to the Secretary of State on matters relating to the functions listed in subsection (1), and
 - (b) advice to the Secretary of State on the establishment of a debt respite scheme (see section 6).
- (3) The single financial guidance body may do anything that is incidental or conducive to the exercise of its functions.
- (4) The pensions guidance function is to provide, to members of the public, free and impartial information and guidance on matters relating to occupational and personal pensions.
- (5) The debt advice function is to provide, to members of the public in England, free and impartial information and advice on debt.
- (6) The money guidance function is to provide, to members of the public, free and impartial information and guidance designed to enhance people's understanding and knowledge of financial matters and their ability to manage their own financial affairs.
- (7) The consumer protection function is—
 - (a) to notify the FCA where, in the exercise of its other functions, the single financial guidance body becomes aware of practices carried out by FCA-regulated persons (within the meaning of section 139A of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) which it considers to be detrimental to consumers, and
 - (b) to consider the effect of unsolicited direct marketing on consumers of financial products and services, and, in particular—
 - (i) from time to time publish an assessment of whether unsolicited direct marketing is, or may be, having a detrimental effect on consumers, and
 - (ii) advise the Secretary of State whether to make regulations under section 22 (unsolicited direct marketing: other consumer financial products etc).
- (8) Where the single financial guidance body provides information, guidance or advice to a person in pursuance of one of the functions mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c), it must consider whether the person would benefit from receiving information, guidance or advice in pursuance of any other of those functions (and it must ensure that SFGB delivery partners are under a similar duty).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (9) The strategic function is to develop and co-ordinate a national strategy to improve—
- (a) the financial capability of members of the public,
 - (b) the ability of members of the public to manage debt, and
 - (c) the provision of financial education to children and young people.
- (10) In developing and co-ordinating the national strategy, the single financial guidance body must work with others, such as those in the financial services industry, the devolved authorities and the public and voluntary sectors.

4 Specific requirements as to the pensions guidance function

- (1) As part of its pensions guidance function, the single financial guidance body must provide information and guidance for the purposes of helping a member of a pension scheme, or a survivor of a member of a pension scheme, to make decisions about what to do with the flexible benefits that may be provided to the member or survivor.
- (2) In subsection (1)—
- (a) references to a member, or a survivor of a member, of a pension scheme include a member, or a survivor of a member, of a pension scheme for which the PPF has assumed responsibility under Part 2 of the Pensions Act 2004 or Part 3 of the Pensions (Northern Ireland) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/255 (N.I. 1)), but
 - (b) in relation to such a member or survivor, the reference to the flexible benefits that may be provided is to be read as a reference to the money purchase benefits that may be provided by the PPF by virtue of sections 161 and 170 of that Act or Articles 145 and 154 of that Order.
- (3) In this section—
- “flexible benefit” has the meaning given by section 74 of the Pension Schemes Act 2015;
- “money purchase benefits”—
- (a) in relation to England and Wales and Scotland, has the meaning given by section 181(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993, and
 - (b) in relation to Northern Ireland, has the meaning given by section 176(1) of the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993;
- “pension scheme” has the meaning given by section 1(5) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993;
- “PPF” means the Board of the Pension Protection Fund;
- “survivor” has the meaning given by section 76(1) of the Pension Schemes Act 2015.

Rules etc about financial guidance

18 Personal pension schemes: requirements to refer members to guidance etc

- (1) Section 137FB of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (FCA general rules: disclosure of information about the availability of pensions guidance) is amended as follows.
- (2) After subsection (1), insert—
- “(1A) The FCA must also make general rules requiring the trustees or managers of a relevant pension scheme to take the steps mentioned in subsections (1B) and (1C) in relation to an application from a member or survivor—
- (a) to transfer any rights accrued under the scheme, or
 - (b) to start receiving benefits provided by the scheme.
- (1B) As part of the application process, the trustees or managers must ensure that—
- (a) the member or survivor is referred to appropriate pensions guidance, and
 - (b) the member or survivor is provided with an explanation of the nature and purpose of such guidance.
- (1C) Before proceeding with the application, the trustees or managers must ensure that the member or survivor has either received appropriate pensions guidance or has opted out of receiving such guidance.
- (1D) The rules may—
- (a) specify what constitutes appropriate pensions guidance;
 - (b) make further provision about how the trustees or managers must comply with the duties in subsections (1B) and (1C) (such as provision about methods of communication and time limits);
 - (c) make further provision about how, and to whom, a member or survivor may indicate that they have received or opted out of receiving appropriate pensions guidance for the purposes of subsection (1C);

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) specify what the duties of the trustees or managers are in the situation where a member or survivor does not respond to a communication that is made for the purposes of complying with the duty in subsection (1C);
 - (e) provide for exceptions to the duties in subsections (1B) and (1C) in specified cases.”
- (3) In subsection (2), for “this section” substitute “ subsection (1) ”.
- (4) After subsection (2) insert—
- “(2A) Before the FCA publishes a draft of any rules to be made by virtue of subsection (1A), it must consult—
- (a) the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) the [^{F5}Money and Pensions Service].”
- (5) In subsection (3), for “the rules” substitute “ rules to be made by virtue of subsection (1) ”.
- (6) After subsection (3) insert—
- “(3A) In determining what provision to include in rules to be made by virtue of subsection (1A), the FCA must have regard to any regulations that are for the time being in force under section 113B of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (occupational pension schemes: requirements to refer members to guidance etc).”
- (7) In subsection (4), for the definition of “pensions guidance” substitute—

Unsolicited direct marketing approaches

21 Unsolicited direct marketing: pensions

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations prohibiting unsolicited direct marketing relating to pensions.
- (2) The regulations may—
- (a) make provision about when a communication is to be, or is not to be, treated as unsolicited;
 - (b) make provision for exceptions to the prohibition;
 - (c) confer functions on the Information Commissioner and on OFCOM (including conferring a discretion);
 - (d) apply (with or without modifications) provisions of the data protection legislation or the Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/2426) (including, in particular, provisions relating to enforcement).
- (3) The regulations may—
- (a) make different provision for different purposes;
 - (b) make different provision for different areas;
 - (c) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- (4) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (5) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) If before the end of June in any year the Secretary of State has not made regulations under this section (whether or not in that year), the Secretary of State must—
 - (a) publish a statement, by the end of July in that year, explaining why regulations have not been made and setting a timetable for making the regulations, and
 - (b) lay the statement before each House of Parliament.
- (7) In this section, “OFCOM” means the Office of Communications established by section 1 of the Office of Communications Act 2002.

22 Unsolicited direct marketing: other consumer financial products etc

- (1) The Secretary of State must keep under review whether a prohibition on unsolicited direct marketing in relation to consumer financial products and services other than pensions would be appropriate.
- (2) If the Secretary of State considers that such a prohibition would be appropriate, the Secretary of State may make regulations applying regulations made under section 21 to other consumer financial products and services (with or without modifications).
- (3) In considering whether to make such regulations, the Secretary of State must take into account any advice received from the single financial guidance body under section 3(7)(b)(ii) (consumer protection function: advice on effect on consumers of unsolicited direct marketing).
- (4) The regulations may—
 - (a) make different provision for different purposes;
 - (b) make different provision for different areas;
 - (c) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- (5) Regulations under this section are to be made by statutory instrument.
- (6) A statutory instrument containing regulations under this section may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Miscellaneous

23 Power to dissolve the single financial guidance body

- (1) The Secretary of State must keep under review the question of whether the single financial guidance body should be dissolved.
- (2) If the Secretary of State considers that the single financial guidance body should be dissolved, he or she must carry out a public consultation.
- (3) If, after the period of 12 weeks beginning with the day on which the consultation began, the Secretary of State still considers dissolution of the single financial guidance body to be appropriate, he or she must lay before Parliament—
 - (a) draft regulations, and
 - (b) an explanatory document.
- (4) The draft regulations may in particular make provision about—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the transfer of the functions of the single financial guidance body to the Secretary of State or any other person;
 - (b) the transfer of property, rights or liabilities of the single financial guidance body to the Secretary of State or any other person;
 - (c) the creation and extinguishment of interests, rights and liabilities, in connection with provision made under paragraph (b);
 - (d) the payment by the Secretary of State or the single financial guidance body of compensation to any person who suffers loss or damage as a result of the dissolution.
- (5) The draft regulations—
- (a) may transfer rights and liabilities relating to employees, but
 - (b) may not affect the operation of the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/246).
- (6) The draft regulations may—
- (a) amend or repeal any provision of this Part;
 - (b) make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional or saving provision.
- (7) Subsection (6)(b) includes the power to amend any provision made by or under—
- (a) an Act of Parliament,
 - (b) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (c) a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales, or
 - (d) Northern Ireland legislation.

24 Regulations dissolving the new single financial guidance body: procedure

- (1) The 40-day affirmative procedure applies to draft regulations under section 23 unless, within the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the draft regulations were laid before Parliament—
- (a) either House of Parliament resolves that the super-affirmative procedure should apply, or
 - (b) a committee of either House charged with reporting on the draft regulations recommends that the super-affirmative procedure should apply and the House to which the recommendation is made does not by resolution reject the recommendation within that 30-day period.

In either of those cases the super-affirmative procedure applies.

- (2) Under the 40-day affirmative procedure, if after the expiry of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the regulations were laid before Parliament, the draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Secretary of State may make regulations in the terms of the draft regulations.
- (3) Under the super-affirmative procedure, the Secretary of State must—
- (a) have regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (4), and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) make the regulations in accordance with subsections (5) to (7).
- (4) The matters are—
- (a) any representations,
 - (b) any resolution of either House of Parliament, and
 - (c) any recommendation of a committee of either House of Parliament charged with reporting on the draft regulations,
- made in relation to the draft regulations during the period of 60 days beginning with the day on which the draft regulations were laid before Parliament.
- (5) If, after the expiry of that 60-day period, the draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Secretary of State may make regulations in the terms of the draft regulations.
- (6) If, after the expiry of that 60-day period, the Secretary of State wishes to proceed with the draft regulations but with material changes, the Secretary of State may lay before Parliament—
- (a) revised draft regulations, and
 - (b) a statement giving a summary of the changes proposed.
- (7) If the revised draft regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament, the Secretary of State may make regulations in the terms of the revised draft regulations.
- (8) Regulations are made in the terms of draft regulations (including revised draft regulations) if the regulations contain no material changes.
- (9) In calculating the periods of time referred to in this section, no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which either House is adjourned for more than four days.

- (8) In section 234J(2) (FCA's functions under the Competition Act 1998), after “financial services” insert “ or relate to the provision of claims management services in Great Britain ”.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

(9) In section 234M(1) (function of keeping market under review), after “services” insert “and the market in Great Britain for claims management services”.

(10) In section 417(1) (definitions), at the appropriate place insert—

““regulated claims management activity” means activity of a kind specified in an order under section 22(1B) (regulated activities: claims management services);”.

(11) After section 419 insert—

“419A Claims management services

(1) In this Act “claims management services” means advice or other services in relation to the making of a claim.

(2) In subsection (1) “other services” includes—

- (a) financial services or assistance,
- (b) legal representation,
- (c) referring or introducing one person to another, and
- (d) making inquiries,

but giving, or preparing to give, evidence (whether or not expert evidence) is not, by itself, a claims management service.

(3) In this section “claim” means a claim for compensation, restitution, repayment or any other remedy or relief in respect of loss or damage or in respect of an obligation, whether the claim is made or could be made—

- (a) by way of legal proceedings,
- (b) in accordance with a scheme of regulation (whether voluntary or compulsory), or
- (c) in pursuance of a voluntary undertaking.

(4) The Treasury may by order provide that a claim for a specified benefit is to be treated as a claim for the purposes of this section.

(5) The Treasury may specify a benefit under subsection (4) only if it appears to the Treasury to be a social security benefit, payable under the law of any part of the United Kingdom, designed to provide compensation for industrial injury.

419B Carrying on claims management activity in Great Britain

(1) The Treasury may by order make provision as to the circumstances in which a person is, or is not, to be treated as carrying on—

- (a) a regulated claims management activity, or
- (b) an activity of a kind specified in an order under section 21(10B), in Great Britain.

(2) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 419 apply in relation to an order under subsection (1) as they apply in relation to an order under subsection (1) of that section, but as if the references to regulated activities in subsection (2) of that section were references to regulated claims management activities or, as the case may be, to activities of a kind specified in an order under section 21(10B).”

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (12) In section 429 (parliamentary control of statutory instruments)—
- (a) in subsection (1)(a) (orders subject to affirmative procedure), for “or 419” substitute “, 419 or 419B ”,
 - (b) in subsection (4)—
 - (i) in paragraph (e), for “or (10)” substitute “, (10) or (10B)”,
 - (ii) omit the “or” at the end of paragraph (f), and
 - (iii) after paragraph (g) insert “; or
 - (h) it adds one or more activities to those that are controlled claims management activities for the purposes of section 21.”, and
 - (c) after subsection (7) insert—

“(7A) An order to which, if it is made, subsection (7B) will apply is not to be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House.

(7B) This subsection applies to an order under section 419A(4) if—

 - (a) it is the first order to be made, or to contain provisions made, under that subsection; or
 - (b) it adds one or more benefits to those that are specified benefits for the purposes of section 419A.”
- (13) In Schedule 2 (regulated activities)—
- (a) in paragraph 25 (order making power), in sub-paragraph (1)—
 - (i) in the opening words for “or (1A)” substitute “ to (1B) ”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (f) at the end insert “, including provision which applies (with or without modification) provision in this Act or other primary or subordinate legislation that relates to investment activity or financial services to a regulated activity that does not relate to investment activity or financial services.”, and
 - (b) in paragraph 26 (parliamentary control), in sub-paragraph (1) for “or (1A)” substitute “ to (1B) ”.
- (14) Schedule 4 contains provision about transfer schemes where an order is made under section 22(1B) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (inserted by subsection (4)(a)).
- (15) Schedule 5 contains transitional provision relating to this section.

Charges for claims management services

28 Power of FCA to make rules restricting charges for claims management services

- (1) The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 is amended as set out in subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) After section 137FC (inserted by section 20) insert—

“137FD FCA general rules: charges for claims management services

- (1) The power of the FCA to make general rules includes power to make rules prohibiting authorised persons from—
 - (a) entering into a specified regulated claims management agreement that provides for the payment by a person of charges which, taken with charges payable under an agreement treated by the rules as being connected with the regulated claims management agreement (if any), are specified charges, and
 - (b) imposing specified charges on a person in connection with the provision of a service which is, or which is provided in connection with, a specified regulated claims management activity.
- (2) The FCA must make rules by virtue of subsection (1) in relation to all regulated claims management agreements, and all regulated claims management activities, which concern claims in relation to financial products or services.
- (3) The rules must be made with a view to securing an appropriate degree of protection against excessive charges for the provision of a service which is, or which is provided in connection with, a regulated claims management activity.
- (4) The rules may specify charges by reference to charges of a specified class or description, or by reference to charges which exceed, or are capable of exceeding, a specified amount.
- (5) In relation to an agreement entered into, or charge imposed, in contravention of the rules, the rules may (amongst other things)—
 - (a) provide for the agreement, or obligation to pay the charge, to be unenforceable or unenforceable to a specified extent;
 - (b) provide for the recovery of amounts paid under the agreement or obligation;
 - (c) provide for the payment of compensation for any losses incurred as a result of paying amounts under the agreement or obligation.
- (6) The provision that may be made under subsection (5) includes provision corresponding to that made by section 30 (enforceability of agreements resulting from unlawful communications).
- (7) In this section—
 - (a) “regulated claims management agreement” means an agreement, the entering into or performing of which by either party is a regulated claims management activity, and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) “specified” means specified in the rules, but “specified amount” means an amount specified in or determined in accordance with the rules.”
- (3) In section 138E(3) (contravention of rules which may make transaction void or unenforceable)—
 - (a) omit the “or” at the end of paragraph (b), and
 - (b) at the end of paragraph (c) insert “or
 - (d) rules made by the FCA under section 137FD.”

29 PPI claims and charges for claims management services: general

- (1) This section and sections 30 to 32 make provision for a fee cap to apply in certain circumstances to charges for regulated services provided in connection with a PPI claim.
- (2) The following provisions explain terms used in those sections.
- (3) The fee cap applicable to the amount charged for regulated services provided in connection with a PPI claim is 20% of the amount recovered for the claimant in satisfaction of the claim.

Accordingly, where nothing is recovered (whether or not a claim has been made or concluded) the fee cap is zero.
- (4) But the charging of a reasonable amount for work done for the claimant is not to be regarded as exceeding the fee cap for a PPI claim if—
 - (a) the amount is charged for regulated services provided in connection with the claim,
 - (b) no other amount is charged for those services,
 - (c) the claimant has terminated the agreement governing the provision of such services (whether before or after the making of a claim), and
 - (d) the termination was not achieved by the cancellation of the agreement during a cooling off period available to the claimant by right (whether conferred by the agreement or otherwise).
- (5) References to a claim are to a claim (however described) seeking compensation, restitution, repayment or any other financial remedy or relief, whether or not the claim is made or could be made by way of legal proceedings.
- (6) References to the amount charged for regulated services provided in connection with a PPI claim are references to a sum comprising all amounts charged for such services in connection with the claim (whether or not charged under a single agreement), exclusive of VAT.
- (7) References to the amount recovered for the claimant, in relation to a PPI claim, include a reference to any amount which (instead of being paid to or to the order of the claimant)—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) is set off against a debt due from the claimant to the person against whom the claim is made, or
 - (b) is paid to any person other than the claimant (whether a person providing regulated services in connection with the claim or any other person) with a view to discharging the whole or part of a debt due from the claimant.
- (8) In this section references to regulated services are—
- (a) so far as relevant for the purposes of section 30, to be read as referring to regulated claims management services,
 - (b) so far as relevant for the purposes of section 31, to be read as referring to any service which is a regulated claims management activity, and
 - (c) so far as relevant for the purposes of section 32, to be read as referring to any service which is a relevant claims management activity (within the meaning given by subsection (5) of that section).
- (9) “PPI claim” means a claim relating to the selling of payment protection insurance (whether it concerns amounts paid by the policyholder or otherwise).
- (10) “Regulated claims management services”—
- (a) does not include any reserved legal activities of the kind mentioned in section 12(1)(a) or (b) of the Legal Services Act 2007 (exercise of a right of audience or the conduct of litigation), but
 - (b) otherwise, has the same meaning as in the Compensation Act 2006 (see section 14 of that Act).
- (11) “Regulated claims management activity” has the same meaning as in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (see the definition inserted by this Act in section 417(1) of that Act).
- (12) “Section 22(1B) specified activity provisions” means provisions of an order made under section 22(1B) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as inserted by this Act) which specify a kind of activity as a regulated activity within the meaning of that Act.
- (13) “The FCA” means the Financial Conduct Authority.

30 PPI claims: interim restriction on charges before transfer of regulation to FCA

- (1) A regulated person —
- (a) must not charge a claimant, for regulated claims management services provided in connection with the claimant's PPI claim, an amount which exceeds the fee cap for the claim, and
 - (b) must not enter into an agreement that provides for the payment by a claimant, for regulated claims management services provided in connection with the claimant's PPI claim, of charges which would breach, or are capable of breaching, the prohibition in paragraph (a).
- (2) A breach of either of those prohibitions is not actionable as a breach of statutory duty; but—
- (a) any payment in excess of the fee cap for a PPI claim is recoverable by the claimant, and

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) any agreement entered into in breach of subsection (1)(b) is not enforceable to the extent it provides for a payment that breaches or is capable of breaching the prohibition in subsection (1)(a).
- (3) In subsection (2) “payment” means a payment of charges for regulated claims management services provided in connection with the claim.
- (4) A relevant regulator—
 - (a) must ensure that it has appropriate arrangements for monitoring and enforcing the prohibitions in subsection (1) as they apply to the regulated persons for whom it is the relevant regulator;
 - (b) may make rules for the purposes of doing so (which may include provision applying, in relation to breaches of a prohibition in subsection (1), functions the relevant regulator has in relation to breaches of another restriction).
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) “regulated person” means—
 - (i) a person who falls within any category of regulated person specified in column 2 below, or
 - (ii) any person not within sub-paragraph (i) who, by virtue of article 4 of the Compensation (Exemptions) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/209), is not prevented by section 4(1) of the Compensation Act 2006 from providing regulated claims management services;
 - (b) “relevant regulator” means a person listed in column 1 below; and
 - (c) the regulated persons for whom a person listed in column 1 below is the relevant regulator are described in the corresponding entry or entries in column 2.

31 PPI claims: interim restriction on charges imposed by authorised persons after transfer of regulation to FCA

- (1) The rule specified in subsection (2) is to be treated for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as if—
 - (a) the rule were a general rule made by the FCA under section 137A of that Act, and
 - (b) this section were contained in that Act;and accordingly functions conferred on the FCA by that Act which apply in relation to general rules made under section 137A apply to that rule as they apply to other general rules made under that section.
- (2) The rule is that an authorised person—
 - (a) must not charge a claimant, for a service which is a regulated claims management activity provided in connection with the claimant's PPI claim, an amount which exceeds the fee cap for the claim, and
 - (b) must not enter into an agreement that provides for the payment by a claimant, for a service which is a regulated claims management activity provided in connection with the claimant's PPI claim, of charges which would breach, or are capable of breaching, the prohibition in paragraph (a).
- (3) A breach of either of those prohibitions is not actionable as a breach of statutory duty (despite section 138D(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000); but—
 - (a) any payment in excess of the fee cap for a PPI claim is recoverable by the claimant, and
 - (b) any agreement entered into in breach of the prohibition in subsection (2)(b) is not enforceable to the extent it provides for a payment that breaches or is capable of breaching the prohibition in subsection (2)(a).
- (4) In subsection (3) “payment” means a payment of charges for a service which is a regulated claims management activity provided in connection with the claim.
- (5) The rule in subsection (2) applies as follows—
 - (a) the prohibition in paragraph (a) applies only to charges imposed under an agreement which is entered into during the second interim period, and
 - (b) the prohibition in paragraph (b) applies only to agreements entered into during that period.
- (6) In subsection (5) “the second interim period” is the period—
 - (a) beginning with the day on which the first section 22(1B) specified activity provisions come into force for (or for purposes which include) the purposes of the general prohibition in section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, and
 - (b) ending with the day before the coming into force of the first relevant general rule made by the FCA (whether for all purposes or for any specific purpose).
- (7) In subsection (6)(b) “relevant general rule” means a general rule that—
 - (a) is made under subsection (1) of section 137FD of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as inserted by this Act), and
 - (b) applies to, or to any description of, PPI claims (whether or not it also applies to anything else).

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) In this section “authorised person” has the same meaning as in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (see section 31(2) of that Act).

32 PPI claims: interim restriction on charges imposed by legal practitioners after transfer of regulation to FCA

- (1) A legal practitioner—
- (a) must not charge a claimant, for a service which is a relevant claims management activity provided in connection with the claimant's PPI claim, an amount which exceeds the fee cap for the claim, and
 - (b) must not enter into an agreement that provides for the payment by a claimant, for a service which is a relevant claims management activity provided in connection with the claimant's PPI claim, of charges which would breach, or are capable of breaching, the prohibition in paragraph (a).
- (2) Subsections (2) to (5) and (7) of section 30 apply for the purposes of the prohibitions in subsection (1) as they apply for the purposes of the prohibitions in section 30(1) but as if—
- (a) references in those subsections to “regulated claims management services” were references to “relevant claims management activity” and references to “regulated persons” were references to “legal practitioners”, and
 - (b) the first entry in columns 1 and 2 of the table in subsection (5) were omitted.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies as follows—
- (a) the prohibition in subsection (1)(a) applies only to charges imposed by a legal practitioner under an agreement entered into during the period—
 - (i) beginning with the first day of the second interim period (within the meaning given by section 31(6)), and
 - (ii) ending with the end date for that practitioner, and
 - (b) the prohibition in subsection (1)(b) applies only to agreements entered into by a legal practitioner during that period.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the end date is—
- (a) for a legal practitioner for whom the relevant regulator is the Law Society of England and Wales, the day before the coming into force of the first rule made by the Law Society of England and Wales under section 33 that applies to, or to any description of, PPI claims, and
 - (b) for any other legal practitioner, 29 April 2020.
- (5) In this section “relevant claims management activity”—
- (a) does not include any reserved legal activities of the kind mentioned in section 12(1)(a) or (b) of the Legal Services Act 2007 (exercise of a right of audience or the conduct of litigation), but
 - (b) otherwise, means activity of a kind specified in an order under section 22(1B) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (regulated activities: claims management services), disregarding any exemption in that order for activities carried on by, through, or at the direction of, a legal practitioner.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

33 Legal services regulators' rules: charges for claims management services

- (1) The Law Society of England and Wales, the General Council of the Bar and the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives may make rules prohibiting regulated persons from—
 - (a) entering into a specified relevant claims management agreement that provides for the payment by a person of specified charges, and
 - (b) imposing specified charges on a person in connection with the provision of a service which is, or which is provided in connection with, a specified relevant claims management activity.
- (2) The Law Society of England and Wales must exercise that power to make rules in relation to all relevant claims management agreements, and all relevant claims management activities, which concern claims in relation to financial products or services.
- (3) The Law Society of Scotland may make rules prohibiting regulated persons from—
 - (a) entering into a relevant claims management agreement concerning a claim in relation to a financial product or service that provides for the payment by a person of specified charges, and
 - (b) imposing specified charges on a person in connection with the provision of a service which is, or which is provided in connection with, a relevant claims management activity concerning a claim in relation to a financial product or service.
- (4) Rules under this section may make provision securing that for the purposes of the prohibition referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (3)(a) charges payable under a relevant claims management agreement are to be treated as including charges payable under an agreement treated by the rules as being connected with the relevant claims management agreement.
- (5) In this section “regulated persons” means—
 - (a) in relation to the Law Society of England and Wales—
 - (i) persons who, or licensable bodies which, are authorised by the Law Society to carry on a reserved legal activity,
 - (ii) European lawyers registered with the Law Society under the European Communities (Lawyer's Practice) Regulations 2000 (S.I. 2000/1119) [^{F8}, as they have effect by virtue of regulation 6 of the Services of Lawyers and Lawyer's Practice (Revocation etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020], and
 - (iii) foreign lawyers registered with the Law Society under section 89 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990;

- (d) in relation to the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives, persons authorised by the Institute to carry on a reserved legal activity.
- (6) The rules must be made with a view to securing an appropriate degree of protection against excessive charges for the provision of a service which is, or which is provided in connection with, a relevant claims management activity.
- (7) The rules may specify charges by reference to charges of a specified class or description, or by reference to charges which exceed, or are capable of exceeding, a specified amount.
- (8) The rules may not specify—
- (a) charges for a reserved legal activity within the meaning of the Legal Services Act 2007 (see section 12 of that Act);
 - (b) charges imposed in respect of—
 - (i) the exercise of a right of audience by a Scottish legal practitioner;
 - (ii) the conduct of litigation by a Scottish legal practitioner.
- (9) In subsection (8)(b)—
- “conduct of litigation” means—
- (a) the bringing of proceedings before any court in Scotland;
 - (b) the commencement, prosecution and defence of such proceedings;
 - (c) the performance of any ancillary functions in relation to such proceedings;
- “right of audience” means the right to appear before and address a court in Scotland, including the right to call and examine witnesses.
- (10) In relation to an agreement entered into, or charge imposed, in contravention of the rules, the rules may (amongst other things)—
- (a) provide for the agreement, or obligation to pay the charge, to be unenforceable or unenforceable to a specified extent;
 - (b) provide for the recovery of amounts paid under the agreement or obligation;
 - (c) provide for the payment of compensation for any losses incurred as a result of paying amounts under the agreement or obligation.
- (11) For the purposes of this section—
- “relevant claims management activity” means activity of a kind specified in an order under section 22(1B) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (regulated activities: claims management services), disregarding any exemption in that order for activities carried on by, through, or at the direction of, a legal practitioner;
- “relevant claims management agreement” means an agreement, the entering into or performance of which by either party is a relevant claims management activity;
- “Scottish legal practitioner” means—
- (a) a person qualified to practise as a solicitor in accordance with section 4 of the Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980;
 - (b) European lawyers registered with the Law Society of Scotland under the European Communities (Lawyer's Practice) (Scotland) Regulations 2000 (S.S.I. 2000/121);
 - (c) foreign lawyers registered with the Law Society of Scotland under section 60A of the Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) an incorporated practice within the meaning given by section 34(1A)(c) of the Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980;
 - (e) a licensed legal services provider within the meaning of Part 2 of the Legal Services (Scotland) Act 2010 (see section 47 of that Act) that provides, or offers to provide, legal services under a licence issued by the Law Society of Scotland;
- “specified” means specified in the rules, but “specified amount” means an amount specified in or determined in accordance with the rules.

- (12) This section does not limit any power of the Law Society of England and Wales, the Law Society of Scotland, the General Council of the Bar or the Chartered Institute of Legal Executives existing apart from this section to make rules.

Contents of a scheme

- 2 (1) A scheme under this Schedule may, in particular, make provision—
- (a) for anything done by or in relation to the transferor in connection with any property, rights or liabilities transferred by the scheme to be treated as done, or to be continued, by or in relation to the transferee;
 - (b) for references (however expressed) to the transferor in any agreement, instrument or other document relating to property, rights or liabilities transferred by the scheme to be treated as references to the transferee;
 - (c) about the continuation of legal proceedings;
 - (d) for transferring property, rights or liabilities which could not otherwise be transferred or assigned;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018. (See end of Document for details)

- (e) for transferring property, rights or liabilities irrespective of any requirement for consent which would otherwise apply;
- (f) for preventing a right of pre-emption, right of reverter, right of forfeiture, right to compensation or other similar right from arising or becoming exercisable as a result of the transfer of property, rights or liabilities;
- (g) for dispensing with any formality in relation to the transfer of property, rights or liabilities by the scheme;
- (h) for transferring property acquired, or rights or liabilities arising, after the scheme is made but before it takes effect;
- (i) for apportioning property, rights or liabilities;
- (j) for creating rights, or imposing liabilities, in connection with property, rights or liabilities transferred by the scheme;
- (k) for requiring the transferee to enter into any agreement of any kind, or for a purpose, specified in or determined in accordance with the scheme;
- (l) that is the same as or similar to provision made by the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 (S.I. 2006/246), if those Regulations do not apply to the transfer.

(2) Sub-paragraph (1)(b) does not apply to references in any of the following—

- (a) an Act of Parliament;
- (b) an Act of the Scottish Parliament;
- (c) an Act or Measure of the National Assembly for Wales;
- (d) Northern Ireland legislation;
- (e) subordinate legislation within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978 (see section 21(1) of that Act);

Section 27

REGULATION OF CLAIMS MANAGEMENT SERVICES: TRANSITIONAL PROVISION

FCA information gathering powers

- 1 Part 11 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (information gathering and investigations) has effect as if—
- (a) to the extent that they relate to a notice or authorisation of the FCA, the references in section 165(1), (3) and (7)(a) to an authorised person include a reference to a person falling within paragraph 2,
 - (b) the reference in section 165(4)(a) to the exercise by either regulator of functions conferred on it under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 includes a reference to the steps taken, or to be taken, by the FCA in preparation for the conferral of functions on it by virtue of the making of an order under section 22(1B) of that Act (“a regulated claims management activity order”), and
 - (c) the reference in section 166(2)(a) to an authorised person includes a reference to a person falling within paragraph 3.
- 2 A person falls within this paragraph if the person—
- (a) is or at any time was authorised under section 5(1)(a) of the Compensation Act 2006 (provision of regulated claims management services), or
 - (b) is, or at any time was, providing services in Scotland which the person would be, or would have been, prohibited from providing in England and Wales by section 4(1) of the Compensation Act 2006 unless authorised under section 5(1)(a) of that Act.
- 3 A person falls within this paragraph if the person—
- (a) is authorised under section 5(1)(a) of the Compensation Act 2006 (provision of regulated claims management services), or

- (b) is providing services in Scotland which the person would be prohibited from providing in England and Wales by section 4(1) of the Compensation Act 2006 unless authorised under section 5(1)(a) of that Act.

FCA preparatory steps

- 4 The FCA may, before the making of a regulated claims management activity order, take such steps as the FCA considers necessary or expedient in preparation for the conferral of functions on it as a result of the making of the order.

Consultation requirements

- 5 Paragraphs 6 and 7 apply in connection with the making or issuing of any rules or other instrument or document relating to an activity—
 - (a) of a kind specified in a regulated claims management activity order, or
 - (b) of a kind specified in an order under section 21(10B) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.
- 6 Any requirement imposed on the FCA—
 - (a) to publish a draft of the rules or other instrument or document and invite representations about it, or
 - (b) to consult particular persons,may be satisfied by things done by the FCA before the coming into effect of the order or the passing of this Act.
- 7 Section 138I of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (consultation by the FCA) does not apply in relation to rules which make provision similar to any provision in or made under Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006.

Designation of Regulator's rules

- 8 After the making of a regulated claims management activity order, rules which—
 - (a) were made by the Regulator by virtue of provision in or under Part 2 of the Compensation Act 2006, and
 - (b) are designated by the FCA,are to be treated as having been made by the FCA by virtue of comparable provision in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.
- 9 The rules may be modified by the FCA.

Provision of information by Regulator and OLC

- 10 The Regulator may disclose to the FCA or the FOS any information which the Regulator considers that it is necessary or expedient to disclose to the FCA or, as the case may be, the FOS so that the FCA or the FOS can take steps in preparation for the conferral of functions on it as a result of the making of a regulated claims management activity order.
- 11 Section 244 of the Enterprise Act 2002 (considerations relevant to disclosure of information) does not apply in relation to a disclosure under paragraph 10.
- 12 The OLC may disclose to the FOS or the FCA any information which the OLC considers that it is necessary or expedient to disclose to the FOS or, as the case may be, the FCA so that the FOS or the FCA can take steps in preparation for the conferral of functions on it as a result of the making of a regulated claims management activity order.

Complaints handling

- 13 Where a regulated claims management activity order is made which requires the OLC to continue to deal with complaints made to it on or before a date or event identified in the order—
- (a) the FCA is to reimburse the OLC for the cost it incurs in doing so, and
 - (b) this reimbursement obligation is to be treated for the purposes of paragraph 23 of Schedule 1ZA to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (fees) as a qualifying function conferred on the FCA under that Act.

Interpretation

- 14 In this Schedule—
- “the FCA” means the Financial Conduct Authority;
 - “the FOS” means the body corporate which administers the ombudsman scheme provided for in Part 16 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (see section 225 of that Act);
 - “the OLC” means the Office for Legal Complaints established by section 114 of the Legal Services Act 2007;
 - “the Regulator” means the person designated under section 5(1) of the Compensation Act 2006 or, if no person is so designated, the Secretary of State;
 - “regulated claims management activity order” has the meaning given in paragraph 1(b).

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Financial Guidance and Claims Act 2018.
