PUBLIC PASSENGER TRANSPORT, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Public Service Vehicles (Registration of Local Services) (Quality Contracts Schemes)
(England and Wales) Regulations 2009

Made - - - - 7th December 2009

Laid before Parliament 14th December 2009

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1(2)

The Secretary of State makes the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6(3)(a) and (9)(b), (c) and (h) and 6B(5) and (7) of the Transport Act 1985(1) and section 60(1) and (1A) of the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981(2).

The Secretary of State has consulted representative organisations in accordance with section 61(2) of the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981(3), and the Administrative Justice and Tribunals Council in accordance with paragraph 24(1) of Schedule 7 to the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007(4).

- (1) 1985 c. 67. By virtue of section 137 of the Act, “regulations” means regulations made by the Secretary of State. Section 6 of the Transport Act 1985 has been amended by the Railways Act 2005 (c. 14), section 59(1) and Schedule 12, paragraph 8; the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (c. 40), section 85 and Schedule 10, paragraphs 2(1) to (3); the Local Transport Act 2008 (c. 26), sections 48(1) and (2) and 65(2) to (4). Section 6(2B) and (7A) were inserted by section 49(1) to (3) of the Local Transport Act 2008, and section 6(8) was amended by section 49(1) and (4) of that Act. There are other amendments to section 6 but none is relevant. Section 6B was inserted by section 49(5) of the Local Transport Act 2008.
- (2) 1981 c. 14. Section 134 of the Transport Act 1985 provides that section 60 of the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 (c. 14) (general power to make regulations for purposes of Act) has effect as if Parts 1 and 2 of the Transport Act 1985 were contained in the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981. Consequently, the requirements and powers in section 60 of the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 apply to the making of these Regulations. Section 60(1) was amended by the Transport Act 1985, sections 3, 134(2) and 139(2), Part 3 of Schedule 2, Schedule 7 and Schedule 8. Section 60(1A) was inserted by section 134(2) of the Transport Act 1985. There are other amendments to section 60 but none is relevant.
- (3) For the reasons described in the footnote to the reference to the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981, the requirements in section 61 of that Act apply to the making of these Regulations. Section 61(2) was amended by the Transport Act 1985, sections 135(1) and 139(3) and Schedule 8.
- (4) 2007 c. 15. The effect of paragraph 24(1) of Schedule 7 to this Act is that the power of the Secretary of State to make procedural rules for any listed tribunal can be exercised only after consultation with the Administrative Justice and Tribunals Council. The traffic commissioners for areas in England and Wales are a listed tribunal for the purposes of paragraph 24(1) by virtue of the Administrative Justice and Tribunals Council (Listed Tribunals) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/2951).

(2) The period is—

- (a) 28 days in the case of a community bus service,

- (c) 112 days in the case of any other service,

commencing on the date on which the traffic commissioner accepts the application.

Period of notice for variation of registration during transitional period

6.—(1) Subject to regulations 7 and 8, the variation of a service registration to which this Part applies becomes effective, for the purposes of section 6(8)(a) of the 1985 Act, on the expiry of the period prescribed in paragraph (2).

(2) Subject to paragraph (4) the period is—

- (a) 28 days in the case of a community bus service,
- (b) 112 days in the case of a service in respect of which a traffic commissioner has, having satisfied the requirements prescribed in paragraph (3), determined that the variation would have a significantly detrimental effect on persons using the service, or on a significant proportion of such persons, or
- (c) 56 days in the case of—
 - (i) a service which, before the service is varied in accordance with the application to which this regulation relates, is to be excluded from the scheme by virtue of section 127(4) of the 2000 Act, or
 - (ii) any service not falling within sub-paragraph (a), (b) or (c)(i),

commencing on the date on which the traffic commissioner accepts the application.

(3) Before making a determination under paragraph (2)(b) the traffic commissioner—

- (a) must, where the operator has given less than 112 days notice of the proposed variation, consult, and have regard to any representations made by, the local transport authority or authorities, as defined in section 108(4) of the 2000 Act⁽¹⁸⁾, who made the scheme; and
- (b) must take into account other applications made during the transitional period to register particulars of a service or to vary service registrations.

(4) If an application to vary a service registration satisfies more than one of the criteria described in paragraph (2), the shorter or shortest period which applies to that application by virtue of those criteria is to apply for the purposes of section 6(8)(a) of the 1985 Act.

Determination of period by traffic commissioner

7.—(1) In respect of an application to which this Part applies, in any of the circumstances specified in paragraph (2)—

- (a) section 6(2)(b) of the 1985 Act, where it applies, is to have effect as if for the words “the period of notice”, there were substituted the words “such period of notice as the traffic commissioner may determine”; and

- (2) The circumstances are—
- (a) where an operator applies to register, except in the situation described in regulation 4(3), particulars of a service, or to vary an existing registration, with respect to a service or part of a service which, if the application were to be accepted, would be substantially similar to and replace a service, or part of a service, which either the operator making the application, or another operator, has ceased to operate;
 - (b) where an operator applies to vary or cancel the registration of a service which is either not available to members of the general public or not generally used by them;

 - (d) where an operator applies to register particulars of a service, or to vary an existing registration, and the effect is to introduce a new service, or to augment an existing service, for a period not exceeding 21 days in connection with a specified event or occasion which will cause an additional demand for a service;
 - (e) where an operator applies to vary a registration by adjusting the timetable of a service without significantly affecting the level of service provision, and the adjusted timings are—
 - (i) in no case more than 10 minutes earlier or later than those which they replace; or
 - (ii) required to adapt the service to a variation in a connecting rail, ferry or air service;
 - (f) where an operator applies to vary a registration so as to vary or suspend a service during a period not exceeding 14 days in response to public holidays restricted to the relevant locality or holidays taken by a substantial proportion of the population in that locality;
 - (g) where an operator, due to circumstances which could not reasonably have been foreseen, failed to make an application in sufficient time for the completion of the period of notice which would apply apart from this sub-paragraph;
 - (h) where an operator applies to register particulars of a service, or vary a registration, with respect to a service or part of a service in order to meet an urgent and exceptional public passenger transport requirement.

- (b) section 6(8) of the 1985 Act, where it applies, has effect as if paragraph (a) and the words “if later,” at the beginning of paragraph (b) of that subsection were omitted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision about the registration of local bus services in England and Wales, and the variation or cancellation of such registrations, during the period between the making of a quality contracts scheme and its coming into force. They also make provision about applications for

(22) S.I. 1986/1671. These Regulations have been revoked in relation to Scotland by SSI 2001/219, regulation 3(1) and Schedule 2. Regulation 5 was substituted in relation to England and Wales by S.I. 2004/10, regulations 2 and 6, and amended by S.I. 2009/443, regulation 7 and the Schedule, paragraph 2. Regulation 7 was amended by S.I. 1988/1879, regulation 5; S.I. 1989/1064, regulation 4; and S.I. 2004/10, regulations 2 and 7. Regulation 8 was amended by S.I. 2004/10, regulations 2 and 8. Regulation 9A was inserted by S.I. 1988/1879, regulation 7 and amended by S.I. 1989/1064, regulation 7. There are other amendments to these Regulations but none is relevant.

(23) S.I. 2009/3245.

the registration of bus services, or variation of such registrations, where a quality contracts scheme is in force.

A quality contracts scheme is a scheme made under the Transport Act 2000 under which a local transport authority determines the local bus network in the area to which the scheme relates. Where a scheme is in place, local bus services can only (with some exceptions) be provided under quality contracts. A quality contract is a contract made by the authority under which a particular operator is granted the exclusive right to operate specified services. New provisions in the Transport Act 1985 (inserted by the Local Transport Act 2008) allow services to be operated other than under a quality contract in circumstances where the local authority is satisfied that there would be no adverse effect on services provided under the scheme.

Part 1 contains general provisions.

Part 2 prescribes certain notice periods for the purposes of section 6 of the Transport Act 1985 (registration of local services) during the transitional period (as defined in regulation 2). Regulation 3 prescribes the circumstances in which this Part is to apply and provides that, where this Part applies, regulations 5 to 8 of the Public Service Vehicles (Registration of Local Services) Regulations 1986 (S.I. 1986/1671) (“the 1986 Regulations”), which apply to service registrations generally, do not apply.

Regulation 4 prescribes the period of notice for new registrations during the transitional period. If an operator ceases to provide a service before a quality contract comes into force, and the local authority makes an agreement with another operator to provide a replacement service, the notice period ends on the date on which the operator proposes to start operating the replacement service.

Regulation 5 prescribes the period of notice for cancelling a registration during the transitional period. The period is extended from 56 days to 112 days where the service is one which, once the quality contracts scheme is in force, will be provided under a quality contract.

Regulation 6 prescribes the period of notice for varying a service registration during the transitional period. Where the traffic commissioner, having consulted the local transport authority and taken into account other changes to service registrations in the area of the scheme, considers that the variation would have a detrimental effect on passengers, the period is extended from 56 days to 112 days.

Regulations 7 and 8 prescribe exceptions to the periods prescribed in regulations 4 to 6. Regulation 9 introduces the Schedule, which makes consequential amendments to the 1986 Regulations.

Part 3 contains provisions made under new section 6B of the Transport Act 1985 (inserted by section 49(5) of the Local Transport Act 2008) which apply to applications to register a new service, or to vary an existing registration, where a quality contracts scheme is in force. Regulation 10 prescribes 28 days as the period within which an authority may submit a clearance certificate to the traffic commissioner (without which the commissioner cannot accept the application) if satisfied that the registration or variation will not be detrimental to services provided under the scheme. Regulation 11 prescribes exceptions to the requirement to obtain a clearance certificate in respect of an application to vary a registration.
