44. Omit section 132 (the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal).
45. For section 133 (proceedings: general provision) substitute—

“133 Proceedings before Tribunal: general provision

(1) This section applies in the case of a reference or appeal to the Tribunal (whether made under this or any other Act) in respect of—

- (a) a decision of the Authority;
- (b) a decision of the Bank of England; or
- (c) a decision of a person relating to the assessment of any compensation or consideration under the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008(29) or the Banking Act 2009(30).

(2) In this section—

“relevant decision” means a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c); and
“the decision-maker”, in relation to a relevant decision, means the person who made the relevant decision.

(3) Tribunal Procedure Rules may make provision for the suspension of a relevant decision which has taken effect, pending determination of the reference or appeal.

(4) The Tribunal may consider any evidence relating to the subject-matter of the reference or appeal, whether or not it was available to the decision-maker at the material time.

(5) The Tribunal must determine what (if any) is the appropriate action for the decision-maker to take in relation to the matter referred or appealed to it.

(6) On determining the reference or appeal, the Tribunal must remit the matter to the decision-maker with such directions (if any) as the Tribunal considers appropriate for giving effect to its determination.

(7) The decision-maker must act in accordance with the determination of, and any direction given by, the Tribunal.

(8) An order of the Tribunal may be enforced—

- (a) as if it were an order of a county court; or
- (b) in Scotland, as if it were an order of the Court of Session.

133A Proceedings before Tribunal: decision and supervisory notices, etc.

(1) In determining a reference made (whether under this or any other Act) as a result of a decision notice given by the Authority, the Tribunal may not direct the Authority to take action which the Authority would not, as a result of section 388(2), have had power to take when giving the notice.

(28) 2000 c. 8. Schedule 13 was amended by paragraph 286 of Schedule 4 and paragraph 5 of Schedule 11 to the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4) and paragraph 34 of Schedule 10 to the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15).

(29) 2008 c. 2.

(30) 2009 c. 1.

Statute: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) In determining a reference made as a result of a supervisory notice given by the Authority, the Tribunal may not direct the Authority to take action which would have otherwise required the giving of a decision notice.

(3) In subsection (2) “supervisory notice” has the same meaning as in section 395.

(4) The Authority must not take the action specified in a decision notice—

(a) during the period within which the matter to which the notice relates may be referred to the Tribunal (whether under this or any other Act); and

(b) if the matter is so referred, until the reference, and any appeal against the Tribunal’s determination, has been finally disposed of.

(5) The Tribunal may, on determining a reference (whether made under this or any other Act) in respect of a decision of the Authority, make recommendations as to the Authority’s regulating provisions or its procedures.

133B Offences

(1) This section applies in the case of proceedings before the Tribunal in respect of—

(a) a decision of the Authority;

(b) a decision of the Bank of England; or

(c) a decision of a person relating to the assessment of any compensation or consideration under the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008⁽³¹⁾ or the Banking Act 2009⁽³²⁾.

(2) A person is guilty of an offence if that person, without reasonable excuse—

(a) refuses or fails—

(i) to attend following the issue of a summons by the Tribunal; or

(ii) to give evidence; or

(b) alters, suppresses, conceals or destroys, or refuses to produce a document which he may be required to produce for the purposes of proceedings before the Tribunal.

(3) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (2)(a) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.

(4) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (2)(b) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum;

(b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both.”

46. Omit section 137 (appeal on a point of law) and the italic cross-heading immediately before it.

SCHEDULE 5

Article 5(4)

Transitional and saving provisions

Interpretation of Schedule 5

1. In this Schedule—

“old tribunal” means a tribunal, the functions of which are transferred by article 2, but does not include the Pensions Regulator Tribunal in respect of its functions exercisable in Northern Ireland;

“new tribunal” means—

- (a) the Upper Tribunal, in respect of—
 - (i) the functions of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal and the Pensions Regulator Tribunal;
 - (ii) the functions of the Information Tribunal of deciding appeals under section 28 of the Data Protection Act 1998(105) or section 60 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000(106) (including that section as applied and modified by regulation 18 of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004(107)) (appeals in relation to national security certificates);
- (b) the First-tier Tribunal, in respect of—
 - (i) the tribunal functions mentioned in article 2(1);
 - (ii) the functions of the Information Tribunal other than those mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii);

“transfer date” means the date on which the functions of an old tribunal are transferred to a new tribunal by article 2.

Transitional and saving provisions

2. Any proceedings before an old tribunal which are pending immediately before the transfer date shall continue on and after the transfer date as proceedings before the new tribunal.

3.—(1) The following sub-paragraphs apply where proceedings are continued in a new tribunal by virtue of paragraph 2.

(2) Where a hearing began before the transfer date but was not completed by that date, the new tribunal must be comprised for the continuation of that hearing of the person or persons who began it.

(3) The new tribunal may give any direction to ensure that proceedings are dealt with fairly and, in particular, may—

- (a) apply any provision in procedural rules which applied to the proceedings before the transfer date; or
- (b) disapply provisions of Tribunal Procedure Rules.

(4) In sub-paragraph (3) “procedural rules” means provision (whether called rules or not) regulating practice or procedure before a tribunal.

(5) Any direction or order given or made in proceedings which is in force immediately before the transfer date remains in force on and after that date as if it were a direction or order of the new tribunal.

(105) 1998 c. 29.

(106) 2000 c. 36.

(107) S.I. 2004/3391.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(6) A time period which has started to run before the transfer date and which has not expired shall continue to apply.

(7) An order for costs may only be made if, and to the extent that, an order for costs could have been made by the old tribunal before the transfer date.

4. Paragraph 5 applies where—

- (a) an appeal lies to a court from any decision made by an old tribunal before the transfer date;
- (b) that right of appeal has not been exercised; and
- (c) the time to exercise that right of appeal has not expired prior to the transfer date.

5. In the circumstances set out at paragraph 4, such of the following provisions as is appropriate shall apply as if the decision were a decision made on or after the transfer date by the new tribunal—

- (a) section 11 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007(108) (right to appeal to Upper Tribunal);
- (b) section 13 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (right to appeal to Court of Appeal);
- (c) section 78(9A) to (9D) or section 78B(4) to (7) of the Local Government Act 2000 (as inserted or amended by Schedule 2 to this Order)(109).

6. Any case to be remitted by a court on or after the transfer date and which, if it had been remitted before the transfer date, would have been remitted to an old tribunal, shall be remitted to the new tribunal.

7. Staff appointed to an old tribunal before the transfer date are to be treated on and after that date, for the purpose of any enactment, as if they had been appointed by the Lord Chancellor under section 40(1) of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (tribunal staff and services).

8. A decision made by an old tribunal before the transfer date is to be treated on or after the transfer date as a decision of the new tribunal.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (“the 2007 Act”). Part 1 of the 2007 Act creates a new two tier tribunal structure; the First-tier Tribunal and the Upper Tribunal are established under section 3 of the 2007 Act. Order making powers are provided under Part 1 of the 2007 Act to enable existing tribunals to be transferred into the new structure. This Order effects the transfer into the new structure of various tribunal functions.

Transfer of functions and abolition of tribunals

Article 2 transfers the functions of various tribunals to the First-tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal. Article 3 abolishes each of the tribunals whose functions are transferred, with the exception of the (108)2007 c. 15.

(109)2000 c. 22. Sections 78 and 78B are amended by paragraphs 60 and 62 of Schedule 2 to this Order.

Pensions Regulator Tribunal. The functions of the Pensions Regulator Tribunal in Northern Ireland are not transferred, therefore the Pensions Regulator Tribunal is not abolished.

Transfer of members of tribunals

Article 4 provides for members of the tribunals whose functions are transferred to hold judicial offices in the First-tier Tribunal and Upper Tribunal. Schedule 1 sets out which tribunal members hold which offices in the new tribunals.

Consequential provisions

Paragraphs (1) to (3) of article 5 bring Schedules 2 to 4 into effect. Schedule 2 contains consequential amendments to primary legislation, Schedule 3 contains consequential amendments to secondary legislation, and Schedule 4 contains consequential repeals and revocations of legislation.

The majority of these amendments, repeals and revocations are made in consequence of the transfers of tribunal functions and members, and abolition of tribunals, effected by articles 2, 3 and 4. However paragraphs 11 and 73 of Schedule 2 and paragraph 147 of Schedule 3 relate to the transfer of the Lands Tribunal into the Upper Tribunal that was effected by the Transfer of Tribunal Functions (Lands Tribunal and Miscellaneous Amendments) Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/1307).

Transitional and saving provisions

Paragraph 4 of article 5 brings Schedule 5 into effect. Schedule 5 makes transitional and saving provisions for the treatment of cases which would previously have been dealt with by the tribunals, the functions of which have been transferred, and onward appeals from those tribunals, following the coming into force of this Order.

The Schedule provides for cases which have been started to be transferred to the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal; new proceedings will be started in the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal. In transferred cases the following provisions apply:

- a hearing which has already been commenced but not completed will need to be completed in the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal but comprised of the same members;
- directions and orders made prior to this Order coming into force will continue in force as if they were directions or orders of the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal;
- Tribunal Procedure Rules applicable to the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal will apply to all cases from the date of transfer, but the Tribunals will be able to disapply rules or apply the rules which applied to a case prior to the transfer, to ensure that proceedings are dealt with fairly;
- time limits which begin to run before this Order comes into force continue to apply after the Order comes into force; and
- the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal will only be able to make a costs order if and to the extent that the tribunal dealing with the case prior to transfer could have made such an order.

Appeals against the decisions of the tribunals, the functions of which have been transferred, are to be treated as appeals against the decisions of the First-tier Tribunal or Upper Tribunal, if the appeal right has not been exercised before this Order comes into force and the time for doing so has not expired.

A Regulatory Impact Assessment was prepared for the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007. This can be found at:
