The 1994 Regulations deliver the protected areas and species requirements of Council Directive 92/43/EEC on the conservation of natural habitats and of wild flora and fauna (“the Habitats Directive”) and the protected areas requirements of Directive 2009/147/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the conservation of wild birds (“the Wild Birds Directive”) in Scotland for the terrestrial and inshore areas.

The 1994 Regulations are retained EU law and the amendments in Part 2 adjust the operation of the 1994 Regulations after exit day.

Parts 3 and 4 of these Regulations update references in the Conservation of Salmon (Scotland) Regulations 2016 and in the Tweed Regulation (Salmon Conservation) (No. 2) Order 2016 to take account of the operation of the 1994 Regulations after exit day.
