

EXECUTIVE NOTE

THE EQUALITY ACT 2010 (SPECIFICATION OF PUBLIC AUTHORITIES) (SCOTLAND) ORDER 2011

2011 No. 233

1. The above instrument will, if approved, be made by the Scottish Ministers in exercise of the powers conferred by section 151(3) of the Equality Act 2010 (“the Act”). The instrument is subject to the affirmative procedure.

Background

2. The purpose of the instrument is to amend Part 3 of Schedule 19 to the Act to add to the list of Scottish public authorities which are subject to the public sector equality duty at section 149(1) of the Act. The section 149(1) duty (the general duty) was introduced by the Westminster Parliament and requires public authorities to have due regard, when exercising their functions, to the need to:

- (a) eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under the Act;
- (b) advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;
- (c) foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

3. Section 151(3) of the Act confers a power on Scottish Ministers that they may by Order amend Part 3 of Schedule 19. Before making an Order, section 152(3)(a) requires Scottish Ministers to obtain the consent of a Minister of the Crown.

4. The enabling powers came into force on 18 January 2011 and the general duty at section 149(1) will come into force on 6 April 2011. The duty will apply to public authorities listed in Schedule 19 and by virtue of section 149(2) it will apply to any person who exercises public functions but is not listed in Schedule 19.

Policy Objectives

5. Part 3 of the Act already contains a list of Scottish public authorities. The Order will add to that existing list. Both the existing list and proposed additions are set out in Annex A. Listing Scottish public authorities in Part 3 of Schedule 19 has a number of benefits:

- the main benefit of listing a public authority in Schedule 19 is that it allows Scottish Ministers to impose specific duties on that authority;
- listing also makes clear that an authority is subject to the section 149(1) duty for all of its functions;

Consultation and Consent

6. Scottish Ministers consulted on the draft Order between 13 September and 26 November 2010. All bodies to be listed in Part 3 of Schedule 19 received the consultation document. The consultation document is available online at:

<http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Publications/2010/09/13094828/0>

7. In addition, further consultation specifically on the Order was undertaken with the Equality and Human Rights Commission in accordance with the requirement at section 152(3)(b) of the Equality Act 2010.

8. Scottish Ministers have received the consent of a Minister for the Crown before making this Order, in accordance with the requirement at section 152(3)(a).

Financial Effects

9. The general duty is imposed by Westminster and applies to public functions regardless of whether the authority is listed in Schedule 19. The general duty is discussed in the UK Government's Regulatory Impact Assessment for the Equality Act 2010 which is available online at: http://www.equalities.gov.uk/equality_bill.aspx
