

ELIZABETH II

1978 CHAPTER xiii

An Act to confer further powers upon the Greater London Council and other authorities; and for other purposes.
[20th July 1978]

WHEREAS—

(1) It is expedient that further and better provision should be made for the improvement, development and financing of local government services in Greater London and for the safety and prosperity of persons residing therein and that the powers of the Greater London Council (hereinafter called "the Council") and of the London borough councils and the Common Council of the City of London should be extended and amended as provided in this Act:

(2) It is expedient that as in this Act provided the Council should be empowered to lease an area of open space land in the London borough of Greenwich for the construction of a covered reservoir:

(3) It is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted:

(4) The purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

1972 c. 70 (5) In relation to the promotion of the Bill for this Act the Council have complied with the requirements of section 239 of the Local Government Act 1972:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows, that is to say:—

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1978.

Interpretation. 2. In this Act, except as otherwise expressly provided or unless the context otherwise requires—

1963 c. 33. “the Act of 1963” means the London Government Act 1963;

“the Act of 1972” means the Local Government Act 1972;

“borough” means London borough and “borough council” means London borough council;

“the Council” means the Greater London Council; and any reference to an enactment shall be construed as a reference to that enactment as amended, extended or applied by or under any subsequent enactment, including this Act, or by or under any order, rule, regulation or other instrument having effect by virtue of an enactment.

PART II

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE COUNCIL

Licensing of public entertainments

Licensing of entertainment by way of posing.

3.—(1) On and after 1st October, 1978, any premises in Greater London, whether or not licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor, which are used for public entertainment consisting wholly or partly of human posing, shall be deemed, for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 12 to the Act of 1963, to be premises used for public dancing and the provisions of the said Schedule 12 shall be construed, and applied, accordingly.

(2) In this section and in section 5 (Licensing of entertainments booking offices) of this Act “human posing” means a performance given by one or more persons present and performing which wholly or mainly comprises the holding of still poses, whether or not to the accompaniment of music.

4. After paragraph 6 of Schedule 12 to the Act of 1963 there shall be inserted the following paragraphs:—

—cont.

“ 6A. Where, before the date of expiry of a licence granted under paragraph 1 or 4 of this Schedule, an application has been made for the renewal of that licence, the licence shall be deemed to remain in force, notwithstanding that the date of expiry of the licence has passed, until the determination of the application by the Council or until the withdrawal of the application.

Provisions
supplemental to Schedule 12
to Act of 1963.

6B. Where, before the date of expiry of a licence granted under paragraph 1 or 4 of this Schedule, an application has been made for the transfer of that licence, the licence shall be deemed to remain in force (with any necessary modifications) notwithstanding that the date of expiry of the licence has passed or that the applicant for such transfer is carrying on at the premises in respect of which the licence was granted the functions to which the licence relates, until the determination of the application by the Council or the withdrawal of the application.”.

5.—(1) No premises in Greater London shall, on or after 1st October, 1978, be used as a booking office except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence (hereafter in this section referred to as a “booking office licence”) granted by the Council in pursuance of the provisions of this section.

Licensing of entertainments booking offices.

(2) Subject to the next following subsection, the provisions of sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (5) of paragraph 1, sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph 2 and paragraphs 3, 6A, 6B, 7 to 10, 12 and 17 to 20 of Schedule 12 to the Act of 1963 shall apply to a booking office licence as they apply in relation to a licence under paragraph 1 of that Schedule and as if the booking office licence had been granted under the said paragraph 1.

(3) For the purposes of the application of the provisions of the said Schedule 12, referred to in the last foregoing subsection, to a booking office licence—

(a) for sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 10 of the said Schedule there shall be substituted the following:—

“ (1) If any premises are used as a booking office, as defined in subsection (4) of section 5 (Licensing of entertainments booking offices) of the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1978, without a licence being held in respect thereof under the said section 5, then—

(a) any person concerned in the organisation or management of that booking office; and

—cont.

(b) any other person who, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect that those premises would be so used as a booking office—

(i) allowed the premises to be so used; or

(ii) let the premises, or otherwise made the premises available, to any person by whom an offence in connection with that use of the premises has been committed;

shall be guilty of an offence.”;

(b) in sub-paragraph (2) of the said paragraph 10, for the words “for any entertainment” there shall be substituted the words “as a booking office (as defined in subsection (4) of section 5 of the said Act of 1978)”; and

(c) in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 12 of the said Schedule 12, for the words “at which he has reason to believe that an entertainment to which either of those paragraphs applies is being given or is about to be given” there shall be substituted the words “which he has reason to believe are being used as a booking office (as defined in subsection (4) of section 5 of the said Act of 1978)” and for the word “entertainment”, where it occurs for the second time, there shall be substituted the word “use”.

(4) (a) In this section “booking office” means any premises, not being premises exempted in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subsection or premises in use at the time in question for any of the following purposes, that is to say:—

(i) public dancing or music or any other public entertainment of the like kind; or

(ii) public entertainment consisting of human posing;

whose principal function at that time is to serve as premises at which members of the public may by the purchase of tickets or vouchers, or, on payment, by any other means, secure admission (whether or not on payment of a further charge) to any other premises (not being premises to which paragraph (c) of this subsection applies) used for any of the purposes mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph.

(b) (i) If, in the opinion of the Council, it is inappropriate that any premises or any class of premises should remain subject as booking offices to the provisions of this section, they may by resolution determine that as from a date to be fixed by the resolution those premises or that class of premises shall be exempted from such provisions.

(ii) If, in the opinion of the Council, after the date fixed by a resolution passed under the foregoing sub-paragraph and having regard to any relevant circumstances, any premises or any class of premises exempted as booking offices from the provisions of this section by virtue of such a resolution should again become subject to the said provisions, they may by a further resolution determine that those premises or that class of premises shall again become subject as booking offices to the said provisions as from a date to be fixed by such further resolution.

—cont.

(c) This paragraph applies (for the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subsection) to—

- (i) the Theatre Royal Drury Lane, the Royal Covent Garden Opera House, the Theatre Royal Haymarket and the Royal Albert Hall;
- (ii) premises which may be used for the performance of plays without a licence under the Theatres Act 1968 1968 c. 54. by virtue of any letters patent of the Crown; and
- (iii) any other premises specified by resolution of the Council from time to time for the purposes of this paragraph.

Miscellaneous

6.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Act of 1906 or of any other enactment the Council may, for the purpose of or in connection with the construction by the Authority of a covered reservoir and the execution of works and the provision of apparatus associated therewith, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed—

Power to lease land for purposes of reservoir, etc.

- (a) lease to the Authority all or any of the land to which this section applies; and
- (b) grant to the Authority such easements, rights, privileges or licences in, on or over the said land or any land vested in the Council adjoining or in the vicinity of that land as may be required for—
  - (i) the construction, use, maintenance, renewal or removal of the said reservoir and works or the doing of any thing necessary or desirable in connection therewith; and
  - (ii) the laying down, erection, maintenance, repair, renewal or inspection of any apparatus connected therewith which cannot reasonably be placed elsewhere

(2) The Authority, during and for the purposes of the construction of the said reservoir or the execution of any works or the laying down of any apparatus connected therewith, may, in accordance with the terms of any easement, right, privilege, or licence granted to them under paragraph (b) of the foregoing subsection, stop up, open, break up, interfere with and divert temporarily so much of the footpath shown coloured brown on the signed plan as they may consider necessary or desirable for those purposes and may prevent all persons from passing along and using the same:

Provided that—

- (i) the powers in this subsection shall not be exercised in relation to the said footpath before the Authority have provided a proper substitute therefor in a position agreed with the Council; and
- (ii) where the powers in this subsection have been exercised in relation to the said footpath, then, as soon as may be reasonably practicable, the Authority shall reinstate the footpath to the reasonable satisfaction of the Council.

(3) The land to which this section applies is the land in the borough of Greenwich, shown coloured pink on the signed plan, being land vested in or controlled and managed by the Council under the Act of 1906 and forming part of a system of woodlands and open spaces known as Shooters Hill, Abbey Ridge and Bostall Woods.

(4) In this section—

1906 c. 25.

- “ the Act of 1906 ” means the Open Spaces Act 1906;
- “ apparatus ” means mains, pipes, pumps, valves, hydrants, stopcocks or other works or apparatus belonging to or maintained by the Authority;
- “ the Authority ” means the Thames Water Authority;
- “ the signed plan ” means the plan four copies of which have been signed by Sir Edward Brown the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons to whom the Bill for this Act was referred and deposited respectively in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, House of Lords, in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, with the Director-General and Clerk to the Council and with the Chief Executive of the Authority.

Admission charges for exhibitions at Kenwood
House.
1929 c. lxi.

7. After paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 3 (Confirmation of deed) of the Iveagh Bequest (Kenwood) Act 1929 there shall be inserted the following paragraph:—

“ (aa) After paragraph (c) of the said clause 10 there shall be inserted the following paragraph:—

‘ (cc) Notwithstanding anything in the last foregoing paragraph, to require payment for admission on any day of the week, including Sunday, to any temporary exhibition which occupies a part only of the said mansion house, the amount of such payment to be from time to time in the absolute discretion of the Administrative Trustees and all sums received from such payments shall be applied in defraying the expenses incurred in providing such exhibitions, in the purchase of any additional works of art for exhibition in the said mansion house or in augmentation and as part of the income of the endowment fund, as the Administrative Trustees may think fit.' ”.

PART III

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE COUNCIL AND TO BOROUGH COUNCILS, ETC.

8.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) of section 73 of the Act of 1963 or of subsection (3) of section 144 of the Act of 1972 (which restrict the giving of publicity to the commercial and industrial advantages of Greater London), the Secretary of State may—

Publicity for industrial and commercial advantages of Greater London.

(a) authorise a local authority in the execution of their powers under subsection (1) of the said section 73 or subsection (2) of the said section 144 to give, or contribute to the giving of, publicity in the United Kingdom, whether by advertising or otherwise, to the commercial or industrial advantages of Greater London or any part thereof; or

(b) authorise a local authority themselves in the execution of their powers under paragraph (c) or (d) of subsection (1) of the said section 73 to publish advertisements in any place outside the United Kingdom.

(2) An authorisation by the Secretary of State under the foregoing subsection may be granted in such terms and subject to such limitations or conditions as the Secretary of State thinks fit.

(3) In this section “local authority” means the Council, a borough council or the Common Council of the City of London.

9.—(1) A document which—

(a) purports to be a copy of a record of, or of correspondence recording, a decision of an officer of the Council or a borough council taken by him—

Evidence of delegated, etc., decisions of officers.

—cont.

(i) pursuant to an arrangement made by the Council or the borough council under section 101 of the Act of 1972 for the discharge of functions by that officer; or

(ii) by virtue of the provisions of any other enactment; and

(b) bears a certificate purporting to be signed by the officer appointed for that purpose by the Council or the borough council or a person authorised in that behalf by him or by the Council or the borough council and stating that the decision was taken by the officer referred to in the foregoing paragraph on a date specified in the certificate; shall be evidence in any proceedings of the matters stated in the certificate and of the terms of the decision in question.

(2) In sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (a) of the foregoing subsection the reference to the Council or the borough council includes a reference to a committee or sub-committee of the Council or the borough council.

PART IV

PROVISIONS RELATING TO BOROUGH COUNCILS

Charges to holders of street trading licences.

10.—(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) of this section, the enactments specified in column (1) of Schedule 1 to this Act (which enactments by virtue of subsection (1) of section 87 of the Act of 1963 (which relates to local Acts and instruments in and around Greater London) confer powers on certain local authorities to license street traders in the whole or part of the areas of those authorities) shall have effect, so far as they relate to any part of Greater London, as if—

(a) for each of the provisions specified in column (2) of Part I of the said Schedule 1 there were substituted the provision set out in column (3) of that Part of that Schedule; and

(b) for each provision specified in column (2) of Part II of the said Schedule 1 there were substituted respectively the corresponding provision set out in column (3) of that Part of that Schedule.

(2) In each of the provisions set out in column (3) of Schedule 1 to this Act, the references to “the authority” shall be construed as references to any borough council authorised to license street traders by the corresponding enactments specified in column (1) of that Schedule.

(3) (a) Before fixing or varying any charges to be made and recovered under any of the provisions set out in column (2) of Schedule 1 to this Act, as substituted by the provisions set out in column (3) of that Schedule, a borough council shall—

- (i) give notice of their proposals, in such manner as they deem appropriate, to the persons referred to in the said provisions set out in column (3) of the said Schedule 1, being persons who are, in pursuance of the relevant provisions of the enactments specified in column (1) of the said Schedule 1, as the case may be, licensed by the borough council or who are the holders of street trading licences (other than temporary licences, where such licences may be granted) or of annual licences granted by the borough council, and to any recognised organisation representative of such persons, and inform such persons and organisation of a place where a financial statement setting out in proper form the costs of the services and expenses referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of the relevant provision in column (3) of the said Schedule 1 may be inspected at all reasonable hours; and
- (ii) consider any representations made to them by any such persons or organisation as aforesaid within twenty-eight days of the giving of notice under the foregoing sub-paragraph and give to any such organisation as aforesaid who, within twenty-eight days of the giving of notice under the foregoing sub-paragraph, gives to the borough council notice in writing of objection to the said proposals, an opportunity of appearing before and of being heard by a committee or a sub-committee of the borough council.

(b) When they have fixed or varied any charges to be made and recovered under any of the said provisions set out in column (2) of Schedule 1 to this Act, as substituted, a borough council shall give notice, in such manner as they deem appropriate, of the charges so fixed or varied, and of the date on which those charges are to be brought into effect, to the said persons referred to in the provisions set out in column (3) of the said Schedule 1 and to any recognised organisation representative of such persons who gave notice in writing of objection to the proposed charges under sub-paragraph (ii) of the foregoing paragraph.

(c) (i) Any such recognised organisation as aforesaid may, within twenty-eight days of the giving of notice under the last foregoing paragraph, appeal in writing to the Secretary of State on the grounds that the said charges exceed such amount as is sufficient to enable the borough council to recover the reasonable costs of the services and expenses referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of the relevant provision in column (3) of the said Schedule 1:

Provided that, notwithstanding an appeal under this sub-paragraph and without prejudice to the payment of any refund pursuant to a direction under paragraph (f) of this subsection, the said charges shall remain payable to the borough council until such charges are varied following a determination by the Secretary of State under paragraph (d) of this subsection or in accordance with a direction under paragraph (f) thereof.

(ii) Any organisation who appeals to the Secretary of State under the foregoing sub-paragraph shall, within seven days of so doing, notify the borough council in writing that an appeal has been brought and of the terms of that appeal.

(d) Where an appeal is brought under this subsection, the Secretary of State, subject to the following provisions of this subsection, may determine that the charges fixed or varied by the borough council are of such amount as is proper having regard to all the circumstances to enable the borough council to recover the reasonable costs of the services and expenses referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of the last foregoing paragraph or he may determine that those charges are in excess of, or are less than, such amount, and in making his determination he shall specify the amount of any excess.

(e) Before determining an appeal under this subsection the Secretary of State shall afford to the organisation making the appeal and to the borough council an opportunity of making representations to him and he may cause an inquiry to be held.

(f) In determining any such appeal the Secretary of State may give to the borough council such directions as he considers appropriate to give effect to his determination including a direction to refund to any persons who are, or who have been, persons referred to in the said provisions set out in column (3) of Schedule 1 to this Act such amounts as may appear to him to be reasonable.

(4) Notwithstanding the following subsection, until such time as a borough council first fixes the charges to be made and recovered under any of the provisions set out in column (2) of Schedule 1 to this Act, as substituted by the provisions set out in column (3) of that Schedule, that borough council may make and recover from the persons referred to in the provisions set out in column (3) of the said Schedule 1 charges not exceeding the charges which on the day preceding the date of the enactment of this Act are prescribed by byelaws made under the corresponding enactments specified in column (1) of that Schedule.

(5) The enactments specified in column (1) of Schedule 2 to this Act, so far as they relate to any part of Greater London, are hereby repealed to the extent specified in column (2) of that Schedule.

—cont.

11. The proviso to subsection (3) of section 37 of the London County Council (General Powers) Act 1955 (which imposes a limit on the amount which a library authority are empowered to recover from borrowers of books in respect of a failure to return them on time) shall cease to have effect.

Fines for non-return of library books.
1955 c. xxix.

12.—(1) In its application to any park or pleasure ground provided by a borough council, subsection (1) of section 44 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act 1890 (which authorises the closing of parks and pleasure grounds and their use for a show or other purposes), as amended by section 53 (which relates to the closing of parks and pleasure grounds) of the Public Health Act 1961, shall have effect as if—

Closing of parks on Sundays.
1890 c. 59.

1961 c. 64.

(a) for so much of the said subsection as restricts the power of closing a park or pleasure ground on any one occasion to six consecutive days (excluding Sundays), and provides for the computation of any such period of six consecutive days, there were substituted a provision restricting the closing of such park or pleasure ground on any one occasion to six consecutive days, including Sundays; and

(b) for so much of the proviso to the said subsection as prohibits the closing of a park or pleasure ground on a Sunday there were substituted a provision restricting the closing of such park or pleasure ground to no more than three Sundays in any one calendar year.

(2) Where a borough council propose to exercise the powers of the said subsection to close to the public a park or pleasure ground or any part thereof on a Sunday, the borough council shall give reasonable notice thereof by publishing a notice in a newspaper circulating in the borough and shall affix a copy or copies of the notice to some conspicuous object or objects in the park or pleasure ground.

(3) Section 49 of the Middlesex County Council Act 1956, 1956 c. xc. so far as it relates to any part of Greater London, is hereby repealed.

PART V

SUPPLEMENTAL

Repeals.

13.—(1) The enactments specified in columns (1) and (2) of Part I of Schedule 3 to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in column (3) of that Part.

(2) The instruments specified in columns (1) and (2) of Part II of Schedule 3 to this Act are hereby revoked to the extent specified in column (3) of that Part.

1953 c. xliii.
1968 c. xxviii.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of section 42 of the London County Council (General Powers) Act 1953 and section 64 of the Hounslow Corporation Act 1968, a document duly certified in accordance therewith before the passing of this Act shall continue to be evidence in any proceedings that, as the case may be, the resolution, order or report in question was duly passed, made or received, or the appointment or authority in question was duly made or given, on the date specified in the certificate.

Costs of Act.

14. Subject to the provisions of any enactment requiring or enabling expenses in connection with any function of the Council to be chargeable otherwise than as general expenses chargeable on the whole of Greater London, all expenses of the Council in the execution of this Act shall be defrayed as the Council may decide as—

- (a) general expenses chargeable on the whole of Greater London; or
- (b) special expenses chargeable only on such part of Greater London as the Council may determine.
