SCHEDULE

LICENSING SCHEMES

- 6 The Corporation must refuse to grant a licence if, in the opinion of the Corporation
- (a) the applicant is not a fit and proper person to hold a licence; or
 - (b) activity carried on under the licence would (whether individually or taken with activity under licences already granted) cause annoyance to persons making recreational use of the open space, restriction of access for such use by them or other material injury to the amenity of the open space.
