And whereas it has been estimated that the amounts which the Council will or may require for loans to other bodies and local authorities and persons as herein-after defined during the financial period will not exceed nine hundred thousand five hundred pounds as set out in Part IV. of the schedule to this Act: A.D. 1910.

And whereas it is expedient that subject to the provisions of this Act the Council should have power to raise for the several purposes mentioned in this Act such sums of money as they may require not exceeding the amounts herein-after prescribed:

And whereas it is also expedient that in such circumstances and subject to such consent as herein-after mentioned the Council should have certain limited powers of expenditure on capital account in addition to the sums estimated as aforesaid:

And whereas the powers for raising money given by this Act are (to the extent set out in Part V. of the schedule to this Act) re-grants of powers already conferred on the Council by the London County Council (Money) Act 1909 but not exercised: 9 Edw. 7.
c. lxxxii.
