The Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area (Marine Conservation Zone) Designation Order 2023

 Made
 14th June 2023

 Coming into force
 5th July 2023

The Secretary of State makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 116(1), 117(2), 118(1), (2) and (6) and 123(1) of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 ("the Act")(a).

The Secretary of State thinks it desirable to make this Order for the purpose of conserving marine flora and fauna, marine habitats and features of geological and geomorphological interest in accordance with section 117(1) and (7) of the Act.

The Secretary of State has published a notice of the proposal to make this Order in accordance with section 119(2) and (3) of the Act and consulted persons who the Secretary of State thinks are likely to be interested in, or affected by, the making of this Order in accordance with section 119(4) of the Act.

The Secretary of State has had regard to any retained EU obligations or obligations under international law that relate to the conservation or improvement of the marine environment, in accordance with section 123(5) of the Act.

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area (Marine Conservation Zone) Designation Order 2023 and comes into force on 5th July 2023.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In this Order, "the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area" means the area designated as a marine conservation zone by article 3(1).

(2) References in this Order to "co-ordinates" are references to co-ordinates of latitude and longitude according to the World Geodetic System 1984(a).

Area designated: the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area

- 3.—(1) The area described in paragraph (2) is designated as a marine conservation zone.
- (2) The area is the marine area enclosed by the seven boundary lines which are described in the Schedule, in each case by reference to—
 - (a) the co-ordinates of the points joined by the line, and
 - (b) a topographical description of the line.
 - (3) In paragraph (2), "marine area", in relation to the area designated, means—
 - (a) any area of sea bed or other land (whether or not covered by water) within that area, and
 - (b) all of the water covering any part of that sea bed or other land.
- (4) The area designated in accordance with this article may be referred to as "the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area".

Protected feature

- 4.—(1) The protected feature of the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area is the marine ecosystem of the area.
 - (2) In this Article—

"the marine ecosystem" means all marine flora and fauna, all marine habitats and all geological or geomorphological interests, including all abiotic elements and all supporting ecosystem functions and processes, in or on the sea bed, water column and the surface of the sea:

"water column" means the vertically continuous mass of water from the surface of the sea to the sea bed.

Conservation objective

- 5.—(1) The conservation objective of the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area is to—
 - (a) achieve full recovery of the protected feature, including its structure and functions, its qualities and the composition of its characteristic biological communities present within the Allonby Bay Highly Protected Marine Area, to a natural state, and
 - (b) prevent further degradation and damage to the protected feature, subject to natural change.
- (2) Paragraph (1) does not prevent human intervention to enable or facilitate recovery or enable or facilitate the prevention of degradation or damage.
 - (3) In paragraph (1), "protected feature" has the meaning given by article 4.
