and Woods, or to an Exemption from the Payment thereof, then and in such Case the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs or Assigns, should either deduct or allow unto the King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors; out of the said Purchase Money, the Sum of One thousand five hundred and eleven Pounds Five Shillings, or to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners indemnify His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from any Loss, Damage, Costs, Charges, or Expences on account of such Tithes, or any Claims or Demands in respect thereof; and it was by the Articles of Agreement expressly agreed, that nothing therein contained should extend or be construed to charge the Commissioners, Parties thereto, in their own Persons, or their or any of their own proper Lands or Tenements, Goods or Chattels, with or for the Performance of any of the Covenants or Agreements in the said Articles of Agreement contained, but that such Covenants or Agreements should only be enforced as against the Land Revenues of the Crown; and that all Costs, Charges, and Expences which should or might become payable by reason or means of any such Covenants or Agreements, or any Breach or Non-performance thereof, should be enforced, raised, levied, and recovered by, from, or out of such Revenues only, any Thing in the said Articles of Agreement contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: And after further reciting that it was intended to apply to Parliament in the then and now present Session for an Act to confirm the said Agreement, and to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to raise the Sums requisite to pay the several Instalments of the Purchase Money before-mentioned, as they should respectively become due, by Sales of competent Parts of the Land Revenues of the Crown, it was thereby expressly provided and declared, that if such Act of Parliament as aforesaid should not be passed in this present Session of Parliament, then the said Articles of Agreement and the Contract thereby made, and every Thing therein contained, should cease, determine, and be wholly void: And whereas from the Quantity of thriving Oak Timber now growing on the said Estates, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments by the said Articles of Agreement agreed to be sold and disposed of, and the Facility of conveying the Timber growing thereon when cut to the Government Dock Yards by Water Carriage, and from the Contiguity of the said Estate, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments to the Royal Forest of Dean, whereby the same may be managed as the Crown Lands by the Officers of the said Forest at a small Expence, the same appears to be a desirable Purchase, and it is therefore expedient to make Provisions for enabling the said Commissioners, Parties to the said Articles of Agreement, to make good the Contract thereby entered into on Behalf of His Majesty, and to carry the same into Effect; and in order to have a Fund ready for the Payment of the several Instalments of the said Purchase Money as they shall respectively become due, it is expedient that the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues should be authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of certain Parts and Possessions of the Land Revenues of the Crown, to raise the Monies which will be requisite to pay the said Instalments as they shall become payable, and should be enabled to apply the Monies so to be raised in the Payment thereof accordingly: And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled An Act for the better Support of Her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour

and Dignity of the Crown, it was amongst other Things enacted and declared, that all and every Grant, Lease, or other Assurance, which from and after the Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and two, should be made or granted by the said Queen, Her Heirs or Successors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, under any of the Seals therein mentioned, or by Copy of Court Roll, or otherwise howsoever, of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, Woods, or other Hereditaments (Advowsons, Churches, and Vicarages only excepted), to any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate whatever, whereby any Estate or Interest should pass from the said Queen, Her Heirs or Successors, should be void and of none Effect, unless the same should be made for some Term or Estate not exceeding Thirty-one Years or Three Lives, and unless there should be reserved by such Grants, Leases, or Assurances such Rents as in the said Act is expressed; in which said Act is contained a Proviso, that where the greatest Part of the yearly Value of any Tenements or Hereditaments which belonged to the said Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, should, at the Time of making any Lease or Grant thereof, consist of the Building or Buildings thereupon which might want to be repaired or re-edified, in every such Case, to encourage the Rebuilding or Reparation thereof, it was declared and enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, at any Time after the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and two, to demise or grant such Tenements or Hereditaments to any Person or Persons for any Term or Estate, so as such Term or Estate did not exceed Fifty Years or Three Lives, and so as such Lease or Grant should be made to commence from the Date or making thereof; or if such Grant or Lease should be made to take Effect in Reversion or Expectancy, that then the same, together with the Estate or Estates in Possession of and in the same Tenements or Hereditaments, should not exceed Fifty Years or Three Lives from the Date or making thereof as aforesaid, and so as the same should not be made dishonourable of Waste, and so as there should be reserved and payable upon every such Lease or Grant during such Term, not exceeding Fifty Years or Three Lives, as much Rent as was by the said Act required to be reserved for the same Tenements or Hereditaments respectively in case of a Lease not exceeding One-and-thirty Years or Three Lives, and not otherwise: And whereas since the passing of the said Act certain Parts and Portions of the Lands and Land Revenues of the Crown, which from their unimprovable Nature, inconvenient Situation, or other Circumstances, were not desirable to be held or retained, have from Time to Time been sold and disposed of under the Authority of divers Acts of Parliament passed for that Purpose; and some Part of the Monies which have been produced thereby have been applied in the Redemption of the Land Tax charged on the Crown Estates, or have been set apart and appropriated for that Purpose, and some Parts thereof have been disposed of in the Purchase of other Estates of a more improvable Nature, which have been conveyed or settled so as to form and become Part of the Possessions of the Crown, and other Parts of such Monies have been appropriated to ameliorate and improve divers Parts of the Crown Estates: And whereas it would greatly tend to the better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown, if the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues were authorized and empowered to purchase and buy, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the Time being, for and on the Behalf of His Majesty, from Time to Time as advantageous Opportunities may arise or occur, any Estates, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, (to become Part of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and to be placed within the Government and under the Ordering and Survey of the Court of Exchequer,) which can be procured on fair and reasonable Terms, which may be situate adjoining or near to any of the Royal Forests, or to any extensive Estates already forming Part of the Possessions of the Crown, and which from their Situation or other Circumstances may be conveniently placed wholly or principally under the Management of the Officers or Agents having already the Care of such Forests or other Estates of the Crown, under the Superintendance and Controul of the Commissioners for the Time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, and which in their Judgment shall be desirable to be purchased for and on the Behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that for raising the Funds necessary for effecting such Purchases, the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues should be authorized and empowered from Time to Time, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to make Sale, and dispose of any Part or Parts of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown within the Ordering and Survey of the Court of Exchequer, which shall in their Judgment be desirable to be sold, and which shall be sufficient to raise the necessary Purchase Monies for effecting and completing such Purchases; and it is also expedient to make other Provisions for the Benefit and Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said herein-before in part recited Articles of Agreement, bearing Date the said Fifteenth Day of May in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, shall be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, and made valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.
