

Race Relations Act 1968

1968 CHAPTER 71

PART II

CONCILIATION AND ENFORCEMENT

Consideration of Complaints

18 Assessors.

The Race Relations Board may appoint as assessors to assist the Board or any conciliation committee in their investigation of any complaint or other matter persons appearing to the Board to have special knowledge and experience of the circumstances in which the act to which the investigation relates is alleged to have occurred and of any other circumstances appearing to the Board to be relevant.