

European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979

1979 CHAPTER 50

An Act to make provision for the payment of salaries and pensions, and the provision of allowances and facilities, to or in respect of Representatives to the Assembly of the European Communities. [26th July 1979]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 By reason of the retrospective amendment of s. 9(1) of this Act by European Communities \(Amendment\) Act 1986 \(c. 58, SIF 29:5\), s. 3\(1\)\(a\)\(2\)\(b\)\(3\) the short title, the European Assembly (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979, is now retrospectively the European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979
- Power to transfer functions conferred (27.12.1995) by S.I. 1995/2995, art. 2\(1\)

1 Salaries of Representatives.

- (1) A salary shall be payable to every Representative in accordance with this section.
- (2) The yearly rate of the salary payable to a Representative for any period shall be ^{[^{F1}}the same as that of the salary payable for that period, under section 4 of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009, to a Member who does not hold an office or position specified in a resolution of the House of Commons for the purposes of section 4A(2) of that Act (higher salaries for holders of specified offices or positions).]
- (3) The salary payable under this section to a Representative shall be payable—
 - (a) in the case of a Representative elected at a general election of representatives to the Assembly, for the period beginning with the opening of the first session of the Assembly following his election and ending with—
 - (i) the day before the opening of the first session of the Assembly following the next such general election; or
 - (ii) if he ceases to be a Representative before that day, his last day as a Representative;

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) in the case of a Representative elected otherwise than at such a general election, for the period beginning with the day of his election and ending as mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (4) The salary payable under this section to a Representative shall be payable in sterling monthly in arrears, the payments being made into such account at a bank in the United Kingdom as he may nominate for the purpose.
- (5) If the rate of a Member's ordinary salary for any period is changed retrospectively, the yearly rates given for that period by subsection (2) shall change accordingly.
- [^{F2}(6) This section does not apply on or after 14 July 2009, except in relation to a Representative who is an opted-out Representative.
- (7) An “opted-out Representative” is a Representative who exercises the option conferred by Article 25 of the Statute for Members of the European Parliament (European Parliament Decision 2005/684/EC, Euratom) (existing Representatives may opt out of new arrangements for remuneration from 14 July 2009).]

[^{F43} Resettlement grants to persons ceasing to be Representatives.

- [^{F5}(1) The IPSA may make a scheme providing for allowances to be payable to persons to whom this section applies, in connection with their ceasing to be Representatives.
- (2) It may do so only if a scheme under section 5 of the Parliamentary Standards Act 2009 (MPs' allowances scheme) makes provision for allowances to be payable in connection with persons ceasing to be Members on a dissolution of Parliament.
- (3) A scheme under this section must make provision which is as nearly equivalent to the provision made by the scheme under section 5 of that Act as the IPSA considers practicable.
- (3A) The IPSA must send to the Speaker of the House of Commons for laying before both Houses of Parliament—
- (a) any scheme made by it under this section, and
 - (b) a statement of the reasons for making the scheme.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (3B) When the scheme and the statement of reasons have been laid, the IPSA must publish them in a way it considers appropriate.
- (3C) This section applies to a person who is a Representative immediately before the end of a five-year period, and either—
- (a) does not stand for election to the European Parliament at the general election of representatives to the European Parliament held in that period, or
 - (b) does so stand at that election (whether for the same or a different electoral region) and is not elected.
- (3D) A scheme made by the IPSA under this section may amend or revoke any previous scheme made by the IPSA under this section.]
- (4) In this section “five-year period” means a period of five years for which Representatives have been elected to the European Parliament; but if any such period is extended or curtailed, the references in this section to the end of that period shall be construed accordingly.

[This section does not apply after 14 July 2009, except in relation to a Representative ^{F6}(5) who is an opted-out Representative.]]

4 Pensions.

- (1) The [^{F8}IPSA may make a scheme containing] provision with respect to the pensions which, subject to the fulfilment of such requirements and conditions as may be prescribed [^{F9}in the scheme], are to be or may be paid by the Treasury to or in respect of persons who have ceased to be Representatives.
- (2) Any such provision shall include provision for the appointment of persons as managers to perform such functions in connection with the administration of provisions contained in [^{F10}a scheme] under this section as may be conferred on them by any such [^{F11}scheme], and may include provision for the removal of managers so appointed.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), [^{F12}a scheme] under this section may
- (a) make provision as to the periods of service as a Representative which are to be taken into account for pension purposes;
 - (b) provide for deductions to be made by the Treasury from Representatives' salaries at a prescribed rate by way of contributions towards the cost of providing the pensions payable by virtue of this section;
 - (c) provide for transfer values to be paid or received by the Treasury;
 - (d) make the opinion, satisfaction or approval of the managers appointed in pursuance of subsection (2) material for the purposes of any provision of the [^{F13}scheme];
 - (e) make different provision with respect to different classes of persons and different circumstances;
 - (f) include transitional and other supplemental provisions;
 - (g) be made so as to have effect from a date before the making of the [^{F14}scheme].
- [^{F15}(3A) [^{F16}A scheme] under this section shall not make provision for any period of service as a Representative on or after 14 July 2009 to be taken into account for pension purposes, except in relation to a Representative who is an opted-out Representative.]
- [^{F17}(3B) Where a scheme under this section provides for the normal or deferred pension age of a person under the scheme to be the same as the person's state pension age, the scheme may make provision for a change in the person's normal or deferred pension age in consequence of such provision to apply in relation to relevant accrued benefits (as well as other benefits).
- (3C) In subsection (3B)—
- (a) “normal pension age”, in relation to a person and a scheme, means the earliest age at which a person with service as a Representative is entitled to receive benefits (without actuarial adjustment) on ceasing service as a Representative (and disregarding any special provision as to early payment of benefits on the grounds of ill-health or otherwise);
 - (b) “deferred pension age”, in relation to a person and a scheme, means the earliest age at which a person with service as a Representative is entitled to receive benefits under the scheme (without actuarial adjustment) after ceasing service as a Representative at a time before normal pension age (and disregarding any special provision as to early payment of benefits on the grounds of ill-health or otherwise);
 - (c) “state pension age”, in relation to a person, means the person's pensionable age as specified from time to time in Part 1 of Schedule 4 to the Pensions Act 1995;
 - (d) “relevant accrued benefits”, in relation to a scheme, means benefits accrued after the coming into force of provision under subsection (3B) which may be paid to or in respect of the person under the scheme and to which the normal or deferred pension age is relevant.
- (3D) A scheme under this section may provide for any statutory provision relating to any matter connected with the pensions payable to or in respect of Members to have effect with respect to or in connection with Representatives, with such additions, omissions, amendments or other modifications as may be specified in the scheme.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the European Parliament (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

In this subsection “statutory provision” means any provision contained in an Act or in any instrument made under an Act (including an Act or instrument passed or made after the coming into force of this subsection).]

- [^{F18}(4) Before making a scheme under this section the IPSA must consult—
- (a) the Treasury,
 - (b) the Minister for the Civil Service,
 - (c) persons it considers to represent those likely to be affected by the scheme,
 - (d) the Government Actuary, and
 - (e) any other person it considers appropriate.
- (4A) The IPSA must send to the Speaker of the House of Commons for laying before both Houses of Parliament—
- (a) any scheme made by it under this section, and
 - (b) a statement of the reasons for making the scheme.
- (4B) When the scheme and the statement of reasons have been laid, the IPSA must publish them in a way it considers appropriate.]
- [^{F19}(5) The IPSA must from time to time prepare a report on the operation of any provisions in force under this section, and send it to the Speaker of the House of Commons for laying before both Houses of Parliament.]
- (6) As regards such reports—
- (a) the first shall be so laid not more than five years after the coming into force of the first order made under this section;
 - (b) each subsequent report shall be so laid not more than five years after the date by which the previous report was so laid; and
 - (c) each report shall cover the period since the previous report or, in the case of the first report, since the coming into force of the first order under this section.
- (7) In Schedule 2 to the ^{M1}Pensions (Increase) Act 1971 (which specifies the pensions referred to in that Act as “official pensions”), after paragraph 3A there shall be inserted —

“ EUROPEAN ASSEMBLY

3B A pension payable under an order made under section 4 of the European Assembly (Pay and Pensions) Act 1979.”.

- [^{F20}(8) A scheme made by the IPSA under this section may amend or revoke any previous scheme made by the IPSA under this section.]
