

Transport Act 2000

2000 CHAPTER 38

PART II

LOCAL TRANSPORT

Local transport plans and bus strategies

108 Local transport plans.

- (1) Each local transport authority must—
- (a) develop policies for the promotion and encouragement of safe, integrated, efficient and economic transport ^{F1}... to, from and within their area, and
 - (b) carry out their functions so as to implement those policies.
- (2) [^{F2}In subsection (1), “transport” means] —
- (a) [^{F3}the transport] required to meet the needs of persons living or working in the authority’s area, or visiting or travelling through that area, and
 - (b) [^{F3}the transport] required for the transportation of freight;
- and [^{F4}includes] facilities and services for pedestrians.
- [^{F5}(2ZA) Each local transport authority whose area is in England must—
- (a) in developing policies in accordance with subsection (1)(a), and
 - (b) in carrying out their functions in accordance with subsection (1)(b),
- comply with the duties set out in subsection (2ZB).
- (2ZB) The duties are—
- (a) to take into account any policies announced by Her Majesty’s government, and
 - (b) to have regard to any guidance issued for the purposes of this paragraph by the Secretary of State,
- with respect to mitigation of, or adaptation to, climate change or otherwise with respect to the protection or improvement of the environment.

Changes to legislation: Transport Act 2000, Cross Heading: Local transport plans and bus strategies is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 23 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

(2ZC) The power to issue guidance under subsection (2ZB)(b) does not affect the generality of the power to issue guidance under section 112(1).]

[^{F6}(2A) Each local transport authority whose area is in Wales must also—

- (a) develop policies for the implementation in their area of the Wales Transport Strategy, and
- (b) carry out their functions so as to implement those policies.]

[^{F7}(3) Each local transport authority whose area is in England must prepare a document to be known as (or two or more documents to be known together as) the local transport plan containing—

- (a) their policies under subsection (1)(a);
- (b) their proposals for the implementation of those policies.

(3A) Each local transport authority whose area is in Wales must prepare a document to be known as the local transport plan containing—

- (a) their policies under subsection (1)(a), and
- (b) their policies under subsection (2A).

(3B) A local transport authority whose area is in England must, in complying with the duty under subsection (1)(b), have regard to the proposals contained in their plan.]

(4) In this Part “local transport authority” means—

- (a) a county council in England,
- (b) a council of a non-metropolitan district in England comprised in an area for which there is no county council,
- [^{F8}(c) an Integrated Transport Authority for an integrated transport area in England,]

[^{F9}(ca) a combined authority,]

[^{F10}(cb) a combined county authority established under section 9(1) of the Levelling-up and Regeneration Act 2023,] or

- (d) a county council or county borough council in Wales.

[^{F11}(5) In this Part “local transport policies” means policies developed under subsection (1)(a).]

109B Further provision about plans: Wales

- (1) A local transport authority whose area is in Wales must keep their local transport plan under review and alter it if they consider it appropriate to do so.
- (2) The authority must in particular review the plan as soon as practicable after the publication of the Wales Transport Strategy or any revision of it.
- (3) The authority must replace their local transport plan not later than five years after the date on which the plan was approved under section 109A.
- (4) Section 109A applies to a replacement plan and a plan as altered as it applies to a plan as originally prepared.
- (5) A local transport authority whose area is in Wales shall be taken to have complied with subsection (3) if (but only if)—
 - (a) the authority submit their replacement plan to the National Assembly for Wales for approval under section 109A before the end of the five year period mentioned in subsection (3), and
 - (b) the Assembly approves the plan under section 109A (whether the approval is given before or after the end of that five year period).
- (6) If an authority fail to comply with subsection (3) because they fail to submit their replacement plan to the Assembly for approval under section 109A before the end of the five year period mentioned in that subsection, the authority must replace their local transport plan as soon as practicable after the expiry of the five year period.
- (7) If an authority fail to comply with subsection (3) because the Assembly refuses to approve a plan submitted to it under section 109A, the authority must replace their local transport plan as soon as practicable after the refusal.
- (8) As soon as practicable after their plan, or their plan as altered, has been approved under section 109A, a local transport authority whose area is in Wales must—
 - (a) publish the plan or the plan as altered in such manner as they think fit, and
 - (b) send a copy of it to such persons (if any) as may be specified in guidance under section 112(1).
- (9) The authority must also—
 - (a) cause a copy of their local transport plan to be made available for inspection (at all reasonable hours) at such places as they think fit,
 - (b) give notice, by such means as they think expedient for bringing it to the attention of the public, as to the places at which a copy of it may be inspected, and
 - (c) supply a copy of it (or any part of it) to any person on request, either free of charge or at a charge representing no more than the cost of providing the copy.

109C Transitional provisions: Wales

- (1) Where a local transport authority whose area is in Wales have, before 1st August 2001, prepared and published a document which—
 - (a) contains policies developed by them for the purposes described in section 108(1)(a), and
 - (b) was prepared and published in accordance with guidance issued by the National Assembly for Wales, that document shall be taken to be the authority's local transport plan.
- (2) But, in the case of a document which is a local transport plan by virtue of subsection (1), section 109B(3) requires its replacement not later than such date as is specified in an order made by the National Assembly for Wales (rather than not later than five years after the date on which it was approved under section 109A).
- (3) For the purposes of section 109B(3), a local transport plan made before the coming into force of section 109A by a local transport authority whose area is in Wales shall be taken to have been approved under section 109A on the date on which it was made.]
