- (2) A property freezing order is an order that—
- specifies or describes the property to which it applies, and
  - subject to any exclusions (see section 245C(1)(b) and (2)), prohibits any person to whose property the order applies from in any way dealing with the property.
- (3) An application for a property freezing order may be made without notice if the circumstances are such that notice of the application would prejudice any right of the enforcement authority to obtain a recovery order in respect of any property.
- (4) The court may make a property freezing order on an application if it is satisfied that the condition in subsection (5) is met and, where applicable, that the condition in subsection (6) is met.
- (5) The first condition is that there is a good arguable case—
- that the property to which the application for the order relates is or includes recoverable property, and
  - that, if any of it is not recoverable property, it is associated property.
- (6) The second condition is that, if—
- the property to which the application for the order relates includes property alleged to be associated property, and
  - the enforcement authority has not established the identity of the person who holds it,
- the authority has taken all reasonable steps to do so.

- (4) If the court decides that any property to which a property freezing order applies is neither recoverable property nor associated property, it must vary the order so as to exclude the property.
- (5) Before exercising power under this Chapter to vary or set aside a property freezing order, the court must (as well as giving the parties to the proceedings an opportunity to be heard) give such an opportunity to any person who may be affected by its decision.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not apply where the court is acting as required by subsection (2) or (3).

245C Exclusions
