

*These notes refer to the Mental Capacity Act 2005
(c.9) which received Royal Assent on 7 April 2005*

MENTAL CAPACITY ACT 2005

---

EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY ON SECTIONS

Part 3: Miscellaneous and General

Private international law

Section 63: International Protection of Adults

155. This introduces Schedule 3 which makes provision as to the private international law of England and Wales in relation to persons who cannot protect their interests. For example it determines which jurisdiction should apply when a national of one country is in another.