

Education and Skills Act 2008

2008 CHAPTER 25

PART 2

SUPPORT FOR PARTICIPATION IN EDUCATION OR TRAINING: YOUNG ADULTS WITH LEARNING DIFFICULTIES AND YOUNG PEOPLE IN ENGLAND

Provision of support services

68 Support services: provision by [F¹local authorities]

(1) A [F¹local authority] in England must make available to young persons and relevant young adults for whom it is responsible such services as it considers appropriate to encourage, enable or assist the effective participation of those persons in education or training.

F²(2)

(3) For the purposes of this section F³... , a [F¹local authority] makes services available if it—

- (a) provides them, or
- (b) makes arrangements with another [F¹local authority] or another person for their provision.

(4) In carrying out its functions under this section, a [F¹local authority] must—

- F⁴(a)
- (b) have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.

(5) Nothing in this section requires a [F¹local authority] to make services available to a young person or relevant young adult for whom it is responsible if—

- (a) another [F¹local authority] in England is also responsible for the person, and
- (b) services are being provided to the person by, or under arrangements made by, the other authority in exercise of its functions under subsection (1).

71 Provision of support on conditional basis: learning and support agreements

- (1) Services provided for young persons in pursuance of section 68 or 70(1)(b) may include the provision of support on a conditional basis.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) “support” provided for a person means any form of support and includes, in particular—
 - (i) support in the form of medical or social care, including care provided otherwise than to that person,
 - (ii) support in the form of incentives, including allowances and payments, and
 - (iii) other financial assistance;
 - (b) support is provided for a young person on a conditional basis if it is provided under arrangements (a “learning and support agreement”) under which its provision is subject to the young person's agreement to fulfil conditions (“learning and support conditions”).
- (3) Subsections (4) to (6) apply where support is provided for a young person on a conditional basis by virtue of subsection (1).
- (4) The learning and support agreement must include provision (whether or not in the form of a learning and support condition) relating to the young person's participation in education or training.

Changes to legislation: Education and Skills Act 2008, Cross Heading: Provision of support services is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 08 May 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (5) The person providing the support (the “service provider”) must consider that providing it on a conditional basis would be desirable in the interests of encouraging, enabling or assisting the young person—
- (a) to fulfil the duty imposed by section 2, in a case where the young person is a person to whom Part 1 applies, or
 - (b) in any case, to participate effectively in education or training.
- (6) The learning and support conditions must be conditions—
- (a) determined in consultation between the service provider and the young person, having regard to an assessment of the young person's needs conducted by the service provider and the young person for the purposes of this section, and
 - (b) to which in the course of that consultation the young person has agreed;
- and the service provider must make arrangements for the learning and support conditions to be reviewed periodically.
- (7) Learning and support agreements made by virtue of subsection (1) do not create any obligations in respect of whose breach any liability arises in contract or in tort.
- (8) Subsection (1) is subject to section [F768(4)].
