

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 7

ALLOWANCES, FEES AND EXPENSES

PART 1

ALLOWANCES PAYABLE TO JURORS

- 1 A person who serves as a juror at an inquest is entitled, in respect of attending the inquest, to receive payments by way of allowance—
 - (a) for travelling and subsistence;
 - (b) for financial loss.This is subject to any conditions prescribed by regulations.
- 2 But a person is entitled to receive payments by way of allowance for financial loss only if, in consequence of attending the inquest, the person has—
 - (a) incurred expenses (other than on travelling and subsistence) that he or she would otherwise not have incurred,
 - (b) suffered a loss of earnings that he or she would otherwise not have suffered, or
 - (c) suffered a loss of benefit under the enactments relating to social security that he or she would otherwise not have suffered.
- 3 Regulations may prescribe the rates of any allowances payable under paragraph 1.
- 4 The amount due to a person under paragraph 1 is to be calculated by the senior coroner and paid by (or on behalf of) the senior coroner or, where appropriate, the Coroner for Treasure.