EXPLANATORY NOTES

COMMENTARY

Part 1: Local Government

Chapter 7: Standards

Section 32: Sensitive interests

130. Section 32 provides for details about a registered interest to be excluded from versions of the register that are available for public inspection or published where a member and monitoring officer agree that the disclosure of these details could lead to harm or intimidation of the member or their family. It provides for members to disclose only the fact that they have a disclosable pecuniary interest in the matter concerned at meetings or when acting alone.
