

Financial Services Act 2012

2012 CHAPTER 21

PART 10

GENERAL

Consequential and transitional provisions

118 Power to make further consequential amendments etc

- (1) The Treasury or the Secretary of State may by order make such provision amending, repealing, revoking or applying with modifications any enactment to which this section applies as they consider necessary or expedient in consequence of any provision made by or under this Act.
- (2) This section applies to—
 - (a) any enactment passed or made before the passing of this Act, and
 - (b) any enactment passed or made on or before the last day of the Session in which this Act is passed.
- (3) Amendments and repeals made under this section are additional to those made by or under any other provision of this Act.

119 Transitional provisions and savings

- (1) Schedule 20 contains transitional provisions.
- (2) Schedule 21 contains provision about the transfer of property, rights and liabilities.
- (3) The Treasury may by order make such provision as they consider necessary or expedient for transitory, transitional or saving purposes in connection with the commencement of any provision made by or under this Act.
- (4) An order under subsection (3) may, in particular—
 - (a) make provision enabling any person by whom any powers will become exercisable, on a date set by or under this Act, by virtue of any provision made
