

Financial Services Act 2012

2012 CHAPTER 21

PART 6

INVESTIGATION OF COMPLAINTS AGAINST REGULATORS

84 Arrangements for the investigation of complaints

(1) The regulators must—

(a) make arrangements (“the complaints scheme”) for the investigation of complaints arising in connection with the exercise of, or failure to exercise, any of their relevant functions (see section 85).<sup>F1</sup>...

<sup>F3</sup>(1A) The Treasury must appoint an independent person (“the investigator”) to be responsible for the conduct of investigations in accordance with the complaints scheme.]

(2) For the purposes of this Part “the regulators” are the FCA, the PRA and the Bank of England, and references to a regulator are to be read accordingly.

(3) The complaints scheme must be designed so that, as far as reasonably practicable, complaints are investigated quickly.

(5) The terms and conditions on which the investigator is appointed must be such as, in the opinion of the [<sup>F5</sup>Treasury], are reasonably designed to secure—

(a) that the investigator will be free at all times to act independently of the regulators, and

(b) that complaints will be investigated under the complaints scheme without favouring the regulators.

86 Consultation in relation to, and publication of, complaints scheme

- (1) Before making the complaints scheme, the regulators must publish a draft of the proposed scheme in the way appearing to them to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (2) The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about it may be made to any of the regulators within a specified time.
- (3) Before making the proposed complaints scheme, the regulators must have regard to any representations made to any of them in accordance with subsection (2).
- (4) If the regulators make the proposed complaints scheme, they must publish an account, in general terms, of—
  - (a) the representations made to any of them in accordance with subsection (2), and
  - (b) their response to the representations.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services Act 2012, PART 6 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 April 2024. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

---

- (5) If the complaints scheme differs from the draft published under subsection (1) in a way which is, in the opinion of the regulators, significant the regulators must (in addition to complying with subsection (4)) publish details of the difference.
- (6) The regulators must publish up-to-date details of the complaints scheme including, in particular, details of—
  - (a) the provision made under section 87(5), and
  - (b) the powers which the investigator has to investigate a complaint.
- (7) Those details must be published in the way appearing to the regulators to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public.
- (8) The regulators must notify the Treasury of the publication of details under subsection (6).
- (9) A regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of—
  - (a) a draft published under subsection (1), or
  - (b) details published under subsection (6).
- (10) Subsections (1) to (5) and (9)(a) also apply to a proposal to alter or replace the complaints scheme.

87 Investigation of complaints

- (1) A regulator is not obliged to investigate in accordance with the complaints scheme a complaint which it reasonably considers would be more appropriately dealt with in another way (for example by referring the matter to the Upper Tribunal or by the institution of other legal proceedings).
- (2) The complaints scheme must provide—
  - (a) for reference to the investigator of any complaint which a regulator is investigating,
  - (b) for the investigator—
    - (i) to have the means to conduct a full investigation of the complaint,
    - (ii) to report to the regulator to which the complaint relates and the complainant on the result of the investigator's investigation, and
    - (iii) to be able to publish the investigator's report (or part of it) if the investigator considers that it (or the part) ought to be brought to the attention of the public, and
  - (c) for the meeting by the regulators of the expenses of the scheme.
- (3) If a regulator has decided not to investigate a complaint, it must notify the investigator.

Changes to legislation: Financial Services Act 2012, PART 6 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 10 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

---

- (4) If the investigator considers that a complaint of which the investigator has been notified under subsection (3) ought to be investigated, the investigator may proceed as if the complaint had been referred to the investigator under the complaints scheme.
- (5) The complaints scheme must confer on the investigator the power to recommend, if the investigator thinks it appropriate, that the regulator to which a complaint relates takes either or both of the following steps—
  - (a) makes a compensatory payment to the complainant, or
  - (b) remedies the matter complained of.
- (6) The complaints scheme must require the regulator to which a complaint relates, in a case where the investigator—
  - (a) has reported that the complaint is well-founded, or
  - (b) has criticised the regulator in a report,to inform the investigator and the complainant of the steps which it proposes to take in response to the report.
- (7) The investigator may require the regulator to which a complaint relates to publish the whole or a specified part of the response.
- (8) The investigator may appoint a person to conduct the investigation on the investigator's behalf but subject to the investigator's direction.
- (9) An officer or employee of any of the regulators may not be appointed under subsection (8).

- (a) for the investigator to prepare an annual report on its investigations under the scheme, to publish it and send a copy of it to each regulator and to the Treasury;
- (b) for each regulator to respond to any recommendations or criticisms relating to it in the report, to publish the response and send a copy of it to the investigator and the Treasury;
- [ for the regulator's response under paragraph (b) to include a summary of—
  - (i) the cases in which the regulator decided not to follow any relevant recommendations, and
  - (ii) the reasons for not following those recommendations;]
- (c) for the Treasury to lay the annual report and any response before Parliament.

(9B) The complaints scheme may make provision about the period to which each annual report must relate (“the reporting period”) and the contents of the report and must in particular provide for it to include—

- (a) information concerning any general trends emerging from the investigations undertaken during the reporting period;
- (b) any recommendations which the investigator considers appropriate as to the steps a regulator should take in response to such trends;
- (c) a review of the effectiveness during the reporting period of the procedures (both formal and informal) of each regulator for handling and resolving complaints which have been investigated by the investigator during the reporting period;

- (d) an assessment of the extent to which those procedures were accessible and fair, including where appropriate an assessment in relation to different categories of complainant;
  - (e) any recommendations about how those procedures, or the way in which they are operated, could be improved.]
  - [<sup>F37</sup>(f) such other matters as the Treasury may from time to time direct.]
- [<sup>F38</sup>(9C) In subsection (9A)(ba) the reference to “relevant recommendations”, in relation to the regulator’s response in respect of an annual report, is a reference to—
- (a) any recommendations to the regulator contained in that annual report, and
  - (b) any recommendations to the regulator contained in final reports relating to individual complaints given during the period to which that annual report relates.]
- (10) Subsection (2) is not to be taken as preventing a regulator from making arrangements for the initial investigation of a complaint to be conducted by the regulator.
