BORDER SECURITY

PART 2

DETENTION

Identification

- 26 (1) An examining officer may take any steps which are reasonably necessary for—
- (a) photographing the detainee,
 - (b) measuring the detainee, or
 - (c) identifying the detainee.
- (2) This paragraph does not confer the power to take—
- (a) fingerprints, non-intimate samples or intimate samples (see instead paragraph 34 below for power to take fingerprints and non-intimate samples), or
 - (b) relevant physical data or samples as mentioned in section 18 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 as applied by paragraph 42 below (see instead that paragraph).
