PROTECTION OF THE POLICE ETC

Police covenant report

1 Police covenant report

- (1) The Secretary of State must in each financial year—
 - (a) prepare a police covenant report, and
 - (b) lay a copy of the report before Parliament.
- (2) A police covenant report is a report about—
 - (a) the health and well-being of members and former members of the police workforce,
 - (b) the physical protection of such persons,
 - (c) the support required by members of their families, and
 - (d) any other matter in relation to members or former members of the police workforce, or a particular description of such persons, that the Secretary of State considers appropriate,so far as these matters relate to the fact that the persons concerned are members or former members of the police workforce.
- (3) In preparing a police covenant report the Secretary of State must have regard in particular to—
 - (a) the obligations of and sacrifices made by members of the police workforce, and
 - (b) the principle that it is desirable to remove any disadvantage for members or former members of the police workforce arising from their membership or former membership.
- (4) In preparing a police covenant report the Secretary of State must ensure that the views of—
 - (a) any relevant government department, and
 - (b) anyone else the Secretary of State considers appropriate,are sought in relation to the matters to be covered by the report.
- (5) A police covenant report must set out in full or summarise any views obtained under subsection (4).
- (6) The Secretary of State may not include in a police covenant report a summary under subsection (5) unless the person whose views are summarised has approved the summary.
- (7) A police covenant report must state whether, in the Secretary of State’s opinion, in respect of any matter covered by the report, members or former members of the police workforce, or a particular description of such persons, are at a disadvantage when compared with other persons or such descriptions of other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. - (8) Where the Secretary of State’s opinion is that there is any such disadvantage as mentioned in subsection (7), the report must set out the Secretary of State’s response to that.
- (9) In this section—
- “financial year” means—
- (a) the period which begins with the day on which this section comes into force and ends with the following 31 March, and
 - (b) each successive period of 12 months;
- “members of the police workforce” means—
- (a) members of police forces in England and Wales,
 - (b) special constables appointed under section 27 of the Police Act 1996,
 - (c) staff appointed by the chief officer of police of a police force in England and Wales,
 - (d) persons designated as community support volunteers or policing support volunteers under section 38 of the Police Reform Act 2002,
 - (e) staff appointed by a local policing body if, or to the extent that, they are employed to assist a police force in England and Wales,
 - (f) persons providing services, in pursuance of contractual arrangements (but without being employed by the chief officer of a police force in England and Wales or a local policing body), to assist a police force in England and Wales in relation to the discharge of its chief officer’s functions,
 - (g) constables of the British Transport Police Force,
 - (h) special constables of the British Transport Police Force appointed under section 25 of the Railways and Transport Safety Act 2003,
 - (i) employees of the British Transport Police Authority appointed under section 27 of that Act and under the direction and control of the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force,
 - (j) persons designated as community support volunteers or policing support volunteers under section 38 of the Police Reform Act 2002 as applied by section 28 of the Railways and Transport Safety Act 2003,
 - (k) members of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary,
 - (l) employees of the Civil Nuclear Police Authority employed under paragraph 6 of Schedule 10 to the Energy Act 2004 if, or to the extent that, they are employed to assist the Civil Nuclear Constabulary,
 - (m) members of the Ministry of Defence Police and other persons under the direction and control of the Chief Constable of the Ministry of Defence Police, and
 - (n) National Crime Agency officers;
- “former members of the police workforce” means persons who have ceased to be members of the police workforce;
- “relevant government department”, in relation to a matter to be covered by a police covenant report, means a department of the Government of the United Kingdom (apart from the Home Office) which the Secretary of State considers has functions relevant to that matter.
- (10) The reference in subsection (2) to members of the families of members and former members of the police workforce is a reference to such descriptions of persons

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

PART 2

PREVENTION, INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTION OF CRIME

CHAPTER 1

FUNCTIONS RELATING TO SERIOUS VIOLENCE

Functions relating to serious violence

8 Duties to collaborate and plan to prevent and reduce serious violence

- (1) The specified authorities for a local government area must collaborate with each other to prevent and reduce serious violence in the area.
- (2) The duty imposed on the specified authorities for a local government area by subsection (1) includes a duty to plan together to exercise their functions so as to prevent and reduce serious violence in the area.
- (3) In particular, the specified authorities for a local government area must—
 - (a) identify the kinds of serious violence that occur in the area,
 - (b) identify the causes of serious violence in the area, so far as it is possible to do so, and
 - (c) prepare and implement a strategy for exercising their functions to prevent and reduce serious violence in the area.
- (4) In preparing a strategy under this section for a local government area, the specified authorities for the area must ensure that the following are consulted—
 - (a) each educational authority for the area;
 - (b) each prison authority for the area;
 - (c) each youth custody authority for the area.
- (5) A strategy under this section for a local government area may specify an action to be carried out by—
 - (a) an educational authority for the area,
 - (b) a prison authority for the area, or
 - (c) a youth custody authority for the area.

See section 15 for further provision about the duties of such authorities in relation to such actions.

- (6) In preparing a strategy under this section for a local government area, the specified authorities for the area may invite participation from—
 - (a) in the case of a strategy for a local government area in England, a person of a description for the time being prescribed by order of the Secretary of State under section 5(3) of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998;
 - (b) in the case of a strategy for a local government area in Wales, a person of a description for the time being prescribed by order of the Welsh Ministers under section 5(3) of that Act.
- (7) Once a strategy has been prepared under this section for a local government area, the specified authorities for the area must—

- (a) publish the strategy,
 - (b) keep the strategy under review, and
 - (c) from time to time prepare and implement a revised strategy.
- (8) A strategy under this section must not include any material that the specified authorities consider—
- (a) might jeopardise the safety of any person,
 - (b) might prejudice the prevention or detection of crime or the investigation or prosecution of an offence, or
 - (c) might compromise the security of, or good order or discipline within, an institution of a kind mentioned in the first column of a table in Schedule 2.
- (9) A strategy under this section may cover an area that is wider than a local government area if it is also prepared in the exercise of the powers in section 9.
- (10) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision for or in connection with the publication and dissemination of a strategy under this section.
- (11) References in subsections (4) to (10) to a strategy under this section include a revised strategy.
- (12) This section does not affect any power of a specified authority to collaborate or plan apart from this section.
- (13) For provisions about the interpretation of this section, see—
- (a) section 11 and Schedule 1 (specified authorities and local government areas);
 - (b) section 12 and Schedule 2 (educational, prison and youth custody authorities);
 - (c) section 13 (preventing and reducing serious violence).

9 Powers to collaborate and plan to prevent and reduce serious violence

- (1) Two or more specified authorities may collaborate with each other to prevent and reduce serious violence in a relevant area.
- (2) The power conferred on specified authorities by subsection (1) includes a power to plan together to exercise their functions so as to prevent and reduce serious violence in a relevant area.
- (3) In particular, the specified authorities may—
- (a) identify the kinds of serious violence that occur in a relevant area,
 - (b) identify the causes of serious violence in the area, and
 - (c) prepare and implement a strategy for exercising their functions to prevent and reduce serious violence in the area.
- (4) In preparing a strategy under this section for a relevant area, the specified authorities preparing the strategy must ensure that the following are consulted—
- (a) every other specified authority for the area;

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. - (b) each educational authority for the area;
 - (c) each prison authority for the area;
 - (d) each youth custody authority for the area.
- (5) A strategy under this section for a relevant area may specify actions to be carried out by—
- (a) an educational authority for the area,
 - (b) a prison authority for the area, or
 - (c) a youth custody authority for the area.
- See section 15 for further provision about the duties of such authorities in relation to such actions.
- (6) In preparing a strategy under this section for a relevant area, the specified authorities for the area may invite participation from—
- (a) in the case of a strategy for a relevant area in England, an eligible person for the time being prescribed by order of the Secretary of State under section 5(3) of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998;
 - (b) in the case of a strategy for a relevant area in Wales, an eligible person for the time being prescribed by order of the Welsh Ministers under section 5(3) of that Act;
 - (c) in the case of a strategy for a relevant area partly in England and partly in Wales, an eligible person for the time being prescribed by order of the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers under section 5(3) of that Act.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), an eligible person is—
- (a) where a person is prescribed in terms of a description which includes a connection to a local government area, a person of that description with such a connection to a local government area all or part of which coincides with or falls within the relevant area, or
 - (b) a person prescribed in terms that do not refer to a connection with a local government area.
- In this subsection “local government area” has the same meaning as in section 5 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (see subsection (4) of that section).
- (8) Once a strategy has been prepared under this section for a relevant area, the specified authorities for the area—
- (a) must publish the strategy,
 - (b) may keep the strategy under review, and
 - (c) may from time to time prepare and implement a revised strategy.
- (9) A strategy under this section must not include any material that the specified authorities consider—
- (a) might jeopardise the safety of any person,
 - (b) might prejudice the prevention or detection of crime or the investigation or prosecution of an offence, or
 - (c) might compromise the security of, or good order or discipline within, an institution of a kind mentioned in the first column of a table in Schedule 2.
- (10) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision for or in connection with the publication and dissemination of a strategy under this section.

10 Power to authorise collaboration etc. with other persons

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) confer powers on a specified authority to collaborate with a prescribed person to prevent and reduce serious violence in a prescribed area;
 - (b) confer powers on a prescribed person to collaborate with a specified authority to prevent and reduce serious violence in a prescribed area.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations authorise the disclosure of information—
 - (a) by a prescribed person to any person listed in subsection (3) for the purposes of preventing and reducing serious violence in a prescribed area;
 - (b) by any person listed in subsection (3) to a prescribed person for such purposes.
- (3) Those persons are—
 - (a) a specified authority;
 - (b) a local policing body;
 - (c) an educational authority;
 - (d) a prison authority;
 - (e) a youth custody authority.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (2) may provide that a disclosure under the regulations does not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (5) But if regulations under subsection (2) contain provision under subsection (4)(b), they must provide that they do not authorise a disclosure of information that—

- (a) would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, any power conferred by the regulations is to be taken into account), or
 - (b) is prohibited by any of Parts 1 to 7 or Chapter 1 of Part 9 of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016.
- (6) Regulations under subsection (2) must not authorise—
- (a) the disclosure of patient information, or
 - (b) the disclosure of personal information by a specified authority which is a health or social care authority.
- (7) This section does not affect any power to collaborate or to disclose information apart from regulations under this section.
- (8) In this section, “prescribed” means prescribed, or of a description prescribed, in regulations under this section.
- (9) Regulations under this section may, in particular, prescribe persons by reference to the fact that they have been invited under section 8(6) or 9(6) to participate in the preparation of a strategy under section 8 or 9.
- (10) In this Chapter—
- “the data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act);
 - “health or social care authority” means a specified authority which is listed in the first column of the table headed “Health and social care” in Schedule 1;
 - “patient information” means personal information (however recorded) which relates to—
 - (a) the physical or mental health or condition of an individual,
 - (b) the diagnosis of an individual’s condition, or
 - (c) an individual’s care or treatment,or is (to any extent) derived directly or indirectly from information relating to any of those matters;
 - “personal information” means information which is in a form that identifies any individual or enables any individual to be identified (either by itself or in combination with other information).

- (2) The reference in subsection (1)(a) to becoming involved in serious violence includes becoming a victim of serious violence.
- (3) In this Chapter “violence”—
 - (a) includes, in particular—
 - (i) domestic abuse within the meaning of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021 (see section 1 of that Act),
 - (ii) sexual offences,
 - (iii) violence against property, and
 - (iv) threats of violence;
 - (b) does not include terrorism (within the meaning of the Terrorism Act 2000 (see section 1(1) to (4) of that Act)).
- (4) In subsection (3)(a)(ii), “sexual offence” means an offence under the law of England and Wales which is for the time being specified in Schedule 3 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003, other than the offence specified in paragraph 14 of that Schedule (fraudulent evasion of excise duty).
- (5) In determining for the purposes of subsection (4) whether an offence is specified in Schedule 3 to the Sexual Offences Act 2003, any limitation in that Schedule referring to the circumstances of a particular case (including the sentence imposed) is to be disregarded.
- (6) In considering whether violence in an area amounts to serious violence for the purposes of this Chapter, account must be taken in particular of the following factors—
 - (a) the maximum penalty which could be imposed for the offence (if any) involved in the violence,
 - (b) the impact of the violence on any victim,
 - (c) the prevalence of the violence in the area, and
 - (d) the impact of the violence on the community in the area.

- (a) monitor the exercise by specified authorities of their functions under or in accordance with section 8 in relation to a local government area which coincides with or falls within the police area, or
 - (b) monitor the exercise by specified authorities of their functions under or in accordance with section 9 in relation to a relevant area which, or any part of which, coincides with or falls within the police area.
- (3) A local policing body may report its findings under subsection (2) to the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision conferring functions on a local policing body for a police area for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (5) Provision under subsection (4) may include provision—
- (a) for a local policing body to provide funding to a specified authority,
 - (b) for a local policing body to arrange for meetings to be held for the purpose of assisting the exercise by specified authorities of their functions under or in accordance with section 8 or 9,
 - (c) for the local policing body or a representative of the body to chair the meetings, and
 - (d) for such descriptions and numbers of persons as the local policing body may specify to be required to attend the meetings.
- (6) If a local policing body acts under subsection (1) or (2), or under regulations under subsection (4), in relation to the exercise by a specified authority of its functions under or in accordance with section 8 or 9, the authority must co-operate with the body.
- (7) References in this Chapter (however expressed) to a specified authority exercising functions in accordance with section 8 or 9 are to the authority exercising functions conferred on it apart from this Chapter in accordance with the section in question.

- (a) may collaborate with another relevant authority for that area to prevent and reduce serious violence in that area, and
 - (b) must collaborate with another relevant authority for that area for those purposes if requested by that other relevant authority to do so.
- (6) A relevant authority (“RA1”) may collaborate with another relevant authority (“RA2”) to prevent and reduce serious violence in an area which is made up of—
- (a) all or part of the local government area for which RA1 is a relevant authority, and
 - (b) all or part of the local government area for which RA2 is a relevant authority.
- (7) A relevant authority is not subject to a duty in subsection (3), (4) or (5)(b), and a specified authority is not subject to a duty in subsection (3), if or to the extent that compliance with the duty—
- (a) would be incompatible with any other duty of the authority imposed by an enactment (other than subsection (5)(b)),
 - (b) would otherwise have an adverse effect on the exercise of the authority’s functions,
 - (c) would be disproportionate to the need to prevent and reduce serious violence in the area to which the duty relates, or
 - (d) would mean that the authority incurred unreasonable costs.
- (8) In determining whether subsection (7) applies to an authority, the cumulative effect of complying with duties under this section must be taken into account.
- (9) Subsection (7) or (8) does not apply in relation to the duty of a relevant authority to collaborate with a specified authority under subsection (3) to the extent that it relates to—
- (a) the exercise by the specified authority of its function under subsection (3)(a) or (b) of section 8 of identifying the kinds or causes of serious violence in an area or its function of preparing a strategy under subsection (3)(c) of that section, or
 - (b) the exercise by the specified authority of its function under subsection (3)(a) or (b) of section 9 of identifying the kinds or causes of serious violence in an area or its function of preparing a strategy under subsection (3)(c) of that section.
- (10) This section does not affect any power to collaborate apart from this section.
- (11) In this section “enactment” includes—
- (a) an enactment comprised in subordinate legislation within the meaning of the Interpretation Act 1978, and
 - (b) an enactment comprised in, or in an instrument made under, a Measure or Act of Senedd Cymru.

16 Disclosure of information

- (1) A person listed in subsection (2) may disclose information that it holds for the purposes of its functions to another person listed in that subsection for the purposes of the exercise by the other person of its functions under or in accordance with this Chapter.
- (2) Those persons are—
 - (a) a specified authority;
 - (b) a local policing body;
 - (c) an educational authority;
 - (d) a prison authority;
 - (e) a youth custody authority.
- (3) A disclosure of information authorised by this section does not breach—
 - (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (4) But this section does not authorise—
 - (a) the disclosure of patient information,
 - (b) the disclosure of personal information by a specified authority which is a health or social care authority,
 - (c) a disclosure of information that would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, the power conferred by this section is to be taken into account), or
 - (d) a disclosure of information that is prohibited by any of Parts 1 to 7 or Chapter 1 of Part 9 of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if—
 - (a) a disclosure of information under this section is also permitted by regulations under section 6(2) of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 or by section 115 of that Act (but is not also a disclosure under section 17A of that Act), and
 - (b) a condition or limitation applies to a disclosure under those regulations or section 115 of that Act by virtue of such regulations.
- (6) The condition or limitation does not apply to the disclosure of information under this section.
- (7) This section does not otherwise affect any power to disclose information apart from this section.

- (a) a specified authority for that area;
 - (b) an educational authority for that area;
 - (c) a prison authority for that area;
 - (d) a youth custody authority for that area.
- (3) Information requested under subsection (1) must be information that is held by the person to whom the request is made and that relates to—
- (a) the person to whom the request was made,
 - (b) a function of the person to whom the request was made, or
 - (c) a person in respect of whom a function is exercisable by the person requested to supply the information.
- (4) Subject to subsection (6), a person who is requested to supply information under subsection (1) must comply with the request.
- (5) A disclosure of information required by subsection (4) does not breach—
- (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (6) But subsection (4) does not require—
- (a) the disclosure of patient information,
 - (b) the disclosure of personal information by a specified authority which is a health or social care authority,
 - (c) a disclosure of information that would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, the duty imposed by that subsection is to be taken into account), or
 - (d) a disclosure of information that is prohibited by any of Parts 1 to 7 or Chapter 1 of Part 9 of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016.

CHAPTER 2

OFFENSIVE WEAPONS HOMICIDE REVIEWS

24 Duty to arrange a review

- (1) Where a review partner considers that—
 - (a) the death of a person was, or is likely to have been, a qualifying homicide,
 - (b) the death occurred, or is likely to have occurred, in England or Wales,
 - (c) such other conditions as the Secretary of State may specify by regulations are satisfied, including, for example, conditions relating to—
 - (i) the circumstances of or relating to the death,
 - (ii) the circumstances or history of the person who died, or
 - (iii) the circumstances or history of other persons with a connection to the death, and
 - (d) the review partner is one of the relevant review partners in respect of the death (see section 25),the review partner must join with the other relevant review partners in respect of the death in arranging for there to be a review under this section of the person's death.
- (2) Subsection (1) is subject to subsections (3) to (5) and section 26.
- (3) If the review partner considers, on further information, that any of the conditions mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c) is not satisfied in the case of the person's death, the review partner ceases to be under a duty to arrange for there to be a review under this section of the death (and a review may accordingly be discontinued).
- (4) If the review partner considers, on further information, that the condition mentioned in subsection (1)(d) is not satisfied in the case of the person's death, the review partner ceases to be under a duty to arrange for there to be a review under this section of the death, except where such a review of the death has already started to take place under arrangements made by the review partner and other review partners.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not require a review partner to arrange for there to be a review under this section of a person's death if such a review of the death has already taken place, or started to take place, under arrangements made by other review partners.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, the homicide of a person is a qualifying homicide if—
 - (a) the person was aged 18 or over, and

- (b) the death, or the events surrounding it, involved the use of an offensive weapon.
- (7) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
- (a) amend this section so as to alter the meaning of “qualifying homicide”, and
 - (b) make such consequential amendments of this Chapter as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate.
- (8) In this section “offensive weapon” has the same meaning as in section 1 of the Prevention of Crime Act 1953.

25 Relevant review partners

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for identifying which review partners are to be the relevant review partners in respect of a person’s death.
- (2) The regulations may provide that the relevant review partners in respect of a person’s death are—
- (a) a chief officer of police for a police area in England or Wales of a description specified in the regulations,
 - (b) a local authority of a description specified in the regulations or, in a case of a description specified in the regulations, a county council and a district council of a description specified in the regulations, and
 - (c) [^{F1}an integrated care board] or a local health board of a description specified in the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may, in particular, provide that, in a case of a description specified in the regulations, the relevant review partners in respect of a person’s death are—
- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in England or Wales in which the death occurred or is likely to have occurred,
 - (b) the local authority in whose area the death occurred or is likely to have occurred or, if the death occurred or is likely to have occurred within the area of a district council whose area is within the area of a county council, both of those local authorities, and
 - (c) the [^{F2}integrated care board] or the local health board in whose area the death occurred or is likely to have occurred.
- (4) The regulations may include provision for identifying the relevant review partners in respect of a person’s death by reference to other matters, including—
- (a) the last known place of residence of the person who died;
 - (b) an earlier place of residence of the person who died;
 - (c) the place of residence of the person who caused or is likely to have caused, or of any of the persons who caused or are likely to have caused, the person’s death;
 - (d) the police area in England or Wales of the police force that is investigating or has investigated the person’s death.

27 Notification of Secretary of State

- (1) If a review partner becomes aware of qualifying circumstances in relation to a person's death, the review partner must notify the Secretary of State before the end of the notification period of one of the following—
 - (a) that the review partner is under a duty to arrange for there to be a review under section 24 of the person's death,
 - (b) that the review partner is not under that duty in respect of the death, or
 - (c) that the review partner has not been able to take a decision on the matter.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if, when the review partner becomes aware of qualifying circumstances in relation to a person's death, the review partner is also aware that no duty in section 24(1) arises in respect of the death because of section 24(5) or 26.
- (3) If a review partner gives a notification under subsection (1)(c), the review partner must notify the Secretary of State of the review partner's decision on the matter once it has been taken.
- (4) Where a review partner—
 - (a) notifies the Secretary of State that the review partner is under a duty to arrange a review under section 24 of a death, but
 - (b) before the review starts to take place, decides that the review partner is not under that duty in respect of that death (see section 24(3) and (4)), the review partner must notify the Secretary of State of that decision.
- (5) Where a review under section 24 of a death is discontinued because the review partner considers that a condition mentioned in section 24(1)(a) to (c) is not satisfied in relation to the death (see section 24(3)), the review partner must notify the Secretary of State.
- (6) Where a review partner—
 - (a) notifies the Secretary of State that the review partner is not under a duty to arrange a review under section 24 of a death, but
 - (b) afterwards decides that the review partner is under that duty in respect of that death,
 the review partner must notify the Secretary of State of that decision.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, a review partner becomes aware of qualifying circumstances in relation to a person's death if the review partner becomes aware of such facts as make it likely that—
 - (a) the conditions mentioned in section 24(1)(a) and (b) are satisfied in relation to the death, and
 - (b) the review partner is one of the relevant review partners in respect of the death.
- (8) In this section “the notification period”, in relation to notification by a review partner, means the period of one month beginning with the day on which the review partner becomes aware of qualifying circumstances in relation to the death in question.

28 Conduct of review

- (1) Where a review under section 24 of a person's death takes place, the review partners that arranged it must co-operate in and contribute to the carrying out of the review.
- (2) The purposes of a review under section 24 are—
 - (a) to identify the lessons to be learnt from the death, and
 - (b) to consider whether it would be appropriate for anyone to take action in respect of those lessons learned.
- (3) Where the review partners consider that it would be appropriate for a person to take action as mentioned in subsection (2)(b), they must inform that person.
- (4) The review partners must prepare a report on the review and send it to the Secretary of State.
- (5) The report must include—
 - (a) the findings of the review,
 - (b) any conclusions drawn by the review partners, and
 - (c) recommendations made in light of those findings and conclusions (including those referred to in subsection (3)).
- (6) The review partners must not include in the report sent to the Secretary of State material that they consider—
 - (a) might jeopardise the safety of any person, or
 - (b) might prejudice the investigation or prosecution of an offence.
- (7) The Secretary of State must publish, or make arrangements for the publication of, the report, unless the Secretary of State considers it inappropriate for the report to be published.
- (8) If the Secretary of State considers it inappropriate for the report to be published, the Secretary of State must publish, or make arrangements for the publication of, so much of the contents of the report as the Secretary of State considers appropriate to be published.

EXTRACTION OF INFORMATION FROM ELECTRONIC DEVICES

37 Extraction of information from electronic devices: investigations of crime etc

- (1) An authorised person may extract information stored on an electronic device from that device if—
 - (a) a user of the device has voluntarily provided the device to an authorised person, and
 - (b) that user has agreed to the extraction of information from the device by an authorised person.
- (2) The power in subsection (1) may be exercised only for the purposes of—
 - (a) preventing, detecting, investigating or prosecuting crime,
 - (b) helping to locate a missing person, or
 - (c) protecting a child or an at-risk adult from neglect or physical, mental or emotional harm.
- (3) The reference in subsection (2) to crime is a reference to—
 - (a) conduct which constitutes one or more criminal offences in any part of the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) conduct which, if it took place in any part of the United Kingdom, would constitute one or more criminal offences.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) an adult is an at-risk adult if the authorised person reasonably believes that the adult—
 - (a) is experiencing, or at risk of, neglect or physical, mental or emotional harm, and

- (b) is unable to protect themselves against the neglect or harm or the risk of it.
- (5) An authorised person may exercise the power in subsection (1) only if—
 - (a) in a case where the authorised person proposes to exercise the power for a purpose within subsection (2)(a), the authorised person reasonably believes that information stored on the electronic device is relevant to a reasonable line of enquiry which is being, or is to be, pursued by an authorised person,
 - (b) in a case where the authorised person proposes to exercise the power for a purpose within subsection (2)(b) or (c), the authorised person reasonably believes that information stored on the electronic device is relevant to that purpose, and
 - (c) in any case, the authorised person is satisfied that exercise of the power is necessary and proportionate to achieve the purpose within subsection (2) for which the person proposes to exercise the power.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if the authorised person thinks that, in exercising the power, there is a risk of obtaining information other than—
 - (a) information necessary for a purpose within subsection (2) for which the authorised person may exercise the power, or
 - (b) information necessary for a purpose within subsection (2) of section 41 (investigations of death) for which the authorised person may exercise the power in subsection (1) of that section.
- (7) The authorised person must, to be satisfied that the exercise of the power in subsection (1) is proportionate, be satisfied that—
 - (a) there are no other means of obtaining the information sought by the authorised person which avoid that risk, or
 - (b) there are such other means, but it is not reasonably practicable to use them.
- (8) Subsection (9) applies if the authorised person thinks that, in exercising the power in subsection (1), there is a risk of obtaining confidential information.
- (9) The authorised person must, to be satisfied that the exercise of the power is proportionate—
 - (a) have regard to the matters in subsection (10), and
 - (b) be satisfied that—
 - (i) there are no other means of obtaining the information sought by the authorised person which avoid that risk, or
 - (ii) there are such other means, but it is not reasonably practicable to use them.
- (10) The matters referred to in subsection (9)(a) are—
 - (a) the amount of confidential information likely to be stored on the device, and
 - (b) the potential relevance of the confidential information to—
 - (i) a purpose within subsection (2) for which the authorised person may exercise the power, or
 - (ii) a purpose within subsection (2) of section 41 for which the authorised person may exercise the power in subsection (1) of that section.
- (11) An authorised person must have regard to the code of practice for the time being in force under section 42 in exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, the power in subsection (1).

- (c) an investigation into the person's death by the Lord Advocate.
- (3) References in subsection (2) to the exercise of the power in subsection (1) for the purposes of an investigation or inquest include references to the exercise of that power for the purposes of determining whether an investigation should be conducted or an inquest should be held.
- (4) An authorised person may exercise the power in subsection (1) only if—
- (a) the authorised person reasonably believes that information stored on the electronic device is relevant to a purpose within subsection (2), and
 - (b) the authorised person is satisfied that exercise of the power is necessary and proportionate to achieve that purpose.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if the authorised person thinks that, in exercising the power, there is a risk of obtaining information other than—
- (a) information necessary for a purpose within subsection (2), or
 - (b) information necessary for a purpose within section 37(2).
- (6) The authorised person must, to be satisfied that the exercise of the power is proportionate, be satisfied that—
- (a) there are no other means of obtaining the information sought by the authorised person which avoid that risk, or
 - (b) there are such other means, but it is not reasonably practicable to use them.
- (7) Subsection (8) applies if the authorised person thinks that, in exercising the power in subsection (1), there is a risk of obtaining confidential information.
- (8) The authorised person must, to be satisfied that the exercise of the power is proportionate—
- (a) have regard to the matters in subsection (9), and
 - (b) be satisfied that—
 - (i) there are no other means of obtaining the information sought by the authorised person which avoid that risk, or
 - (ii) there are such other means, but it is not reasonably practicable to use them.
- (9) The matters referred to in subsection (8)(a) are—
- (a) the amount of confidential information likely to be stored on the device, and
 - (b) the potential relevance of the confidential information to a purpose within subsection (2) or section 37(2).
- (10) An authorised person must have regard to the code of practice for the time being in force under section 42 in exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, the power in subsection (1).
- (11) This section does not affect any power relating to the extraction or production of information, or any power to seize any item or obtain any information, conferred by an enactment or rule of law.

42 Code of practice about the extraction of information

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a code of practice containing guidance about the exercise of the powers in sections 37(1) and 41(1).
- (2) The code may make different provision for different purposes or areas.
- (3) In preparing the code, the Secretary of State must consult—
 - (a) the Information Commissioner,
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers,
 - (c) the Department of Justice in Northern Ireland,
 - (d) the Commissioner for Victims and Witnesses,
 - (e) the Domestic Abuse Commissioner,
 - (f) the Commission for Victims and Survivors for Northern Ireland, and
 - (g) such other persons as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (4) Subsection (3)(f) does not apply on or after the day appointed under Article 4(4) of the Victims and Survivors (Northern Ireland) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/2953 (N.I. 17)) (power to revoke Article 4).
- (5) After preparing the code, the Secretary of State must lay it before Parliament and publish it.
- (6) The code is to be brought into force by regulations made by statutory instrument.
- (7) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (6) is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (8) After the code has come into force the Secretary of State may from time to time revise it.
- (9) A failure on the part of an authorised person to act in accordance with the code does not of itself render the person liable to any criminal or civil proceedings.
- (10) But the code is admissible in evidence in criminal or civil proceedings and a court may take into account a failure to act in accordance with it in determining a question in the proceedings.
- (11) References in subsections (2) to (10) to the code include a revised code, subject to subsection (12).
- (12) The duty to consult in subsection (3) does not apply in relation to the preparation of a revised code if the Secretary of State considers that the proposed revisions are insubstantial.

Amendments to the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 etc

52 Power to photograph certain persons at a police station

(1) The Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 64A (photographing of suspects etc.), after subsection (1B) insert—

“(1C) A person to whom subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply may be photographed at a police station without the appropriate consent if that person falls within subsection (1D), (1F) or (1H).

(1D) A person falls within this subsection if (before or after the coming into force of this subsection) that person has been—

- (a) arrested for a recordable offence and released,
- (b) charged with a recordable offence, or
- (c) informed that they will be reported for such an offence, and either of the conditions in subsection (1E) is met in relation to that person.

(1E) The conditions referred to in subsection (1D) are—

- (a) that the person has not been photographed in the course of the investigation of the offence by the police, or
- (b) that the person has been so photographed but—
 - (i) any photograph taken on such a previous occasion is unavailable or inadequate, and
 - (ii) a constable considers that taking a further photograph is necessary to assist in the prevention or detection of crime.

(1F) A person falls within this subsection if (before or after the coming into force of this subsection) that person has been—

- (a) convicted of a recordable offence, or
- (b) given a caution in respect of a recordable offence which, at the time of the caution they have admitted, and either of the conditions in subsection (1G) is met in relation to that person.

(1G) The conditions referred to in subsection (1F) are—

- (a) that the person has not been photographed since being convicted or cautioned, or
- (b) that the person has been so photographed but—
 - (i) any photograph taken on such a previous occasion is unavailable or inadequate, and
 - (ii) a constable considers that taking a further photograph is necessary to assist in the prevention or detection of crime.

(1H) A person falls within this subsection if—

- (a) under the law in force in a country or territory outside England and Wales the person has been convicted of an offence under that law (whether before or after the coming into force of this subsection and whether or not they have been punished for it),
- (b) the act constituting the offence would constitute a qualifying offence if done in England and Wales (whether or not it constituted such an offence when the person was convicted), and

- (c) either of the conditions in subsection (1I) is met in relation to that person.
- (1I) The conditions referred to in subsection (1H) are—
- (a) that the person has not been photographed on a previous occasion by virtue of being a person falling within subsection (1H), or
 - (b) that the person has been so photographed but—
 - (i) any photograph taken on such a previous occasion is unavailable or inadequate, and
 - (ii) a constable considers that taking a further photograph is necessary to assist in the prevention or detection of crime.
- (1J) A person who falls within subsection (1F) or (1H) may be photographed under subsection (1C) only with the authorisation of an officer of at least the rank of inspector.
- (1K) An officer may only give an authorisation under subsection (1J) if the officer is satisfied that taking the photograph is necessary to assist in the prevention or detection of crime.
- (1L) In subsections (1E), (1G) and (1I)—
- (a) references to a photograph being unavailable include references to a photograph being lost or destroyed, and
 - (b) references to a photograph being inadequate include references to a photograph being—
 - (i) unclear,
 - (ii) an incomplete photograph of the subject, or
 - (iii) no longer an accurate representation of the subject's appearance.
- (1M) In subsections (1E), (1G), (1I) and (1K) references to crime include references to any conduct which—
- (a) constitutes one or more criminal offences (whether under the law of a part of the United Kingdom or of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom), or

- (a) the Director General has functions by virtue of this section, and
 - (b) the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration has functions by virtue of the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967.
- (4) An officer of the Agency may disclose information to the Director General or to a person acting on the Director General’s behalf, for the purposes of the exercise by the Director General or by any person acting on the Director General’s behalf, of an Agency complaints function.
- (5) The Director General and the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration may disclose information to each other for the purposes of the exercise of a function—
- (a) by virtue of this section, or
 - (b) under the Parliamentary Commissioner Act 1967.
- (6) Regulations under this section may, in particular, make—
- (a) further provision about the disclosure of information under subsection (4) or (5);
 - (b) provision about the further disclosure of information that has been so disclosed.
- (7) A disclosure of information authorised by this section does not breach—
- (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure, or
 - (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).
- (8) But this section does not authorise a disclosure of information that—
- (a) would contravene the data protection legislation (but in determining whether a disclosure would do so, the power conferred by this section is to be taken into account), or
 - (b) is prohibited by any of Parts 1 to 7 or Chapter 1 of Part 9 of the Investigatory Powers Act 2016.
- (9) In this section—
- “Agency complaints function” means a function in relation to the exercise of functions by officers of the Agency;
 - “data protection legislation” has the same meaning as in the Data Protection Act 2018 (see section 3 of that Act).”
- (5) The amendments made by subsections (1) to (3) and any regulations made under provision inserted by subsections (1) and (2) bind the Crown.
- (6) No contravention by the Crown of section 25A of the Food Standards Act 1999 (as inserted by subsection (3)) makes the Crown criminally liable; but the High Court may declare unlawful any act or omission of the Crown which constitutes such a contravention.

Search for material relating to human remains

55 Entry and search of premises for human remains or material relating to human remains

- (1) On an application made by a constable, a justice of the peace may issue a warrant authorising a constable to enter and search premises if the justice of the peace is satisfied that the following conditions are met.
- (2) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is material on the premises mentioned in subsection (5) that consists of, or may relate to the location of, relevant human remains.
- (3) The second condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material does not consist of or include—
 - (a) items subject to legal privilege,
 - (b) excluded material, or
 - (c) special procedure material.
- (4) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing, in relation to each set of premises specified in the application—
 - (a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises,
 - (b) that it is practicable to communicate with a person entitled to grant entry to the premises but it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the material,
 - (c) that entry to the premises will not be granted unless a warrant is produced, or
 - (d) that the purpose of a search may be frustrated or seriously prejudiced unless a constable arriving at the premises can secure immediate entry to them.
- (5) The premises referred to in subsection (2) are—
 - (a) one or more sets of premises specified in the application (in which case the application is for a “specific premises warrant”), or

- (b) any premises occupied or controlled by a person specified in the application, including such sets of premises as are so specified (in which case the application is for an “all premises warrant”).
- (6) If the application is for an all premises warrant, the justice of the peace must also be satisfied—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is necessary to search premises occupied or controlled by the person in question which are not specified in the application in order to find the material referred to in subsection (2), and
 - (b) that it is not reasonably practicable to specify in the application all the premises which the person occupies or controls and which might need to be searched.
- (7) The warrant may authorise entry to and search of premises on more than one occasion if, on the application, the justice of the peace is satisfied that it is necessary to authorise multiple entries in order to achieve the purpose for which the justice of the peace issues the warrant.
- (8) If the warrant authorises multiple entries, the number of entries authorised may be unlimited, or limited to a maximum.
- (9) A constable may—
- (a) seize and retain anything for which a search has been authorised under subsection (1), and
 - (b) if necessary, use reasonable force in the exercise of a power conferred by a warrant issued under this section.
- (10) The power to issue a warrant conferred by this section is in addition to any such power otherwise conferred.
- (11) In this section, section 56 and Schedule 6 “relevant human remains” means the body or any other human remains of—
- (a) a person who the constable making the application reasonably believes to have died in England and Wales but whose death has not been registered under section 15 of the Births and Deaths Registration Act 1953,
 - (b) a person whose death has been registered under that Act following an investigation under section 1(5) of the Coroners and Justice Act 2009, or
 - (c) a person in respect of whom a declaration has been made under section 2 of the Presumption of Death Act 2013.
- (12) In this section, section 56 and Schedule 6 the following expressions have the same meaning as in the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984—
- (a) “items subject to legal privilege” (see section 10 of that Act);
 - (b) “excluded material” (see section 11 of that Act);
 - (c) “special procedure material” (see section 14 of that Act);
 - (d) “premises” (see section 23 of that Act).

Non-criminal hate incidents

60 Code of practice relating to non-criminal hate incidents

- (1) The Secretary of State may issue a code of practice about the processing by a relevant person of personal data relating to a hate incident.
- (2) In this section “hate incident” means an incident or alleged incident which involves or is alleged to involve an act by a person (“the alleged perpetrator”) which is perceived by a person other than the alleged perpetrator to be motivated (wholly or partly) by hostility or prejudice towards persons with a particular characteristic.
- (3) The provision that may be made by a code of practice under this section includes, in particular, provision about—
 - (a) whether and how personal data relating to a hate incident should be recorded;
 - (b) the persons who are to process such personal data;
 - (c) the circumstances in which a data subject should be notified of the processing of such personal data;
 - (d) the retention of such personal data, including the period for which it should be retained and the circumstances in which and the procedures by which that period might be changed;
 - (e) the consideration by a relevant person of requests by the data subject relating to such personal data.
- (4) But a code of practice under this section must not make provision about—
 - (a) the processing of personal data for the purposes of a criminal investigation, or
 - (b) the processing of personal data relating to the alleged perpetrator of a hate incident at any time after they have been charged with an offence relating to the hate incident.
- (5) A code of practice under this section may make different provision for different purposes.
- (6) A relevant person must have regard to the code of practice that is for the time being in force under this section in processing personal data relating to a hate incident.
- (7) In this section—

“data subject” has the meaning given by section 3(5) of the Data Protection Act 2018;

“personal data” has the meaning given by section 3(2) of that Act;

61 Further provision about a code of practice under section 60

- (1) The Secretary of State may not issue a code of practice under section 60 unless a draft of the code has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (2) The Secretary of State may from time to time revise and reissue a code of practice under section 60.
- (3) Before reissuing a code of practice the Secretary of State must lay a draft of the code as proposed to be reissued before Parliament.
- (4) If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the code of practice laid under subsection (3)—
 - (a) the code is not to be reissued, and
 - (b) the Secretary of State may prepare another code.
- (5) If no such resolution is passed within the 40-day period, the Secretary of State may reissue the code of practice.
- (6) In this section “the 40-day period” means—
 - (a) the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament, or
 - (b) if the draft is not laid before each House on the same day, the period of 40 days beginning with the later of the days on which it is laid before Parliament.

“(1A) The senior police officer may give directions imposing on the persons organising or taking part in the assembly—

- (a) in the case of an assembly in England and Wales, such conditions as appear to the officer necessary to prevent the disorder, damage, disruption, impact or intimidation mentioned in subsection (1);
- (b) in the case of an assembly in Scotland, such conditions as to the place at which the assembly may be (or continue to be) held, its maximum duration, or the maximum number of persons who may constitute it, as appear to the officer necessary to prevent the disorder, damage, disruption or intimidation mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b).”

(4) In subsection (2), for “subsection (1)” substitute “this section”.

(5) After subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), the cases in which a public assembly in England and Wales may result in serious disruption to the life of the community include, in particular, where—

- (a) it may result in a significant delay to the supply of a time-sensitive product to consumers of that product, or
- (b) it may result in a prolonged disruption of access to any essential goods or any essential service, including, in particular, access to—
 - (i) the supply of money, food, water, energy or fuel,
 - (ii) a system of communication,
 - (iii) a place of worship,
 - (iv) a transport facility,
 - (v) an educational institution, or

- (16) The Secretary of State may by regulations amend subsection (6) for the purposes of making provision about the meaning for the purposes of this section of serious disruption to the activities of an organisation which are carried on in the vicinity of a one-person protest.
- (17) Regulations under subsection (16) may, in particular, amend that subsection for the purposes of—
- (a) defining any aspect of that expression for the purposes of this section;
 - (b) giving examples of cases in which a one-person protest is or is not to be treated as resulting in serious disruption to the activities of an organisation which are carried on in the vicinity of the protest.
- (18) Regulations under subsection (16)—
- (a) are to be made by statutory instrument;
 - (b) may make incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision, including provision which makes consequential amendments to this Part.
- (19) A statutory instrument containing regulations under subsection (16) may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.”
- (2) The Secretary of State must, before the end of the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which this section comes into force—
- (a) prepare and publish a report on the operation of section 14ZA of the Public Order Act 1986, and
 - (b) lay the report before Parliament.

Wilful obstruction of highway

80 Wilful obstruction of highway

(1) Section 137 of the Highways Act 1980 (penalty for wilful obstruction) is amended as follows.

(2) In subsection (1)—

- (a) after “liable to” insert “imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks or”;
- (b) for “not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale” substitute “or both”.

(3) After subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) In relation to an offence committed before the coming into force of section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (alteration of penalties for certain summary offences: England and Wales), the reference in subsection (1) to 51 weeks is to be read as a reference to 6 months.

(1B) For the purposes of this section it does not matter whether free passage along the highway in question has already been temporarily restricted or temporarily prohibited (whether by a constable, a traffic authority or otherwise).

(1C) In subsection (1B), “traffic authority” has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see section 121A of that Act).”

Expedited public spaces protection orders

82 Expedited public spaces protection orders

- (1) The Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 is amended as follows.
- (2) After section 59 insert—

“59A Power to make expedited public spaces protection orders

- (1) A local authority may make an expedited public spaces protection order (an “expedited order”) in relation to a public place within the local authority’s area if satisfied on reasonable grounds that three conditions are met.
- (2) The first condition is that the public place is in the vicinity of—
 - (a) a school in the local authority’s area, or
 - (b) a site in the local authority’s area where, or from which—
 - (i) vaccines are provided to members of the public by, or pursuant to arrangements with, an NHS body, or
 - (ii) test and trace services are provided.

The reference in paragraph (b)(i) to arrangements includes arrangements made by the NHS body in the exercise of functions of another person by virtue of any provision of the National Health Service Act 2006.

- (3) The second condition is that activities carried on, or likely to be carried on, in the public place by one or more individuals in the course of a protest or demonstration have had, or are likely to have, the effect of—
 - (a) harassing or intimidating members of staff or volunteers at the school or site,
 - (b) harassing or intimidating persons using the services of the school or site,
 - (c) impeding the provision of services by staff or volunteers at the school or site, or
 - (d) impeding access by persons seeking to use the services of the school or site.
- (4) The third condition is that the effect or likely effect mentioned in subsection (3)—
 - (a) is, or is likely to be, of a persistent or continuing nature,
 - (b) is, or is likely to be, such as to make the activities unreasonable, and
 - (c) justifies the restrictions imposed by the order.
- (5) An expedited order is an order that identifies the public place referred to in subsection (1) (“the restricted area”) and—
 - (a) prohibits specified things being done in the restricted area,

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: *Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. - (b) requires specified things to be done by persons carrying on specified activities in that area, or
 - (c) does both of those things.
- (6) The only prohibitions or requirements that may be imposed are ones that are reasonable to impose in order—
 - (a) to prevent the harassment, intimidation or impediment referred to in subsection (3) from continuing, occurring or recurring, or
 - (b) to reduce that harassment, intimidation or impediment or to reduce the risk of its continuance, occurrence or recurrence.
- (7) A prohibition or requirement may be framed—
 - (a) so as to apply to all persons, or only to persons in specified categories, or to all persons except those in specified categories;
 - (b) so as to apply at all times, or only at specified times, or at all times except those specified;
 - (c) so as to apply in all circumstances, or only in specified circumstances, or in all circumstances except those specified.
- (8) An expedited order must—
 - (a) identify the activities referred to in subsection (3);
 - (b) explain the effect of section 63 (where it applies) and section 67;
 - (c) specify the period for which the order has effect.
- (9) An expedited order may not be made in relation to a public place if that place (or any part of it) is or has been the subject of an expedited order (“the earlier order”), unless the period specified in subsection (11) has expired.
- (10) In subsection (9) the second reference to “an expedited order” is to be read as including a reference to a public spaces protection order (made after the day on which this section comes into force) which neither prohibited nor required anything that could not have been prohibited or required by an expedited order.
- (11) The period specified in this subsection is the period of a year beginning with the day on which the earlier order ceased to have effect.
- (12) An expedited order must be published in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (13) For the purposes of subsection (2), a public place that is coextensive with, includes, or is wholly or partly within, a school or site is regarded as being “in the vicinity of” that school or site.
- (14) In this section references to a “school” are to be read as including a 16 to 19 Academy.
- (15) In this section “test and trace services” means—
 - (a) in relation to England, services of the programme known as NHS Test and Trace;
 - (b) in relation to Wales, services of the programme known as Test, Trace, Protect.”
- (3) After section 60 insert—

“60A Duration of expedited orders

- (1) An expedited order may not have effect for a period of more than 6 months.
 - (2) Subject to subsection (1), the local authority that made an expedited order may, before the time when the order is due to expire, extend the period for which the order has effect if satisfied on reasonable grounds that doing so is necessary to prevent—
 - (a) occurrence or recurrence after that time of the activities identified in the order, or
 - (b) an increase in the frequency or seriousness of those activities after that time.
 - (3) Where a local authority has made an expedited order, the authority may, at any time before the order is due to expire, reduce the period for which the order is to have effect if satisfied on reasonable grounds that the reduced period will be sufficient having regard to the degree of risk of an occurrence, recurrence or increase such as is mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b).
 - (4) An extension or reduction under this section of the period for which an order has effect must be published in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State.
 - (5) An expedited order may be extended or reduced under this section more than once.”
- (4) After section 72 insert—

“72A Expedited orders: Convention rights and consents

- (1) A local authority, in deciding—
 - (a) whether to make an expedited order (under section 59A) and if so what it should include,
 - (b) whether to extend or reduce the period for which an expedited order has effect (under section 60A) and if so by how much,
 - (c) whether to vary an expedited order (under section 61) and if so how, or
 - (d) whether to discharge an expedited order (under section 61), must have particular regard to the rights of freedom of expression and freedom of assembly set out in articles 10 and 11 of the Convention.
- (2) In subsection (1) “Convention” has the meaning given by section 21(1) of the Human Rights Act 1998.
- (3) A local authority must obtain the necessary consents before—
 - (a) making an expedited order,
 - (b) extending or reducing the period for which an expedited order has effect, or
 - (c) varying or discharging an expedited order.
- (4) If the order referred to in subsection (3) was made, or is proposed to be made, in reliance on section 59A(2)(a), “the necessary consents” means the consent of—

- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area that includes the restricted area, and
 - (b) a person authorised (whether in specific or general terms) by the appropriate authority for the school or 16 to 19 Academy.
- (5) If the order referred to in subsection (3) was made, or is proposed to be made, in reliance on section 59A(2)(b), “the necessary consents” means the consent of—
- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area that includes the restricted area, and
 - (b) a person authorised by the appropriate NHS authority.
- (6) In this section—
- “appropriate authority” means—
- (a) in relation to a school maintained by a local authority, the governing body;
 - (b) in relation to any other school or a 16 to 19 Academy, the proprietor;
- “appropriate NHS authority” means—
- (a) if the order was made, or is proposed to be made, in reliance on sub-paragraph (i) of section 59A(2)(b), the NHS body mentioned in that sub-paragraph;
 - (b) if the order was made, or is proposed to be made, in reliance on sub-paragraph (ii) of section 59A(2)(b) and the site is in England, the UK Health Security Agency;
 - (c) if the order was made, or is proposed to be made, in reliance on that sub-paragraph and the site is in Wales, the Local Health Board for the area in which the site is located.
- (7) In this section “proprietor”, in relation to a school or a 16 to 19 Academy, has the meaning given in section 579(1) of the Education Act 1996.

72B Consultation and notifications after making expedited order

- (1) A local authority must carry out the necessary consultation as soon as reasonably practicable after making an expedited order.
- (2) In subsection (1) “necessary consultation” means consulting with the following about the terms and effects of the order—
 - (a) the chief officer of police, and the local policing body, for the police area that includes the restricted area;
 - (b) whatever community representatives the local authority thinks it appropriate to consult;
 - (c) the owner or occupier of land within the restricted area.
- (3) A local authority must carry out the necessary notification (if any) as soon as reasonably practicable after—
 - (a) making an expedited order,
 - (b) extending or reducing the period for which an expedited order has effect, or
 - (c) varying or discharging an expedited order.

- (4) In subsection (3) “necessary notification” means notifying the following of the extension, reduction, variation or discharge—
- (a) the parish council or community council (if any) for the area that includes the restricted area;
 - (b) in the case of an expedited order made by a district council in England, the county council (if any) for the area that includes the restricted area;
 - (c) the owner or occupier of land within the restricted area.
- (5) The requirement to notify the owner or occupier of land within the restricted area—
- (a) does not apply to land that is owned or occupied by the local authority;
 - (b) applies only if, and to the extent that, it is reasonably practicable to notify the owner or occupier of the land.”
- (5) Schedule 7 contains amendments relating to subsections (1) to (4).

- (a) P fails to comply with the request as soon as reasonably practicable, or
 - (b) P—
 - (i) enters (or having left, re-enters) the land within the prohibited period with the intention of residing there without the consent of the occupier of the land, and
 - (ii) has, or intends to have, at least one vehicle with them on the land.
- (3) The prohibited period is the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the request was made.
- (4) The conditions are—
- (a) in a case where P is residing on the land, significant damage or significant disruption has been caused or is likely to be caused as a result of P’s residence;
 - (b) in a case where P is not yet residing on the land, it is likely that significant damage or significant disruption would be caused as a result of P’s residence if P were to reside on the land;
 - (c) that significant damage or significant disruption has been caused or is likely to be caused as a result of conduct carried on, or likely to be carried on, by P while P is on the land;
 - (d) that significant distress has been caused or is likely to be caused as a result of offensive conduct carried on, or likely to be carried on, by P while P is on the land.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale, or both.
- (6) In proceedings for an offence under this section it is a defence for the accused to show that the accused had a reasonable excuse for—
- (a) failing to comply as soon as reasonably practicable with the request mentioned in subsection (1)(d), or
 - (b) after receiving such a request, entering (or re-entering) the land with the intention of residing there without the consent of the occupier of the land.
- (7) In its application to common land, this section has effect—
- (a) in a case where the common land is land to which the public has access and the occupier cannot be identified, as if references to the occupier were references to the local authority in relation to the common land;
 - (b) in a case where P’s residence or intended residence without the consent of the occupier is, or would be, an infringement of the commoners’ rights and—
 - (i) the occupier is aware of P’s residence or intended residence and had an opportunity to consent to it, or
 - (ii) if sub-paragraph (i) does not apply, any one or more of the commoners took reasonable steps to try to inform the occupier of P’s residence or intended residence and provide an opportunity to consent to it, as if in subsection (1)(d) after “a constable” there were inserted “or the commoners or any of them or their representative”.

(8) In this section--

“common land” and “commoner” have the same meaning as in section 61;

“damage” includes—

- (a) damage to the land;
- (b) damage to any property on the land not belonging to P;
- (c) damage to the environment (including excessive noise, smells, litter or deposits of waste);

“disruption” includes interference with—

- (a) a person’s ability to access any services or facilities located on the land or otherwise make lawful use of the land, or
- (b) a supply of water, energy or fuel;

“land” does not include buildings other than—

- (a) agricultural buildings within the meaning of paragraphs 3 to 8 of Schedule 5 to the Local Government Finance Act 1988, or
- (b) scheduled monuments within the meaning of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979;

“the local authority”, in relation to common land, has the same meaning as in section 61;

“occupier” means the person entitled to possession of the land by virtue of an estate or interest held by the person;

“offensive conduct” means—

- (a) the use of threatening, abusive or insulting words or behaviour, or disorderly behaviour, or
- (b) the display of any writing, sign, or other visible representation that is threatening, abusive or insulting;

“vehicle” includes—

- (a) any vehicle, whether or not it is in a fit state for use on roads, and includes any chassis or body, with or without wheels, appearing to have formed part of such a vehicle, and any load carried by, and anything attached to, such a vehicle, and
- (b) a caravan as defined in section 29(1) of the Caravan Sites and Control of Development Act 1960.

- (9) For the purposes of this section a person is to be considered as residing or having the intention to reside in a place even if that residence or intended residence is temporary, and a person may be regarded as residing or having an intention to reside in a place notwithstanding that the person has a home elsewhere.

60D Offence under section 60C: seizure of property etc

- (1) If a constable reasonably suspects that an offence has been committed under section 60C, the constable may seize and remove any relevant property that appears to the constable—
- (a) to belong to the person who the constable suspects has committed the offence (“P”);
 - (b) to be in P’s possession; or
 - (c) to be under P’s control.

- (2) “Relevant property” means—
- (a) a vehicle (wherever located) which, for the purposes of section 60C(1)(b) (in the case of an offence under section 60C(2)(a)) or for the purposes of section 60C(2)(b)(ii) (in the case of an offence under section 60C(2)(b)), the constable suspects P had or intended to have with them, or
 - (b) any other property that is on the relevant land.
- (3) The “relevant land” is the land in respect of which a request under section 60C(1)(d) is made.
- (4) The relevant chief officer of police may retain any property that has been seized under subsection (1) until the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of the seizure (“the relevant period”).
- (5) But the relevant chief officer of police ceases to be entitled to retain the property if before the end of the relevant period a custody officer gives written notice to P that P is not to be prosecuted for the offence under section 60C in relation to which the property was seized.
- (And see subsection (10)).
- (6) Subsection (7) applies where before the end of the relevant period proceedings for an offence under section 60C are commenced against P.
- (7) Where this subsection applies the relevant chief officer of police may retain the property seized until the conclusion of proceedings relating to the offence (including any appeal) (but see subsection (10)).
- (8) Where a chief officer of police ceases to be entitled to retain property under this section the chief officer must, subject to any order for forfeiture under section 60E, return it to the person whom the chief officer believes to be its owner.
- (9) If a chief officer of police cannot after reasonable inquiry identify a person for the purposes of subsection (8)—
- (a) the chief officer must apply to a magistrates’ court for directions, and
 - (b) the court must make an order about the treatment of the property.
- (10) If at any time a person other than P satisfies a chief officer of police that property that is retained by the chief officer under this section—
- (a) belongs to the person at that time, and
 - (b) belonged to them at the time of the suspected offence under section 60C,
- the chief officer must return the property to the person.
- (11) Subsection (10) does not apply in relation to a vehicle belonging to a person other than P if the chief officer of police reasonably believes that the vehicle was, with the consent of the other person, in P’s possession or under P’s control at the time of the suspected offence under section 60C.
- (12) For the purposes of subsection (6), proceedings are commenced when—
- (a) a written charge is issued under section 29(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003,

- (b) a person is charged under Part 4 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, or
- (c) an information is laid under section 1 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980.

(13) For the purposes of this section—

- (a) the relevant chief officer of police is the chief officer of the police force for the area in which the property was seized, and
- (b) “vehicle” has the same meaning as in section 60C.

60E Offence under section 60C: forfeiture

- (1) A court that convicts a person of an offence under section 60C may order any property to which subsection (2) applies to be forfeited and dealt with in a manner specified in the order.
- (2) This subsection applies to any property that—
 - (a) was seized under section 60D(1), and
 - (b) is retained by a chief officer of police under that section.
- (3) Before making an order for the forfeiture of property the court must—
 - (a) permit anyone who claims to be its owner or to have an interest in it to make representations, and
 - (b) consider its value and the likely consequences of forfeiture.”

Courses offered as an alternative to prosecution

89 Courses offered as alternative to prosecution: fees etc

- (1) After section 90F of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 insert—

“PART 3B

COURSES OFFERED AS ALTERNATIVE TO PROSECUTION

90G Power to charge fees: England and Wales

- (1) A policing body may charge a fee for enrolment on an approved course offered as an alternative to prosecution in England and Wales for a specified fixed penalty offence.
- (2) A fee may be set at a level that exceeds the cost of an approved course and related administrative expenses, but any excess must be used for the purpose of promoting road safety.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by regulations make further provision about—
 - (a) how fees, or components of fees, are to be calculated;
 - (b) the level of fees or components of fees;
 - (c) the use of fee income.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (4) The regulations may include provision as to the amount, or maximum amount, of a fee or component of a fee.
- (5) In this section—
 - “approved course” means a course approved (whether before or after this section comes into force) by a body specified in regulations under subsection (6);
 - “fixed penalty offence” means an offence that is a fixed penalty offence for the purposes of Part 3 (see section 51);
 - “policing body” means—
 - (a) a local policing body, or
 - (b) the British Transport Police Authority;
 - “promoting road safety” includes the prevention, detection or enforcement of offences relating to vehicles;
 - “prosecution”, in relation to an offence, includes any alternative way of being dealt with for the offence (other than attending an approved course);
 - “specified fixed penalty offence” means an offence specified under subsection (6).
- (6) The Secretary of State may by regulations—
 - (a) specify fixed penalty offences for the purposes of this section;
 - (b) specify a body to approve courses for the purposes of this section.
- (7) Nothing in this section limits any power to charge fees apart from this section.

90H Power to prevent courses being offered for repeat offences: England and Wales

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations prohibit a chief officer from offering an approved course to a person as an alternative to prosecution in England and Wales for a specified fixed penalty offence where—
 - (a) there is a course fee, and
 - (b) the person has, within a period specified in the regulations, satisfactorily completed a similar approved course in respect of an earlier specified fixed penalty offence.
- (2) The regulations must include provision for the purpose of identifying what counts as a “similar” course; and that provision may, in particular, confer power on a person to determine what courses count as similar.
- (3) In this section “chief officer” means—
 - (a) a chief officer of police of a police force in England and Wales, or
 - (b) the Chief Constable of the British Transport Police Force.
- (4) In this section the following terms have the meaning given by section 90G(5)—

PART 6

CAUTIONS

PROSPECTIVE

Introductory

98 Diversionary and community cautions

- (1) This Part makes provision for cautions known as—
 - (a) diversionary cautions, and
 - (b) community cautions.
- (2) A diversionary caution may, in accordance with this Part, be given by an authorised person to a person aged 18 or over in respect of an offence.
- (3) A community caution may, in accordance with this Part, be given by an authorised person to a person aged 18 or over in respect of an offence other than an excluded offence.
- (4) Diversionary and community cautions must have one or more conditions attached to them.
- (5) Breach of a condition may, in accordance with this Part, result in—
 - (a) prosecution for the offence, in the case of a diversionary caution, or
 - (b) a financial penalty, in the case of a community caution.
- (6) In this Part “excluded offence” means—
 - (a) an indictable-only offence;
 - (b) an offence triable either way which is prescribed in regulations, or

PROSPECTIVE

Diversionary cautions

99 Giving a diversionary caution

- (1) An authorised person may give a diversionary caution to a person aged 18 or over (“the offender”) in respect of an offence if the following requirements are met.
- (2) The requirements are that—
 - (a) an authorised person or a prosecution authority decides—
 - (i) that there is sufficient evidence to charge the offender with the offence, and
 - (ii) that a diversionary caution should be given to the offender in respect of the offence;
 - (b) the offender admits having committed the offence;
 - (c) the offender consents to being given the caution;
 - (d) an authorised person—
 - (i) explains the effect of the caution to the offender, and
 - (ii) in particular, warns the offender that failure to comply with any of the conditions attached to the caution may result in prosecution for the offence;
 - (e) the offender signs a document which contains—
 - (i) details of the offence,
 - (ii) the offender’s admission to having committed the offence,
 - (iii) the offender’s consent to being given the caution, and
 - (iv) the conditions attached to the caution.
- (3) But if the offence is an indictable-only offence, the authorised person may not give a diversionary caution to the offender except—
 - (a) in exceptional circumstances relating to the person or the offence, and
 - (b) with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.
- (4) A diversionary caution may not be given in respect of an offence committed before the coming into force of this section.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (5) The power to give a diversionary caution under subsection (1) is also subject to regulations under section 117 (restrictions on multiple use of cautions).

Commencement Information

I177 S. 99 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 208\(1\)

100 Deciding on the conditions

- (1) The conditions attached to a diversionary caution are to be decided upon by—
- an authorised person, or
 - in a case where a prosecution authority has taken the decision that the caution should be given, the prosecution authority.
- (2) The conditions which may be attached to a diversionary caution are those authorised by—
- section 101 (rehabilitation and reparation conditions),
 - section 102 (financial penalty conditions), and
 - section 103 (conditions relating to certain foreign offenders).
- (3) When deciding what conditions to attach to a diversionary caution the authorised person or prosecution authority must—
- make reasonable efforts, or ensure that reasonable efforts are or have been made, to obtain the views of any victim or victims of the offence, and
 - take those views into account.
- (4) The views referred to in subsection (3) include in particular views as to whether the offender should carry out any of the actions listed in the community remedy document.
- (5) Where it is the view of the victim or all the victims that the offender should carry out a particular action listed in the community remedy document, the authorised person or prosecution authority must attach that as a condition unless it seems to the authorised person or prosecution authority—
- the action is not one that can be attached as a condition to a diversionary caution, or
 - it would be inappropriate to do so.

Commencement Information

I178 S. 100 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 208\(1\)

101 Rehabilitation and reparation conditions

- (1) Conditions with one or both of the objects in subsection (2) may be attached to a diversionary caution.
- (2) The objects are—
- facilitating the rehabilitation of the offender;
 - ensuring that the offender makes reparation for the offence.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (3) The conditions which may be attached to a diversionary caution for the objects referred to in subsection (2) include—
- (a) restrictive conditions,
 - (b) unpaid work conditions, and
 - (c) attendance conditions.
- (4) A restrictive condition is a condition requiring the offender—
- (a) not to meet or communicate with specified individuals;
 - (b) not to be in, or go to, specified addresses, places or areas in the United Kingdom;
 - (c) not to carry out or participate in specified activities;
 - (d) not to engage in specified conduct (which may include conduct constituting a criminal offence).
- (5) An unpaid work condition is a condition requiring the offender to carry out unpaid work of a specified description for a specified number of hours, which may not exceed 20.
- (6) An attendance condition is a condition requiring the offender to attend a specified place—
- (a) for a specified purpose, and
 - (b) for a specified number of hours, which may not exceed 20 where the condition only has the object referred to in subsection (2)(b).
- (7) Where an attendance condition requires the offender to attend somewhere for the purpose of participating in any education or training, or receiving any other service, the attendance condition may also require the offender to pay for the reasonable cost of the provision of the education, training or service to the offender.
- (8) Regulations may amend subsection (5) or (6)(b) (or both) so as to substitute a different number of hours.
- (9) A condition authorised by this section may—
- (a) contain further details as to how it must be complied with (including the times at or between which something must or must not be done);
 - (b) provide for those details to be supplied, after the giving of the caution, by a specified person or a person of a specified description.
- (10) A condition authorised by this section may not require a person to remain at their own or anyone else’s residence for any period of time.
- (11) In this section “specified” means specified in the caution.

Commencement Information

I179 S. 101 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 208\(1\)

102 Financial penalty conditions

- (1) A condition requiring the offender to pay a financial penalty may be attached to a diversionary caution with the object of punishing the offender.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (2) The condition must specify—
 - (a) the amount of the financial penalty,
 - (b) the person to whom the financial penalty must be paid,
 - (c) how it must or may be paid, and
 - (d) the date on or before which it must be paid.
- (3) The amount specified under subsection (2)(a) must not exceed an amount prescribed in regulations.
- (4) Where the person specified under subsection (2)(b) is not the designated officer for a magistrates’ court, once the penalty is paid to that person they must give it to such an officer.
- (5) The date specified under subsection (2)(d) must be the last day of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the caution is given.

Commencement Information

103 Foreign offenders’ conditions

- (1) Where a diversionary caution is given to a relevant foreign offender, a condition with one or both of the objects in subsection (2) may be attached to it.
- (2) The objects are—
 - (a) bringing about the departure of the relevant foreign offender from the United Kingdom;
 - (b) ensuring that the relevant foreign offender does not return to the United Kingdom for a period of time.
- (3) If a diversionary caution has a condition with the object referred to in subsection (2)(b), the expiry of the period does not of itself give rise to any right on the part of the offender to return to the United Kingdom.
- (4) In this section “relevant foreign offender” means—
 - (a) an offender directions for whose removal from the United Kingdom have been, or may be, given under Schedule 2 to the Immigration Act 1971 or section 10 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999, or
 - (b) an offender against whom a deportation order under section 5 of the Immigration Act 1971 is in force.

Commencement Information

104 Variation of conditions

An authorised person or prosecution authority may, with the consent of the offender, vary the conditions attached to a diversionary caution by—

- (a) varying or omitting any of the conditions;

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (b) adding a condition.

Commencement Information

105 Effect of diversionary caution

- (1) Where a diversionary caution is given, criminal proceedings may be instituted against the offender for the offence in respect of which the caution was given if, but only if, the offender fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any of the conditions attached to the caution.
- (2) The document mentioned in section 99(2)(e) is admissible in such proceedings.
- (3) Where such proceedings are instituted, the diversionary caution ceases to have effect.

Commencement Information

I183 S. 105 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 208\(1\)

106 Arrest for failure to comply

- (1) If a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the offender has failed without reasonable excuse to comply with any of the conditions attached to a diversionary caution, the constable may arrest the offender without warrant.
- (2) A person arrested under this section must be—
 - (a) charged with the offence in question, or
 - (b) released without charge.
- (3) A person released without charge under subsection (2)(b) must be—
 - (a) released on bail if—
 - (i) the release is to enable a decision to be made as to whether the offender should be charged with the offence, and
 - (ii) the pre-conditions for bail are satisfied, or
 - (b) in any other case, released without bail (with or without any variation in the conditions attached to the caution).
- (4) Subsection (2) also applies in the case of—
 - (a) a person who, having been released on bail under subsection (3)(a), returns to a police station to answer bail or is otherwise in police detention at a police station;
 - (b) a person who, having been released on bail under section 30A of the 1984 Act (bail elsewhere than at police station) as applied by section 107 below, attends at a police station to answer bail or is otherwise in police detention at a police station;
 - (c) a person who is arrested under section 30D or 46A of the 1984 Act (power of arrest for failure to answer to police bail) as applied by section 107 below.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (5) Where a person is released on bail under subsection (3)(a), the custody officer must inform the person that the release is to enable a decision to be made as to whether the person should be charged with the offence in question.
- (6) A person arrested under this section, or any other person in whose case subsection (2) applies, may be kept in police detention—
- (a) to enable the person to be dealt with in accordance with that subsection, or
 - (b) where applicable, to enable the power under section 47(4A) of the 1984 Act (power of custody officer to appoint a different or additional time for answering to police bail), as applied by section 107 below, to be exercised.
- If the person is not in a fit state to be dealt with in that way, or to enable that power to be exercised, they may be kept in police detention until they are.
- (7) The power under subsection (6)(a) includes power to keep the person in police detention if it is necessary to do so for the purpose of investigating whether the person has failed, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any of the conditions attached to the diversionary caution.
- (8) Subsections (2) and (3) must be complied with as soon as practicable after the person arrested arrives at the police station or, in the case of a person arrested at the police station, as soon as practicable after the arrest.
- (9) Subsection (2) does not require a person who—
- (a) falls within subsection (4)(a) or (b), and
 - (b) is in police detention in relation to a matter other than the diversionary caution, to be released if the person is liable to be kept in detention in relation to that other matter.
- (10) In subsection (3)(a)(ii), the reference to the pre-conditions for bail is to be read in accordance with section 50A of the 1984 Act.

Commencement Information

107 Application of Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984

- (1) In the case of a person arrested under section 106, the provisions of the 1984 Act specified in subsection (2) apply, with the modifications specified in subsection (3) and with such further modifications as are necessary, as they apply in the case of a person arrested for an offence.
- (2) The provisions are—
- (a) section 30 (arrest elsewhere than at police station);
 - (b) sections 30A to 30D (bail elsewhere than at police station);
 - (c) section 31 (arrest for further offence);
 - (d) section 34(1) to (5E) (limitations on police detention);
 - (e) section 36 (custody officers at police stations);
 - (f) section 37(4) to (6C) (record of grounds for detention);
 - (g) section 38 (duties of custody officer after charge);

Community cautions

108 Giving a community caution

- (1) An authorised person may give a community caution to a person aged 18 or over (“the offender”) in respect of an offence, other than an excluded offence, if the following requirements are met.
- (2) The requirements are that—
- (a) an authorised person or a prosecution authority decides that—
 - (i) there is sufficient evidence to charge the offender with the offence, and
 - (ii) a community caution should be given to the offender in respect of the offence;
 - (b) the offender admits to having committed the offence;
 - (c) the offender consents to being given the caution;
 - (d) an authorised person—
 - (i) explains the effect of the caution to the offender, and
 - (ii) in particular, warns the offender of the effect of failure to comply with any of the conditions attached to the caution;
 - (e) the offender signs a document which contains—
 - (i) details of the offence,
 - (ii) the offender’s admission to having committed the offence,
 - (iii) the offender’s consent to being given the caution, and
 - (iv) the conditions attached to the caution.
- (3) A community caution may not be given in respect of an offence committed before the coming into force of this section.
- (4) The power to give a community caution under subsection (1) is also subject to regulations under section 117 (restrictions on multiple use of cautions).

109 Deciding on the conditions

- (1) The conditions attached to a community caution are to be decided upon by—
 - (a) an authorised person, or
 - (b) in a case where a prosecution authority has taken the decision that the caution should be given, the prosecution authority.
- (2) The conditions which may be attached to a community caution are those authorised by—
 - (a) section 110 (rehabilitation and reparation conditions), and
 - (b) section 111 (financial penalty conditions).
- (3) When deciding what conditions to attach to a community caution the authorised person or prosecution authority must—
 - (a) make reasonable efforts, or ensure that reasonable efforts are or have been made, to obtain the views of any victim or victims of the offence, and
 - (b) take those views into account.
- (4) The views referred to in subsection (3) include in particular views as to whether the offender should carry out any of the actions listed in the community remedy document.
- (5) Where it is the view of the victim or all the victims that the offender should carry out a particular action listed in the community remedy document, the authorised person or prosecution authority must attach that as a condition unless it seems to the authorised person or prosecution authority—
 - (a) the action is not one that can be attached as a condition to a community caution, or

- (c) not to carry out or participate in specified activities;
 - (d) not to engage in specified conduct (which may include conduct constituting a criminal offence).
- (5) An unpaid work condition is a condition requiring the offender to carry out unpaid work of a specified description for a specified number of hours, which may not exceed 10.
- (6) An attendance condition is a condition requiring the offender to attend a specified place—
- (a) for a specified purpose, and
 - (b) for a specified number of hours, which may not exceed 10 where the condition only has the object referred to in subsection (2)(b).
- (7) Where an attendance condition requires the offender to attend somewhere for the purpose of participating in any education or training, or receiving any other service, the attendance condition may also require the offender to pay for the reasonable cost of the provision of the education, training or service to the offender.
- (8) Regulations may amend subsection (5) or (6)(b) (or both) so as to substitute a different number of hours.
- (9) A condition authorised by this section may—
- (a) contain further details as to how it must be complied with (including the times at or between which something must or must not be done);
 - (b) provide for those details to be supplied, after the giving of the caution, by a specified person or a person of a specified description.
- (10) A condition authorised by this section may not require a person to remain at their own or anyone else’s residence for any period of time.
- (11) In this section “specified” means specified in the caution.

111 Financial penalty conditions

- (1) A condition requiring the offender to pay a financial penalty may be attached to a community caution with the object of punishing the offender.
- (2) The condition must specify—
- (a) the amount of the financial penalty,
 - (b) the person to whom the financial penalty must be paid,
 - (c) how it must or may be paid,
 - (d) the date on or before which the penalty must be paid, and
 - (e) the consequences of non-payment.
- (3) The amount specified under subsection (2)(a) must not exceed an amount prescribed in regulations.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (4) Where the person specified under subsection (2)(b) is not the designated officer for a magistrates' court, once the penalty is paid to that person they must give it to such an officer.
- (5) The date specified under subsection (2)(d) must be the last day of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the caution is given.
- (6) If the financial penalty is not paid on or before the date specified under subsection (2)(d), the amount of the penalty required to be paid by the condition is increased by 50%.
- (7) Where subsection (6) applies, if the increased penalty is not paid within the period of 21 days beginning with the day after the date specified under subsection (2)(d), the amount of the increased penalty may be registered under section 112 for enforcement against the offender as a fine.

112 Enforcement of financial penalties: registration

- (1) The chief officer of police may, in respect of any amount registrable under section 111(7), issue a certificate (“a registration certificate”)—
 - (a) giving particulars of the financial penalty,
 - (b) stating that the amount is registrable for enforcement against the offender as a fine, and
 - (c) stating the name and last known address of the offender.
- (2) The chief officer of police issuing a registration certificate must cause it to be sent to the designated officer for the local justice area in which the offender appears to the chief officer to reside.
- (3) The designated officer for a local justice area in receipt of a registration certificate must—
 - (a) register the amount for enforcement as a fine in that area by entering it in the register of a magistrates' court acting for that area, or
 - (b) if it appears to the designated officer that the offender does not reside in that area, cause the certificate to be sent to the person appearing to the officer to be the designated officer for the local justice area in which the offender resides.
- (4) A designated officer registering an amount under this section for enforcement as a fine must give the offender notice of the registration which—
 - (a) specifies the amount registered, and
 - (b) gives the information with respect to the financial penalty, and the authority for registration, that was included in the registration certificate.
- (5) If an amount is registered in a magistrates' court as a result of this section, any enactment referring (in whatever terms) to a fine imposed, or other sum adjudged to be paid, on conviction by such a court applies as if the registered amount were a fine imposed by that court on the conviction of the offender on the date on which the amount was registered.

113 Enforcement of financial penalties: court proceedings

- (1) This section applies where, in any proceedings for the enforcement of an amount registered under this section, the person against whom the proceedings are taken claims—
 - (a) not to be the person to whom the community caution was given,
 - (b) to have paid the amount that was required to be paid, or
 - (c) to have a reasonable excuse for not paying.
- (2) The court may adjourn the proceedings, on one or more occasions, for the purpose of allowing the claim to be investigated, but must not adjourn for more than 28 days in total.
- (3) The court must accept a claim under subsection (1)(a) or (b) unless it is shown, on the balance of probabilities, that the claim is unfounded.
- (4) Where a court accepts a claim under subsection (1)(b), the condition of the caution by virtue of which the amount is required to be paid ceases to have effect.
- (5) In the case of a claim under subsection (1)(c), the court must accept the claim so far as relating to the facts claimed (leaving aside any question as to the reasonableness of the excuse), unless it is shown, on the balance of probabilities, that the claim so far as relating to those facts is unfounded.
- (6) Where a court accepts a claim under subsection (1)(c), the court may order that the condition of the caution by virtue of which the amount is required to be paid—
 - (a) ceases to have effect, or
 - (b) is varied so as to reduce the amount payable or to extend the time for payment (or both).

General

116 Code of practice

- (1) The Secretary of State must prepare a code of practice in relation to diversionary and community cautions.
- (2) The code may, in particular, include provision as to—
 - (a) the circumstances in which diversionary and community cautions may be given;
 - (b) the procedure to be followed in connection with the giving of diversionary and community cautions;
 - (c) the conditions which may be attached to diversionary and community cautions and the time for which they have effect;
 - (d) the category of constable or investigating officer by whom diversionary and community cautions may be given;
 - (e) the persons whom a prosecution authority may authorise as authorised persons for the purposes of this Part;
 - (f) the form which diversionary and community cautions are to take and the manner in which they are to be given and recorded;
 - (g) the places where diversionary and community cautions may be given;
 - (h) the provision which may be made in a condition under section 102(2)(b) or 111(2)(b);
 - (i) the monitoring of compliance with conditions attached to diversionary and community cautions;
 - (j) the exercise of the power of arrest conferred by section 106(1);
 - (k) who is to decide how a person should be dealt with under section 106(2) and (3).
- (3) After preparing a draft of the code the Secretary of State—
 - (a) must publish the draft,
 - (b) must consider any representations made to the Secretary of State about the draft, and
 - (c) may amend the draft accordingly,

117 Restriction on multiple cautions

- (1) Regulations may prohibit the giving of a diversionary or community caution to a person in respect of an offence where the person has already been given one or more cautions.
- (2) A prohibition under subsection (1) may in particular be framed by reference to—
 - (a) the kinds of caution previously given to the person;
 - (b) the number of times any kind of caution has been given to the person;
 - (c) the period preceding the commission of the offence within which any kind of caution has been given to the person;
 - (d) the offence or description of offences in respect of which any kind of caution has been given to the person.
- (3) For the purposes of this section “caution” means—
 - (a) a diversionary or community caution;
 - (b) a conditional caution under Part 3 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 given before the coming into force of section 118;
 - (c) any other caution given to the person before the coming into force of that section in respect of an offence where—
 - (i) the person admitted having committed the offence,
 - (ii) the person was aged 18 or over when the caution was given, and
 - (iii) the caution was given by a constable or other person authorised to give the caution.

128 Sentences of detention during Her Majesty’s pleasure: review of minimum term

- (1) Before the italic heading above section 28 of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 insert—

“Sentence of detention during Her Majesty’s pleasure: review of minimum term

27A Sentence of detention during Her Majesty’s pleasure imposed on a person under 18: application for minimum term review

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
- (a) is serving a DHMP sentence, and
 - (b) was under the age of 18 when sentenced;
- and such a person is referred to in this section as a “relevant young offender”.
- (2) A relevant young offender may make an application for a minimum term review to the Secretary of State after serving half of the minimum term.
- (3) An “application for a minimum term review” is an application made by a relevant young offender for a reduction in the minimum term.
- (4) Where a relevant young offender has made an application for a minimum term review under this section, the offender may only make a further such application if—

- (a) the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which the previous application was determined has expired, and
- (b) the offender is under the age of 18 on the day on which the further application is made.
- (5) Where the Secretary of State receives an application under this section, the Secretary of State must—
- (a) consider the application, and
- (b) unless the Secretary of State forms the view that the application is frivolous or vexatious, refer it to the High Court.
- (6) Where the Secretary of State decides not to refer the application to the High Court, the Secretary of State must give notice of that decision, and the reasons for it, to the relevant young offender.
- (7) If the relevant young offender makes representations or provides further evidence in support of the application before the end of the period of 4 weeks beginning with the day on which the notice under subsection (6) is given, the Secretary of State must consider the representations or evidence and—
- (a) if the Secretary of State is no longer of the view mentioned in subsection (5)(b), refer the application to the High Court, or
- (b) give notice to the offender confirming the decision not to refer the application.
- (8) In this section—
- “DHMP sentence” means a sentence of detention during Her Majesty’s pleasure imposed (whether before or after this section comes into force) under a provision listed in column 1 of the table in subsection (9);
- “minimum term”, in relation to a person serving a DHMP sentence, means the part of the sentence specified—
- (a) in the minimum term order made in respect of the sentence, or
- (b) where one or more reduction orders have been made under section 27B in respect of the sentence, in the most recent of those orders;
- “minimum term order”, in relation to a DHMP sentence, means the order made under the provision listed in column 2 of the table in subsection (9) that corresponds to the entry in column 1 that relates to the sentence.
- (9) The table is as follows—

Provision under which DHMP sentence imposed	Provision under which minimum term order made
Section 259 of the Sentencing Code	Section 322 of the Sentencing Code
Section 90 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000	Section 82A of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 or section 269 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003

- (10) For the purposes of subsection (4), an application for a minimum term review is determined—
- (a) when the court makes a reduction order or a decision confirming the minimum term (see section 27B), or
 - (b) in a case where the application is not referred to the court, when the Secretary of State gives the relevant young offender notice in relation to the application under subsection (6).
- (11) There is no right for any person who is serving a DHMP sentence to request a review of the minimum term other than that conferred by this section.

27B Power of High Court to reduce minimum term

- (1) This section applies where the Secretary of State refers an application for a minimum term review made by a relevant young offender under section 27A to the High Court.
 - (2) The court may—
 - (a) make a reduction order in relation to relevant young offender, or
 - (b) confirm the minimum term in respect of the offender’s DHMP sentence, and a decision of the court under this subsection is final.
 - (3) A reduction order is an order that the relevant young offender’s minimum term is to be reduced to such part of the offender’s DHMP sentence as the court considers appropriate and is specified in the reduction order.
 - (4) In deciding whether to make a reduction order, the court must, in particular, take into account any evidence—
 - (a) that the relevant young offender’s rehabilitation has been exceptional;
 - (b) that the continued detention or imprisonment of the offender for the remainder of the minimum term is likely to give rise to a serious risk to the welfare or continued rehabilitation of the offender which cannot be eliminated or mitigated to a significant degree.
 - (5) In this section “DHMP sentence”, “minimum term” and “relevant young offender” have the same meaning as in section 27A.”
- (2) In section 28 of that Act (duty to release certain life prisoners), in subsection (1A), for the words from “the part of” to the end substitute—
- “(a) the part of the sentence specified in the minimum term order, or
 - (b) in a case where one or more reduction orders has been made in relation to the prisoner (see section 27B), the part of the sentence specified in the most recent of those orders.”
- (3) A pre-commencement application—
- (a) is to be treated for the purposes of subsection (4) of section 27A of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 as if it was made under that section if, at the time the relevant young offender made the application, they had served at least half of the minimum term;

- (b) if not determined before the day on which this section comes into force, is to be dealt with in the manner in which it would have been dealt with immediately before this section comes into force.

(4) In this section—

“minimum term”, in relation to a relevant young offender, means the part of the offender’s DHMP sentence specified in the minimum term order made in respect of the sentence (and for these purposes “DHMP sentence” and “minimum term order” have same meanings as in that section 27A);

“pre-commencement application” means an application by a relevant young offender for a review of the minimum term that was made to the Secretary of State before the day on which this section comes into force;

“relevant young offender” has the same meaning as in section 27A of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997.

129 Life sentence not fixed by law: minimum term

(1) In section 323 of the Sentencing Code (minimum term order for life sentence not fixed by law)—

(a) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) The starting point, in determining the minimum term, is the relevant portion of the notional determinate sentence.

(1B) The “notional determinate sentence”, in relation to a life sentence, is the custodial sentence that the court would have imposed if the court had not imposed the life sentence.

(1C) The “relevant portion” of the notional determinate sentence is—

(a) where that sentence is within section 247A(2A) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (terrorist prisoners not entitled to early release), the term that the court would have determined as the appropriate custodial term (within the meaning given by subsection (8) of that section);

(b) where that sentence is a sentence under section 252A, 254, 265, 266, 278 or 279 (and is not within paragraph (a)), two-thirds of the term that the court would have determined as the appropriate custodial term under that section;

(c) where that sentence is any other custodial sentence, two-thirds of the term of the sentence.”;

(b) in subsection (2)—

(i) for the words before paragraph (a), substitute “The minimum term must be the starting point adjusted as the court considers appropriate, taking into account—”;

(ii) omit paragraph (b) (but not the final “and”).

(2) In section 261A(3) of the Armed Forces Act 2006 (life sentences: further provision), before paragraph (a) insert—

“244ZA Release on licence of certain violent or sexual offenders

- (1) As soon as a fixed-term prisoner to whom this section applies has served the requisite custodial period for the purposes of this section, it is the duty of the Secretary of State to release the prisoner on licence under this section.
- (2) This section applies to a prisoner who—
 - (a) is serving a fixed-term sentence within subsection (4), (5) or (6),
 - (b) is not a prisoner to whom section 244A, 246A or 247A applies, and
 - (c) has not been released on licence (provision for the release of persons recalled under section 254 being made by sections 255B and 255C).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) the prisoner’s case has been referred to the Board under section 244ZB, or
 - (b) a notice given to the prisoner under subsection (4) of that section is in force.
- (4) A fixed-term sentence is within this subsection if it—
 - (a) is a sentence of—
 - (i) imprisonment, or
 - (ii) detention under section 96 of the PCC(S)A 2000 or section 262 of the Sentencing Code,
 - (b) is for a term of 7 years or more,
 - (c) was imposed on or after 1 April 2020, and
 - (d) was imposed in respect of an offence—
 - (i) that is specified in Part 1 or 2 of Schedule 15, and
 - (ii) for which a sentence of life imprisonment could have been imposed (in the case of an offender aged 21 or over) at the time when the actual sentence was imposed.
- (5) A fixed-term sentence is within this subsection if it—
 - (a) is a sentence of imprisonment or a sentence of detention under section 262 of the Sentencing Code,
 - (b) is for a term of at least 4 years but less than 7 years,
 - (c) was imposed on or after the day on which section 130 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 came into force, and
 - (d) was imposed in respect of an offence within subsection (7).
- (6) A fixed-term sentence is within this subsection if it—
 - (a) is a sentence of detention under section 250 of the Sentencing Code,
 - (b) is for a term of 7 years or more,
 - (c) was imposed on or after the day on which section 130 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 came into force, and
 - (d) was imposed in respect of an offence within subsection (7).
- (7) An offence is within this subsection if—
 - (a) it is specified in any of the following paragraphs of Part 1 of Schedule 15—
 - (i) paragraph 1 (manslaughter);

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (ii) paragraph 4 (soliciting murder);
 - (iii) paragraph 6 (wounding with intent to cause grievous bodily harm);
 - (iv) paragraph 64 (ancillary offences), so far as it relates to an offence listed in paragraph 1, 4 or 6;
 - (v) paragraph 65 (inchoate offences in relation to murder), or
 - (b) it is an offence—
 - (i) that is specified in Part 2 of that Schedule (sexual offences), and
 - (ii) for which a sentence of life imprisonment could have been imposed (in the case of an offender aged 21 or over) at the time when the actual sentence was imposed.
- (8) For the purposes of this section “the requisite custodial period” means—
- (a) in relation to a prisoner serving one sentence, two-thirds of the prisoner’s sentence, and
 - (b) in relation to a prisoner serving two or more concurrent or consecutive sentences, the period determined under sections 263(2) and 264(2B) or (2E).”
- (4) In section 260(5) (powers and duties of Secretary of State that continue to apply to prisoner removed from prison pending deportation), after “244,” insert “244ZA,”.
- (5) In section 261(5)(b) (application of release provisions to returning deported prisoner), after “244,” insert “244ZA,”.
- (6) In section 264(6) (consecutive terms of imprisonment: meaning of custodial period), after paragraph (ca) (inserted by section 131) (but before the final “and”), insert—
- “(cb) in relation to a sentence in respect of which section 244ZA applies to the offender, two-thirds of the sentence,”.
- (7) In section 268(1A) (meaning of “requisite custodial period” in Chapter 6 of Part 12), in paragraph (d), for “or section 244” substitute “, 244 or 244ZA”.
- (8) In Schedule 15 (specified offences for certain purposes to do with release of offenders) —
- (a) in the heading, for “section” substitute “sections 244ZA and”;
 - (b) in the shoulder reference, for “Section” substitute “Sections 244ZA and”.
- (9) The Release of Prisoners (Alteration of Relevant Proportion of Sentence) Order 2020 (S.I. 2020/158) is revoked.

 - (b) is (or will be) aged 18 or over on the first day on which the prisoner would be so entitled.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the Secretary of State is of the requisite opinion if the Secretary of State believes on reasonable grounds that the prisoner would, if released, pose a significant risk to members of the public of serious harm occasioned by the commission of any of the following offences—
 - (a) murder;
 - (b) specified offences, within the meaning of section 306 of the Sentencing Code.
- (3) If the Secretary of State is of the requisite opinion, the Secretary of State may refer the prisoner’s case to the Board.
- (4) Before referring the prisoner’s case to the Board, the Secretary of State must notify the prisoner in writing of the Secretary of State’s intention to do so (and the reference may be made only if the notice is in force).
- (5) A notice given under subsection (4) must take effect before the prisoner becomes entitled as mentioned in subsection (1)(a).
- (6) A notice given under subsection (4) must explain—
 - (a) the effect of the notice (including its effect under section 243A(2A), 244(1ZA) or 244ZA(3)),
 - (b) why the Secretary of State is of the requisite opinion, and
 - (c) the prisoner’s right to make representations (see subsection (12)).
- (7) A notice given under subsection (4)—
 - (a) takes effect at whichever is the earlier of—
 - (i) the time when it is received by the prisoner, and
 - (ii) the time when it would ordinarily be received by the prisoner,and
 - (b) remains in force until—
 - (i) the Secretary of State refers the prisoner’s case to the Board under this section, or
 - (ii) the notice is revoked.

- (b) the High Court, if satisfied that that ground is made out, must by order revoke the notice.
- (10) At any time before the Board disposes of a reference under this section, the Secretary of State—
- (a) may rescind the reference, and
 - (b) must do so if the Secretary of State is no longer of the requisite opinion.
- (11) If the reference is rescinded, the prisoner is no longer to be treated as one whose case has been referred to the Board under this section (but this does not have the effect of reviving the notice under subsection (4)).
- (12) The prisoner may make representations to the Secretary of State about the referral, or proposed referral, of the prisoner’s case at any time after being notified under subsection (4) and before the Board disposes of any ensuing reference under this section.

But the Secretary of State is not required to delay the referral of the prisoner’s case in order to give an opportunity for such representations to be made.

244ZC Proceedings following reference under section 244ZB

- (1) This section applies to a prisoner whose case has been referred to the Parole Board under section 244ZB.
 - (2) If, in disposing of that reference or any subsequent reference of the prisoner’s case to the Board under this subsection, the Board does not direct the prisoner’s release, it is the duty of the Secretary of State to refer the prisoner’s case to the Board again no later than the first anniversary of the disposal.
 - (3) It is the duty of the Secretary of State to release the prisoner on licence as soon as—
 - (a) the prisoner has served the requisite custodial period, and
 - (b) the Board has directed the release of the prisoner under this section.
 - (4) The Board must not give a direction under subsection (3) in disposing of the reference under section 244ZB unless the Board is satisfied that it is no longer necessary for the protection of the public that the prisoner should be confined.
 - (5) The Board must not subsequently give a direction under subsection (3) unless—

133 Power to make provision for reconsideration and setting aside of Parole Board decisions

In section 239 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (the Parole Board), after subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) Rules under subsection (5) may, in particular, make provision—

- (a) requiring or permitting the Board to make provisional decisions;
- (b) about the circumstances—
 - (i) in which the Board must or may reconsider such decisions;
 - (ii) in which such decisions become final;
- (c) conferring power on the Board to set aside a decision or direction that is within subsection (5B), and any such provision may relate to cases referred to the Board under this Chapter or under Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the 1997 Act.

(5B) The following are within this subsection—

- (a) a direction given by the Board for, or a decision made by it not to direct, the release of a prisoner which the Board determines it would not have given or made but for an error of law or fact, or
- (b) a direction given by the Board for the release of a prisoner which the Board determines it would not have given if—
 - (i) information that was not available to the Board when the direction was given had been so available, or
 - (ii) a change in circumstances relating to the prisoner that occurred after the direction was given had occurred before it was given.

(5C) Provision made by virtue of subsection (5A)(c)—

- (a) may not confer power on the Board to set aside a direction for the release of a prisoner at any time when the prisoner has already been released pursuant to that direction, but
- (b) may make provision for the suspension of any requirement under this Chapter or under Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the 1997 Act for the Secretary of State to give effect to a direction of the Board to release a prisoner, pending consideration by the Board as to whether to set it aside.”

(b) vary or cancel any such condition included in such a licence, unless the Board directs the Secretary of State to do so (and must, if the Board so directs, include, vary or cancel such a condition).

(5B) A licence is within this subsection if it is granted to a relevant prisoner—

- (a) on their initial release in a case where that release is at the direction of the Board, or
- (b) on their release after recall to prison in a case where that release is at the direction of the Board (see sections 255B(5), 255C(5) and 256A(5)).

(5C) In subsection (5B), “relevant prisoner” means a prisoner to whom section 244ZC, 244A, 246A, 247 or 247A applies (or applied) for the purposes of their initial release.”

(3) Omit subsection (9).

(4) Subsection (5) applies to any condition of a licence that is in force immediately before commencement if—

- (a) the inclusion of the condition required a direction of the Board, but
- (b) no such direction was given.

(5) The condition is to be treated, for the purposes of any time after commencement, as if it was included in the licence at the direction of the Board.

(6) Nothing in this section except subsection (5) affects the validity of any condition included in a licence before commencement.

(7) In this section—

“the Board” means the Parole Board;

“commencement” means the coming into force of this section;

“licence” means a licence under Chapter 6 of Part 12 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.

136 Release at direction of Parole Board after recall: fixed-term prisoners

(1) The Criminal Justice Act 2003 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 255B (automatic release), after subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) The Board must not give a direction for P’s release on a reference under subsection (4) unless the Board is satisfied that it is not necessary for the protection of the public that P should remain in prison until the end of the period mentioned in subsection (1)(b).”

(3) In section 255C (fixed-term prisoners not suitable for automatic release), after subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) The Board must not give a direction for P’s release on a reference under subsection (4) unless the Board is satisfied that it is not necessary for the protection of the public that P should remain in prison.”

(4) Omit section 256 (power of Board to fix date for future release).

(5) In section 256A (further review)—

(a) for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) This section applies to a person if—

- (a) there has been a previous reference of the person’s case to the Board under section 255C(4) or this section, and
- (b) the person has not been released.

(1A) The Secretary of State must refer the person’s case back to the Board not later than the first anniversary of the most recent determination by the Board not to release the person (the “review date”).

(1B) Subsection (1A) does not apply where the review date is 13 months or less before the date on which the person is required to be released by the Secretary of State.”;

(b) in subsection (2), for “that anniversary” substitute “the review date”;

(c) in subsection (3), for “a person’s” substitute “the person’s”;

(d) for subsections (4) and (5) substitute—

“(4) The Board must not give a direction for a person’s release on a reference under subsection (1A) or (2) unless the Board is satisfied that it is not necessary for the protection of the public that the person should remain in prison.

(5) Where on a reference under subsection (1A) or (2) the Board directs a person’s release on licence under this Chapter, the Secretary of State must give effect to the direction.”

(6) After section 256A insert—

“256AZA Release after recall where further sentence being served

- (a) subsection (2) does not apply, and
 - (b) subsection (4)(a) has effect as if it required the Parole Board—
 - (i) to determine whether it is satisfied that it is not necessary for the protection of the public for the prisoner, when released, to be released on licence in respect of the preventative sentence or sentences, and
 - (ii) if it is so satisfied, to direct the Secretary of State accordingly.
- (4C) Where the Parole Board gives a direction under subsection (4B)(b)(ii)—
- (a) if at any time the Board directs the prisoner’s release under section 28, that section has effect in relation to the prisoner as if, in subsection (5), for “to release him on licence” there were substituted “to release the prisoner unconditionally”, and
 - (b) if at any time the Board directs the prisoner’s release under section 32, that section has effect in relation to the prisoner as if, in subsection (5), for “immediate release on licence” there were substituted “immediate unconditional release”.
- (6) In subsection (5), in the definition of “the qualifying period”, after “on licence” insert “(whether or not the prisoner has subsequently been recalled to prison under section 32)”.
- (7) Subsection (8) applies to an application made by a person under section 31A(3) of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 before this section comes into force.
- (8) If the application has not been determined when this section comes into force, subsections (4) to (4C) of section 31A of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 apply in relation to it as if it were a reference of the person’s case by the Secretary of State to the Parole Board under subsection (3) of that section.
- (9) Subsection (10) applies if a person remains on licence under Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997, or remains subject to release on licence under that Chapter, following—
- (a) the disposal before this section comes into force of the person’s application to the Parole Board under section 31A(3) of that Act, or
 - (b) the disposal under subsection (4) of section 31A of that Act, as it has effect by virtue of subsection (8) of this section, of the person’s application to the Parole Board under subsection (3) of that section.
- (10) Subsection (3) of section 31A of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 applies in relation to the person as if the application had been a reference of the person’s case by the Secretary of State to the Parole Board under that subsection.

- (c) section 244ZA (inserted by section 130) or 247A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 applies to the offender in respect of the sentence (the offender, in particular, not having been released in respect of the sentence), and
 - (d) the appropriate extension period for the purposes of the order would have been longer had the sentence been imposed on the day on which section 140 came into force.
- (2) The order has effect, on and after the day on which section 140 comes into force, as if the period of disqualification included an appropriate extension period of such length as it would have included had the custodial sentence been imposed on that day.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, the “extended disqualification provisions” are—
- (a) section 35A of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988,
 - (b) section 147A of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, and
 - (c) section 166 of the Sentencing Code,
- and “appropriate extension period”, “driving disqualification order” and “custodial sentence” are to be read in accordance with the extended disqualification provision concerned.
- (4) In the application of this section before section 130 comes into force, the reference in subsection (1)(c) to section 244ZA of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 is to be read as a reference to section 244 of that Act as modified by the Release of Prisoners (Alteration of Relevant Proportion of Sentence) Order 2020 (S.I. 2020/158).
- (5) In the application of this section in relation to a custodial sentence imposed under a provision repealed by the Sentencing Act 2020, the references to the sentence in subsections (1)(d) and (2) are to be read as referring to an equivalent sentence imposed under the corresponding provision of the Sentencing Code.

143 Increase in driving disqualification periods under certain existing orders: Scotland

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
- (a) a driving disqualification order was made in accordance with an extended disqualification provision,
 - (b) the sentence of imprisonment as a result of which the extended disqualification provision applied was imposed before the day on which section 142 came into force,
 - (c) section 1AB of the Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993 applies to the offender in respect of the sentence (the offender, in particular, not having been released in respect of the sentence), and
 - (d) the appropriate extension period for the purposes of the order would have been longer had the sentence been imposed on the day on which section 142 came into force.
- (2) The order has effect, on and after the day on which section 142 comes into force, as if the period of disqualification included an appropriate extension period of such length as it would have included had the sentence of imprisonment been imposed on that day.
- (3) In this section—
- “driving disqualification order” means an order under—
 - (a) section 34 or 35 of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 (“the 1988 Act”), or
 - (b) section 248 or 248A of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 (“the 1995 Act”);
 - “an extended disqualification provision” means—
 - (a) section 35C of the 1988 Act (in the case of an order under section 34 or 35 of that Act), or
 - (b) section 248D of the 1995 Act (in the case of an order under section 248 or 248A of the 1995 Act);

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Minor amendments

144 Calculation of period before release or Parole Board referral where multiple sentences being served

- (1) In the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997—
- (a) in section 28(7) (time of Parole Board referral), omit paragraph (c) (and the “and” immediately before it);
 - (b) before section 34 insert—

“33A Life prisoners also serving fixed-term sentence

- (1) This section applies where a life prisoner is also serving one or more sentences by virtue of which the fixed-term provisions apply to the offender.
 - (2) Nothing in this Chapter requires the Secretary of State to release the prisoner unless the Secretary of State is also required by the fixed-term provisions to release the prisoner.
 - (3) Nothing in this Chapter requires the Secretary of State to refer the prisoner’s case to the Parole Board unless the Secretary of State is also required by the fixed-term provisions to—
 - (a) refer the prisoner’s case to the Board, or
 - (b) release the prisoner.
 - (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a reference by the Secretary of State under section 31A(3).
 - (5) The fact that the prisoner is serving a life sentence is to be ignored in determining, for the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), what the fixed-term provisions require.
 - (6) In this section “the fixed-term provisions” means Chapter 6 of Part 12 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.”;
 - (c) in section 34 (interpretation), omit subsection (4).
- (2) The Criminal Justice Act 2003 is amended in accordance with subsections (3) to (11).
- (3) In section 243A(3) (requisite custodial period before release in short sentence), for “264(2)” substitute “264(2B) or (2E)”.
- (4) In section 244(3)(d) (usual requisite custodial period before release), for “264(2)” substitute “264(2B) or (2E)”.

- (9) In section 263 (release in case of concurrent sentences), in subsection (2), after paragraph (a) insert—
- “(aza) nothing in this Chapter requires the Secretary of State to refer the offender’s case to the Board in respect of any of the terms unless and until the Secretary of State is required either—
- (i) to refer the offender’s case to the Board, or
- (ii) to release the offender,
- in respect of each of the others.”.
- (10) In section 264 (release in case of consecutive sentences)—
- (a) for subsection (2) substitute—
- “(2A) Subsection (2B) applies if each of the terms of imprisonment is subject to initial automatic release.
- (2B) Nothing in this Chapter requires the Secretary of State to release the offender until the offender has served a period equal to the aggregate of the length of the minimum custodial periods in each of the terms.
- (2C) Subsections (2D) and (2E) apply if at least one of the terms of imprisonment is subject to initial Parole Board referral.
- (2D) Nothing in this Chapter requires the Secretary of State to refer the offender’s case to the Board until the offender has served a period equal to the aggregate length of the minimum custodial periods in each of the terms.
- (2E) Nothing in this Chapter requires the Secretary of State to release the offender until—
- (a) the Board has directed the release of the offender, or
- (b) the offender has served a period equal to the aggregate length of—
- (i) the minimum custodial periods in each of the terms (if any) that is subject to initial automatic release, and
- (ii) the maximum custodial periods in each of the terms that is subject to initial Parole Board referral.

145 Application of release provisions to repatriated prisoners

(1) In the Schedule to the Repatriation of Prisoners Act 1984, in paragraph 2 (application of early release provisions) as it applies in relation to prisoners repatriated to England and Wales—

- (a) omit sub-paragraphs (3) and (3A);
- (b) for sub-paragraphs (3B) to (3F) (inserted by the Counter-Terrorism and Sentencing Act 2021) substitute—

“(3ZA) The Secretary of State may specify in the warrant that the prisoner is to be treated for the purposes of the enactments relating to release on licence as if the sentence to be served by the prisoner was imposed in respect of—

- (a) a particular offence under the law of England and Wales,
- (b) such an offence carried out in a certain manner or in certain circumstances, or
- (c) such an offence in relation to which certain findings were made by the court before which the prisoner was convicted or sentenced for the offence; and if that is done those enactments have effect accordingly.

(3ZB) An offence may be specified under sub-paragraph (3ZA) only if it corresponds to the offence in respect of which the prisoner is required to be detained in the country or territory from which the prisoner is transferred (“the overseas offence”).

(3ZC) A specification under sub-paragraph (3ZA)(b) may be made only if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, findings made by the court before which the prisoner was convicted or sentenced for the overseas offence show that the overseas offence was committed in the manner or circumstances to be specified (or in a corresponding manner or corresponding circumstances).

(3ZD) A finding may be specified under sub-paragraph (3ZA)(c) only if, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, findings made by the court before which the prisoner was convicted or sentenced for the overseas offence show that the finding to be specified could properly have been made by a court in England and Wales dealing with the prisoner.

(3ZE) Sub-paragraph (3ZA) does not result in the enactments relating to release on licence applying in a way in which they could not apply in relation to a sentence imposed in respect of the offence specified under that sub-paragraph—

- (a) that was committed at the same time as the overseas offence was committed, or

- (b) in respect of which a conviction was made, or sentence passed, at the same time as occurred in respect of the overseas offence.

(3ZF) The Secretary of State may amend a warrant (whether issued before or after sub-paragraph (3ZA) comes into force and whether or not the transfer it authorised has taken place) so as to specify the matters there referred to.”;

- (c) in sub-paragraph (4), in the definition of “the enactments relating to release on licence”, for “and Chapter 6 of Part 12 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003” substitute “, Chapter 6 of Part 12 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and section 28 of the Offender Management Act 2007”.

(2) The repeal by subsection (1)(b) of sub-paragraphs (3B) to (3F) of the amended paragraph does not affect the continued operation of the enactments relating to release on licence (within the meaning of that paragraph as amended by subsection (1)) in relation to a warrant issued or amended in accordance with those sub-paragraphs before their repeal.

(3) In Schedule 26 to the Criminal Justice and Immigration Act 2008, the following provisions (which contain superseded amendments of or in connection with the paragraph amended by subsection (1)) are repealed—

- (a) paragraph 19(4) and (5), and
- (b) paragraph 33(2) and (3).

151 Power for responsible officer to vary curfew requirements etc

- (1) The Sentencing Code is amended as follows.
- (2) In Part 5 of Schedule 9 (community orders and suspended sentence orders: curfew requirements), after paragraph 10 insert—

“Power of responsible officer to vary curfew requirement

- 10A (1) This paragraph applies where—
- (a) a relevant order is in force,
 - (b) the order is in respect of an offence of which the offender was convicted on or after the day on which section 151 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 came into force,
 - (c) the order includes a curfew requirement imposed under paragraph 9, and
 - (d) the responsible officer considers that the variation condition is met.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (2) The variation condition is met if, having regard to a change in the offender's circumstances since the relevant order was made, it is appropriate to—
 - (a) vary the start time of any of the curfew periods;
 - (b) vary the relevant place in relation to any of those periods.
- (3) The responsible officer may, with the consent of the offender, give the offender notice (a “variation notice”) specifying—
 - (a) the new start time of such of the curfew periods as are specified in the notice;
 - (b) the new relevant place for such of the curfew periods as are so specified.
- (4) The effect of a variation notice is to vary the relevant order as specified in the notice, with effect from the date so specified.
- (5) A variation notice may specify different variations of the start time, or of the relevant place, for different days.
- (6) Before giving a variation notice containing provision pursuant to sub-paragraph (3)(b), the responsible officer must obtain and consider information about each place proposed to be specified in the notice.
- (7) That information must include information as to the attitude of persons likely to be affected by the offender's enforced presence there.
- (8) A variation notice must not—
 - (a) vary the length of any of the offender's curfew periods;
 - (b) in a case where the relevant order includes a residence requirement under paragraph 13, vary the relevant place in a way that is inconsistent with that requirement;
 - (c) make any variation prohibited by sub-paragraph (9).
- (9) A variation is prohibited by this sub-paragraph if—
 - (a) the relevant order concerned includes an electronic compliance monitoring requirement imposed under paragraph 10(3) (a “monitoring requirement”), and
 - (b) the responsible officer considers that, if the court had made the relevant order imposing the curfew requirement as varied by the variation, the court—
 - (i) would not have imposed the monitoring requirement, or
 - (ii) would have imposed a different monitoring requirement.
- (10) The responsible officer must give the appropriate court—
 - (a) a copy of a variation notice given under this paragraph, and
 - (b) evidence of the offender's consent to the notice.
- (11) In this paragraph—
 - (a) “appropriate court”—
 - (i) in relation to a community order, has the same meaning as in Schedule 10 (see paragraph 1 of that Schedule);

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (ii) in relation to a suspended sentence order, has the same meaning as in Schedule 16 (see paragraph 1 of that Schedule);
 - (b) “curfew periods”, in relation to a relevant order, means the periods specified in the order under paragraph 9(2)(a);
 - (c) “relevant place”, in relation to a curfew period, means the place specified under paragraph 9(2)(b) at which the offender is required to remain for that period;
 - (d) “start time”, in relation to a curfew period, means the time at which the period is required to start pursuant to the relevant order.”
- (3) In paragraph 16 of Schedule 10 (amendment of community order because of change of residence), after sub-paragraph (2) insert—
- “(3) If the permission is given by the responsible officer—
- (a) the officer must give notice to the appropriate court of the permission, and
 - (b) the court must amend the order as set out in sub-paragraph (2).”
- (4) After paragraph 17 of that Schedule insert—

“Amendment because of variation of curfew requirement by responsible officer

- 17A (1) This paragraph applies where at any time the responsible officer gives—
- (a) a copy of a variation notice in relation to a community order, and
 - (b) evidence of the offender’s consent to the notice,
- to the appropriate court under paragraph 10A of Schedule 9.
- (2) The appropriate court must amend the order to reflect the effect of the variation notice.”
- (5) In paragraph 23 of Schedule 16 (amendment of suspended sentence order) because of change of residence), after sub-paragraph (2) insert—
- “(3) If the permission is given by the responsible officer—
- (a) the officer must give notice to the appropriate court of the permission, and
 - (b) the court must amend the suspended sentence order as set out in sub-paragraph (2).”
- (6) After paragraph 24 of that Schedule insert—

“Amendment because of variation of curfew requirement by responsible officer

- 24A (1) This paragraph applies where at any time the responsible officer gives—
- (a) a copy of a variation notice in relation to a suspended sentence order, and
 - (b) evidence of the offender’s consent to the notice,
- to the appropriate court under paragraph 10A of Schedule 9.

PART 10

MANAGEMENT OF OFFENDERS

CHAPTER 1

SERIOUS VIOLENCE REDUCTION ORDERS

165 Serious violence reduction orders

(1) In Part 11 of the Sentencing Code (behaviour orders) after Chapter 1 insert—

“CHAPTER 1A

SERIOUS VIOLENCE REDUCTION ORDERS

342A Power to make serious violence reduction order

(1) This section applies where—

(a) a person aged 18 or over (“the offender”) is convicted of an offence which was committed on or after the first appointed day, and

(b) the prosecution makes an application to the court for a serious violence reduction order to be made in respect of the offender.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. - (2) Subject to subsection (6), the court may make a serious violence reduction order in respect of the offender if—
 - (a) the condition in subsection (3) or (4) is met, and
 - (b) the condition in subsection (5) is met.
- (3) The condition in this subsection is that the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that—
 - (a) a bladed article or offensive weapon was used by the offender in the commission of the offence, or
 - (b) the offender had a bladed article or offensive weapon with them when the offence was committed.
- (4) The condition in this subsection is that the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that—
 - (a) a bladed article or offensive weapon was used by another person in the commission of the offence and the offender knew or ought to have known that this would be the case, or
 - (b) another person who committed the offence had a bladed article or offensive weapon with them when the offence was committed and the offender knew or ought to have known that this would be the case.
- (5) The condition in this subsection is that the court considers it necessary to make a serious violence reduction order in respect of the offender to—
 - (a) protect the public in England and Wales from the risk of harm involving a bladed article or offensive weapon,
 - (b) protect any particular members of the public in England and Wales (including the offender) from such risk, or
 - (c) prevent the offender from committing an offence involving a bladed article or offensive weapon.
- (6) The court may make a serious violence reduction order in respect of the offender only if it—
 - (a) does so in addition to dealing with the offender for the offence, and
 - (b) does not make an order for absolute discharge under section 79 in respect of the offence.
- (7) For the purpose of deciding whether to make a serious violence reduction order the court may consider evidence led by the prosecution and evidence led by the offender.
- (8) It does not matter whether the evidence would have been admissible in the proceedings in which the offender was convicted.
- (9) The court may adjourn any proceedings on an application for a serious violence reduction order even after sentencing the offender.
- (10) If the offender does not appear for any adjourned proceedings the court may—
 - (a) further adjourn the proceedings,
 - (b) issue a warrant for the offender’s arrest, or
 - (c) hear the proceedings in the offender’s absence.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. - (11) The court may not act under subsection (10)(b) unless it is satisfied that the offender has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings.
- (12) The court may not act under subsection (10)(c) unless it is satisfied that the offender—
 - (a) has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings, and
 - (b) has been informed that if the offender does not appear for those proceedings the court may hear the proceedings in the offender’s absence.
- (13) On making a serious violence reduction order the court must in ordinary language explain to the offender—
 - (a) the effects of the order, and
 - (b) the powers that a constable has in respect of the offender under section 342E while the order is in effect.
- (14) In subsection (1)(a) “the first appointed day” means the first day appointed by regulations under section 208(1) of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 for the coming into force to any extent of section 165 of that Act.
- (15) In subsection (4) the references to the offence include references to any offence arising out of the same facts as the offence.

342B Meaning of “serious violence reduction order”

- (1) In this Chapter, “serious violence reduction order” means an order made in respect of an offender that imposes on the offender—
 - (a) the requirements specified in subsections (2) and (4), and
 - (b) the requirements and prohibitions, if any, specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section.
- (2) The offender must be required to notify the information in subsection (3) to the police within the period of 3 days beginning with the day on which the order takes effect.
- (3) That information is—
 - (a) the offender’s name on the day that the notification is given and, where the offender uses one or more other names on that day, each of those names,
 - (b) the offender’s home address on that day, and
 - (c) the address of any other premises at which, on that day, the offender regularly resides or stays.
- (4) The offender must be required to notify the information mentioned in subsection (5) to the police within the period of 3 days beginning with the day on which the offender—
 - (a) uses a name which has not been previously notified to the police in accordance with the order,
 - (b) changes their home address, or

- (c) decides to live for a period of one month or more at any premises the address of which has not been previously notified to the police in accordance with the order.
- (5) That information is—
- (a) in a case within subsection (4)(a), the name which has not previously been notified,
 - (b) in a case within subsection (4)(b), the new home address, and
 - (c) in a case within subsection (4)(c), the address of the premises at which the offender has decided to live.
- (6) A serious violence reduction order must provide that the offender gives a notification of the kind mentioned in subsection (2) or (4) by—
- (a) attending at a police station in a police area in which the offender lives, and
 - (b) giving an oral notification to a police officer, or to any person authorised for the purpose by the officer in charge of the station.
- (7) The Secretary of State may make regulations under subsection (1)(b) only if—
- (a) the Secretary of State has laid a report before Parliament under section 166(3) of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 (report to be laid after piloting of serious violence reduction orders), and
 - (b) the Secretary of State considers that it is appropriate to make the regulations for the purpose of assisting constables to exercise the powers conferred by section 342E.
- (8) Regulations under subsection (1)(b) are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.
- (9) In this section, “home address”, in relation to the offender, means—
- (a) the address of the offender’s sole or main residence, or
 - (b) if the offender has no such residence, the address or location of a place where the offender can regularly be found and, if there is more than one such place, such one of those places as the offender may select.

342C Serious violence reduction orders: additional requirements etc

- (1) A serious violence reduction order may impose on the offender any requirement or prohibition specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State for the purposes of this section if the condition in subsection (2) is met.
- (2) The condition in this subsection is that the court considers it appropriate for the order to impose the requirement or prohibition on the offender for the purpose of assisting constables to exercise the powers conferred by section 342E in respect of the offender.
- (3) Regulations under this section may be made only after the Secretary of State has laid a report before Parliament under section 166(3) of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 (report to be laid after piloting of serious violence reduction orders).
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.

342D Duration of serious violence reduction orders

- (1) A serious violence reduction order takes effect on the day it is made, subject to subsections (3) and (4).
- (2) A serious violence reduction order must specify the period for which it has effect, which must be a fixed period of not less than 6 months and not more than 2 years.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies in relation to a serious violence reduction order if—
 - (a) the offender has been remanded in or committed to custody by an order of a court, or
 - (b) a custodial sentence has been imposed on the offender or the offender is serving or otherwise subject to a such a sentence.
- (4) The order may provide that it does not take effect until the offender is released from custody or ceases to be subject to a custodial sentence.
- (5) Where a court makes a serious violence reduction order and the offender is already subject to such an order, the earlier order ceases to have effect.

342E Serious violence reduction orders: powers of constables

- (1) This section applies where a serious violence reduction order is in effect.
- (2) A constable may search the offender for the purpose of ascertaining whether the offender has a bladed article or an offensive weapon with them.
- (3) A constable may detain the offender for the purpose of carrying out the search.
- (4) A constable may seize anything that the constable finds in the course of the search if the constable reasonably suspects it to be a bladed article or an offensive weapon.
- (5) The powers in this section may be exercised only while the offender is in a public place.
- (6) A constable may use reasonable force, if necessary, for the purpose of exercising a power conferred by this section.
- (7) The powers conferred on a constable by this section are additional to powers which the constable has at common law or by virtue of any other enactment and does not affect those powers.

342F Retention and disposal of things seized under section 342E

- (1) Any thing seized by a constable under section 342E may be retained in accordance with regulations made by the Secretary of State under this section.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision—
 - (a) regulating the retention and safekeeping of things seized by a constable under section 342E, and
 - (b) regulating the disposal and destruction of such things in such circumstances as the regulations may prescribe.

- (3) Regulations under this section are subject to the negative resolution procedure.

342G Offences relating to a serious violence reduction order

- (1) Where a serious violence reduction order is in effect, the offender commits an offence if the offender—
- (a) fails without reasonable excuse to do anything the offender is required to do by the order,
 - (b) without reasonable excuse does anything the offender is prohibited from doing by the order,
 - (c) notifies to the police, in purported compliance with the order, any information which the offender knows to be false,
 - (d) tells a constable that they are not subject to a serious violence reduction order, or
 - (e) intentionally obstructs a constable in the exercise of any power conferred by section 342E.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—
- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or a fine, or both;
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or a fine, or both.
- (3) In relation to an offence committed before the coming into force of paragraph 24(2) of Schedule 22 (maximum sentence that may be imposed on summary conviction of offence triable either way) the reference in subsection (2)(a) to 12 months is to be read as a reference to 6 months.
- (4) If a person is convicted of an offence under this section, an order for conditional discharge under section 80 is not available to the court by or before which the person is convicted.

342H Variation, renewal or discharge of serious violence reduction order

- (1) A person within subsection (2) may apply to the appropriate court for an order varying, renewing or discharging a serious violence reduction order.
- (2) Those persons are—
- (a) the offender;
 - (b) the chief officer of police for the police area in which the offender lives;
 - (c) the chief officer of police for the police area in which the offender committed the offence on the basis of which the order was made;
 - (d) a chief officer of police who believes that the offender is in, or is intending to come to, the chief officer's police area;
 - (e) where the offence on the basis of which the order was made is an offence to which this paragraph applies, the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force.
- (3) Paragraph (e) of subsection (2) applies to an offence which—

- (4) An application under this section must be made in accordance with rules of court.
- (5) Before making a decision on an application under this section, the court must hear—
- (a) the person making the application, and
 - (b) any other person within subsection (2) who wishes to be heard.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7), on an application under this section the court may make such order varying, renewing or discharging the serious violence reduction order as it thinks appropriate.
- (7) The court may renew a serious violence reduction order, or vary such an order so as to lengthen its duration, only if it considers that to do so is necessary—
- (a) to protect the public in England and Wales from the risk of harm involving a bladed article or offensive weapon,
 - (b) to protect any particular members of the public in England and Wales (including the offender) from such risk, or
 - (c) to prevent the offender from committing an offence involving a bladed article or offensive weapon.
- (8) On making an order under this section varying or renewing a serious violence reduction order, the court must in ordinary language explain to the offender—
- (a) the effects of the serious violence reduction order (as varied or renewed), and
 - (b) the powers that a constable has in respect of the offender under section 342E while the serious violence reduction order is in effect.
- (9) In this section the “appropriate court” means—
- (a) where the Crown Court or the Court of Appeal made the serious violence reduction order, the Crown Court;
 - (b) where a magistrates’ court made the serious violence reduction order and the application is made by the offender or the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force—
 - (i) that magistrates’ court, or
 - (ii) a magistrates’ court for the area in which the offender lives;
 - (c) where a magistrates’ court made the serious violence reduction order and the application is made by a chief officer of police—
 - (i) that magistrates’ court,
 - (ii) a magistrates’ court for the area in which the offender lives, or
 - (iii) a magistrates’ court acting for a local justice area that includes any part of the chief officer’s police area.

- (a) guidance about the exercise by constables, chief officers of police and the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force of their functions under this Chapter,
 - (b) guidance about identifying offenders in respect of whom it may be appropriate for applications for serious violence reduction orders to be made, and
 - (c) guidance about providing assistance to prosecutors in connection with applications for serious violence reduction orders.
- (3) The Secretary of State may revise any guidance issued under this section.
- (4) The Secretary of State must arrange for any guidance issued under this section to be published.
- (5) A constable, chief officer of police or the chief constable of the British Transport Police Force must have regard to any guidance issued under this section.

342K Guidance: Parliamentary procedure

- (1) Before issuing guidance under section 342J, the Secretary of State must lay a draft of the guidance before Parliament.
- (2) If, within the 40-day period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve the draft guidance, the guidance may not be issued.
- (3) If no such resolution is made within that period, the Secretary of State may issue the guidance.
- (4) In this section “the 40-day period”, in relation to draft guidance, means the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament (or, if it is not laid before each House on the same day, the later of the days on which it is laid).
- (5) In calculating the 40-day period, no account is to be taken of any period during which—
- (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
 - (b) both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days.

166 Serious violence reduction orders: piloting

- (1) The Secretary of State may exercise the power in section 208(1) so as to bring section 165 into force—
(a) for all purposes, and
(b) in relation to the whole of England and Wales, only if the conditions in subsections (2) and (3) are met.
- (2) The condition in this subsection is that regulations under section 208(1) have brought section 165 into force only—
(a) for one or more specified purposes, or
(b) in relation to one or more specified areas.
- (3) The condition in this subsection is that the Secretary of State has laid before Parliament a report on the operation of Chapter 1A of Part 11 of the Sentencing Code (inserted by section 165)—
(a) for one or more of those purposes, or
(b) in relation to one or more of those areas.
- (4) A report under subsection (3) must in particular include—
(a) information about the number of offenders in respect of whom serious violence reduction orders have been made;
(b) information about the offences that were the basis for applications as a result of which serious violence reduction orders were made;

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. - (c) information about the exercise by constables of the powers in section 342E of the Sentencing Code (serious violence reduction orders: powers of constables);
 - (d) an assessment of the impact of the operation of Chapter 1A of Part 11 of the Sentencing Code on people with protected characteristics (within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010);
 - (e) an initial assessment of the impact of serious violence reduction orders on the reoffending rates of offenders in respect of whom such orders have been made;
 - (f) an assessment of the impact on offenders of being subject to a serious violence reduction order;
 - (g) information about the number of offences committed under section 342G of the Sentencing Code (offences relating to a serious violence reduction order) and the number of suspected offences under that section that have been investigated.
- (5) Regulations under section 208(1) which bring section 165 into force only for a specified purpose or in relation to a specified area may—
- (a) provide for section 165 to be in force for that purpose or in relation to that area for a specified period;
 - (b) make transitional or saving provision in connection with section 165 ceasing to be in force at the end of the specified period.
- (6) Regulations containing provision by virtue of subsection (5)(a) may be amended by subsequent regulations under section 208(1) so as to continue section 165 in force—
- (a) for the specified purpose, or
 - (b) in relation to the specified area,
- for a further specified period.
- (7) Accordingly, the reference in section 419(1) of the Sentencing Act 2020, as applied by section 206, to the coming into force of an amendment is to be read as including a reference to the continuing in force of an amendment by reason of subsection (6).
- (8) In this section—
- “serious violence reduction order” has the same meaning as in Chapter 1A of Part 11 of the Sentencing Code (see section 342B of the Sentencing Code);
 - “specified” means specified in regulations under section 208(1).

- “(9A) The court may adjourn any proceedings on an application for a knife crime prevention order even after sentencing the defendant.
- (9B) If the defendant does not appear for any adjourned proceedings the court may—
- (a) further adjourn the proceedings,
 - (b) issue a warrant for the defendant’s arrest, or
 - (c) hear the proceedings in the defendant’s absence.
- (9C) The court may not act under subsection (9B)(b) unless it is satisfied that the defendant has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings.
- (9D) The court may not act under subsection (9B)(c) unless it is satisfied that the defendant—
- (a) has had adequate notice of the time and place of the adjourned proceedings, and
 - (b) has been informed that if the defendant does not appear for those proceedings the court may hear the proceedings in the defendant’s absence.”

(2) Regulations under section 208(1) which bring subsection (1) into force only for a specified purpose or in relation to a specified area may—

 - (a) provide for that provision to be in force for that purpose or in relation to that area for a specified period;
 - (b) make transitional or saving provision in relation to that provision ceasing to be in force at the end of the specified period.

(3) Regulations containing provision by virtue of subsection (2)(a) may be amended by subsequent regulations under section 208(1) so as to continue subsection (1) in force for the specified purpose or in relation to the specified area for a further specified period.

(4) In this section “specified” means specified in regulations under section 208(1).

169 Offences outside the United Kingdom: notification requirements

(1) The Sexual Offences Act 2003 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 96 insert—

“Offences outside the United Kingdom: notification requirements

96ZA Offences outside the United Kingdom: notification requirements

(1) Where this section applies to a person (“P”), P is subject to the notification requirements of this Part for the notification period set out in section 82.

This is subject to sections 96ZB (young offenders: parental notices) and 96ZC (modifications of notification requirements).

(2) This section applies to P if P has been given a notice under subsection (3) and that notice has not been cancelled.

(3) A constable may give a notice to P if—

- (a) the conditions in subsections (6), (7) and (8) are met in respect of P, and
- (b) an officer of at least the rank of inspector has authorised the giving of the notice to P.

(4) A notice given to P under subsection (3) must be given to P in person and must contain details of—

- (a) the notifications that P is required to give under this Part,
- (b) when those notifications must be given, and
- (c) where those notifications may be given.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (5) A notice given under subsection (3) may be cancelled by a constable giving notice in writing to P in person but such a cancellation must be authorised by an officer of at least the rank of inspector.
- (6) The first condition is that under the law in force in a country outside the United Kingdom—
- (a) P has been convicted of a relevant offence (whether or not P has been punished for it),
 - (b) a court exercising jurisdiction under that law has made in respect of a relevant offence a finding equivalent to a finding that P is not guilty by reason of insanity,
 - (c) such a court has made in respect of a relevant offence a finding equivalent to a finding that P is under a disability and did the act charged against P in respect of the offence, or
 - (d) P has been cautioned in respect of a relevant offence.
- (7) The second condition is that—
- (a) the first condition is met because of a conviction, finding or caution which occurred on or after 1 September 1997,
 - (b) the first condition is met because of a conviction or finding which occurred before that date, but P was dealt with in respect of the offence or finding on or after that date, or has yet to be dealt with in respect of it, or
 - (c) the first condition is met because of a conviction or finding which occurred before that date, but on that date P was, in respect of the offence or finding, subject under the law in force in the country concerned to detention, supervision or any other disposal equivalent to any of those mentioned in section 81(3) (read with sections 81(6) and 131).
- (8) The third condition is that the period set out in section 82 (as it would have effect as modified by section 96ZC(2) and (3) if this section applied to P) in respect of the relevant offence has not expired.
- (9) In this section and section 96ZC “relevant offence” means an act which—
- (a) constituted an offence under the law in force in the country concerned, and
 - (b) would have constituted an offence listed in Schedule 3 (other than at paragraph 60) if it had been done in any part of the United Kingdom.
- (10) For the purposes of subsection (9)(a), an act punishable under the law in force in a country outside the United Kingdom constitutes an offence under that law however it is described in that law.

96ZB Young offenders: parental notices

- (1) Where the person (“P”) given a notice under section 96ZA is under 18 a constable may also give a notice (a “parental notice”) to a person (“the parent”) with parental responsibility for P.
- (2) Subsections (3)(b) to (5) of section 96ZA apply to the giving of a parental notice as if references to P were references to the parent.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (3) If a parental notice has been given to the parent and has not been cancelled or ceased to have effect—
- (a) the obligations that would (apart from this subsection) be imposed by virtue of section 96ZA on P are to be treated instead as obligations on the parent, and
 - (b) the parent must ensure that P attends with them at the police station when a notification under this Part is being given.
- (4) The parental notice ceases to have effect when P reaches the age of 18.
- (5) If a parental notice is to be given, section 96ZA(4)(a) has effect in relation to the notice given to P as if the reference to the notifications that P is required to give under this Part were a reference to—
- (a) the notifications that the parent is required to give under this Part, and
 - (b) the notifications (if any) that P is required to give under this Part once the parental notice ceases to have effect.

96ZC Modifications of notification requirements

- (1) The application of this Part to a person (“P”) to whom section 96ZA applies in respect of a conviction, finding or caution is subject to the modifications set out in this section.
- (2) References to the “relevant date”—
- (a) in a case where P is within section 96ZA(6)(a), are to the date of the conviction,
 - (b) in a case where P is within section 96ZA(6)(b) or (c), are to the date of the finding, and
 - (c) in a case where P is within section 96ZA(6)(d), are to the date of the caution.
- (3) In section 82—
- (a) references, except in the Table, to a person (or relevant offender) within any provision of section 80 are to be read as references to P;
 - (b) the reference in the Table to section 80(1)(d) is to be read as a reference to section 96ZA(6)(d);
 - (c) references to an order of any description are to be read as references to any corresponding disposal made in relation to P in respect of an offence or finding by reference to which a notice has been given to P under section 96ZA;
 - (d) the reference to offences listed in Schedule 3 is to be read as a reference to relevant offences (see section 96ZA(9)).
- (4) Section 83 has effect as if after subsection (1) there were inserted—
- “(1A) In the case of a relevant offender who is subject to the notification requirements of this Part by virtue of a notice being given to the relevant offender under section 96ZA, the reference in subsection (1) to the period of 3 days beginning with the relevant date (or if later the commencement of this Part) is to be read as a reference to the period of 3 days beginning with the day on which the notice was given to the relevant offender.”

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (5) Section 83(4) has effect as if—
- (a) for the words “Where a notification order is made” there were substituted “Where a relevant offender is subject to the notification requirements of this Part by virtue of a notice given under section 96ZA”, and
 - (b) in paragraph (a) for the words “the order was made” there were substituted “the notice was given to the relevant offender”.

96ZD Appeal against the issue of a notice under section 96ZA or 96ZB

- (1) A person (“P”) may appeal to a magistrates’ court against the decision to give them a notice under section 96ZA.
 - (2) The grounds for bringing an appeal under subsection (1) include—
 - (a) that one or more of the conditions for the giving of the notice were not met in respect of P at the time the notice was given;
 - (b) that the conviction, finding or caution by reason of which P was given the notice falls within subsection (3).
 - (3) A conviction, finding or caution falls within this subsection if—
 - (a) any investigations or proceedings leading to it were conducted in a way which contravened any of the Convention rights (within the meaning of section 1 of the Human Rights Act 1998) which P would have had if those investigations or proceedings had taken place in the United Kingdom, and
 - (b) that contravention was such that the conviction, finding or caution cannot be safely relied on for the purposes of meeting the condition in section 96ZA(6).
 - (4) A person (“the parent”) may appeal to a magistrates’ court against the decision to give them a parental notice under section 96ZB.
 - (5) The grounds for bringing an appeal under subsection (4) include—
 - (a) that one or more of the conditions for the giving of a notice under section 96ZA to the person (“P”) for whom the parent has parental responsibility were not met in respect of P at the time the notice under section 96ZA was given;
 - (b) that the conviction, finding or caution by reason of which P was given a notice under section 96ZA falls within subsection (3);
 - (c) that one or more of the requirements for giving the parent a parental notice under section 96ZB were not met at the time the parental notice was given.
 - (6) On an appeal under subsection (1) or (4) a magistrates’ court may cancel or confirm the notice which is the subject of the appeal.”
- (3) In section 91(1)(a) (offences relating to notification) for “or 89(2)(b)” substitute “, 89(2)(b) or 96ZB(3)(b)”.
- (4) In section 91A(3) (review of indefinite notification requirements) for paragraph (c) substitute—
- “(c) a notice given under section 96ZA.”

- (5) Omit sections 97 to 103 (notification orders) and section 103G(6) and (7) (notification order made on application for sexual harm prevention order or interim sexual harm prevention order).
- (6) In section 133(1) (general interpretation), in the definition of “relevant date” for “98, 100” substitute “, 96ZC”.
- (7) Subsection (5) does not affect—
 - (a) the validity or effect of any order made under section 97 or 100 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003 before the coming into force of this section or the application of Part 2 of that Act to any person in respect of whom such an order was so made;
 - (b) in respect of an application made under section 97(1) or section 100(2) of that Act before the coming into force of this section—
 - (i) the determination of such an application, or
 - (ii) the validity and effect of any order made on such an application or the application of Part 2 of that Act to any person in respect of whom such an order was so made.
- (8) The amendments made by subsections (4) and (6) do not apply in respect of any order to which, or any person to whom, subsection (7) applies.

“347A Sexual harm prevention orders: requirements included in order etc.

- (1) A sexual harm prevention order that imposes a requirement to do something on an offender must specify a person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement.

The person may be an individual or an organisation.

- (2) Before including such a requirement in a sexual harm prevention order, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from—

- (a) the individual to be specified under subsection (1), if an individual is to be specified;
- (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified under subsection (1), if an organisation is to be specified.

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to electronic monitoring requirements (see instead section 348A(5) and (6)).

- (4) It is the duty of a person specified under subsection (1)—

- (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (“the relevant requirements”);
- (b) to promote the offender’s compliance with the relevant requirements;
- (c) if the person considers that—
 - (i) the offender has complied with all the relevant requirements, or
 - (ii) the offender has failed to comply with a relevant requirement, to inform the appropriate chief officer of police.

- (5) In subsection (4)(c) the “appropriate chief officer of police means—

- (a) the chief officer of police for the police area in which it appears to the person specified under subsection (1) that the offender lives, or
- (b) if it appears to that person that the offender lives in more than one police area, whichever of the chief officers of police of those areas the person thinks it is most appropriate to inform.

- (6) An offender subject to a requirement imposed by a sexual harm prevention order must—

- (a) keep in touch with the person specified under subsection (1) in relation to that requirement, in accordance with any instructions given by that person from time to time, and
- (b) notify that person of any change of the offender’s home address.

These obligations have effect as requirements of the order.

- (7) In this section “home address”, in relation to an offender, means—

- (a) the address of the offender’s sole or main residence in the United Kingdom, or
- (b) where the offender has no such residence, the address or location of a place in the United Kingdom where the offender can regularly be

(i) in the words before paragraph (a), after “prohibitions” insert “or requirements”, and

(ii) in the words after paragraph (b), after “prohibitions” insert “and requirements”,

(b) after subsection (6) insert—

“(6A) Any additional prohibitions or requirements that are imposed on the offender must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid—

(a) any conflict with the offender’s religious beliefs,

(b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the offender normally works or attends any educational establishment, and

(c) any conflict with any other court order or injunction to which the offender may be subject.”, and

(c) in subsection (8), after “other prohibitions” insert “or requirements”.

(6) In section 354 (offence: breach of sexual harm prevention order)—

(a) for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) A person commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, the person—

(a) does anything that the person is prohibited from doing by a sexual harm prevention order, or

(b) fails to do something that the person is required to do by a sexual harm prevention order.”,

(b) in subsection (2), for “doing anything prohibited by such an order” substitute “breaching such an order”, and

(c) omit subsection (3).

(7) In paragraph 98 of Schedule 22 to the Sentencing Act 2020 (amendment of section 354 of the Sentencing Code), in the substituted subsection (2) for “doing anything prohibited by such an order” substitute “breaching such an order”.

(8) The Sexual Offences Act 2003 is amended as follows.

(9) In section 103C (sexual harm prevention orders: effect)—

(a) for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) A sexual harm prevention order may—

(a) prohibit the defendant from doing anything described in the order;

(b) require the defendant to do anything described in the order.”,

176 Sexual risk orders: power to impose positive requirements

(1) The Sexual Offences Act 2003 is amended as follows.

(2) In section 122A (sexual risk orders: applications, grounds and effect)—

(a) for subsection (7) substitute—

“(7) A sexual risk order may—

- (a) prohibit the defendant from doing anything described in the order;
- (b) require the defendant to do anything described in the order.”,
- (b) in subsection (8), for the words from “may specify” to the end of the subsection substitute “—
 - (a) has effect for a fixed period (not less than 2 years) specified in the order or until further order, and
 - (b) may specify different periods for different prohibitions or requirements.”,
- (c) in subsection (9), after “prohibitions” insert “or requirements”, and
- (d) after subsection (9) insert—

“(9A) The prohibitions or requirements which are imposed on the defendant by a sexual risk order must, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid—

- (a) any conflict with the defendant’s religious beliefs,
- (b) any interference with the times, if any, at which the defendant normally works or attends any educational establishment, and
- (c) any conflict with any other court order or injunction to which the defendant may be subject (but see subsection (10)).”

(3) After section 122B insert—

“122BA Sexual risk orders: requirements included in order etc.

(1) A sexual risk order that imposes a requirement to do something on a defendant must specify a person who is to be responsible for supervising compliance with the requirement.

The person may be an individual or an organisation.

(2) Before including such a requirement in a sexual risk order, the court must receive evidence about its suitability and enforceability from—

- (a) the individual to be specified under subsection (1), if an individual is to be specified;
- (b) an individual representing the organisation to be specified under subsection (1), if an organisation is to be specified.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to electronic monitoring requirements (see instead section 122EA(5) and (6)).

(4) It is the duty of a person specified under subsection (1)—

- (a) to make any necessary arrangements in connection with the requirements for which the person has responsibility (“the relevant requirements”);

(4) After section 348 insert—

“348A Sexual harm prevention orders: electronic monitoring requirements

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply for the purpose of determining whether a court may impose, under section 343(4), an electronic monitoring requirement on the offender in a sexual harm prevention order.
- (2) If there is a person (other than the offender) without whose co-operation it would be impracticable to secure the monitoring in question, the requirement may not be imposed without that person’s consent.
- (3) The court may impose the requirement only if—
 - (a) it has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available in the relevant area, and
 - (b) it is satisfied that the necessary provision can be made under the arrangements currently available.
- (4) In subsection (3)(a) “the relevant area” means—
 - (a) the local justice area in which it appears to the court that the offender resides or will reside, and
 - (b) in a case where it is proposed to include in the order—
 - (i) a requirement that the offender must remain, for specified periods, at a specified place, or
 - (ii) a provision prohibiting the offender from entering a specified place or area, the local justice area in which the place or area proposed to be specified is situated.

“Specified” means specified in the sexual harm prevention order under which the electronic monitoring requirement is imposed.
- (5) A sexual harm prevention order that includes an electronic monitoring requirement must specify the person who is to be responsible for the monitoring.
- (6) The person specified under subsection (5) (“the responsible person”) must be of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (7) Where a sexual harm prevention order imposes an electronic monitoring requirement on the offender, the offender must (among other things)—
 - (a) submit, as required from time to time by the responsible person, to—
 - (i) being fitted with, or the installation of, any necessary apparatus, and
 - (ii) the inspection or repair of any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring,
 - (b) not interfere with, or with the working of, any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring, and

These obligations have effect as requirements of the sexual risk order or interim sexual risk order under which the electronic monitoring requirement is imposed.

- (8) A sexual risk order or an interim sexual risk order may not provide for an electronic monitoring requirement to have effect for more than 12 months.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not prevent an electronic monitoring requirement from being extended for a further period (of no more than 12 months each time) under section 122D.

122EB Data from electronic monitoring: code of practice

- (1) The Secretary of State must issue a code of practice relating to the processing of data gathered in the course of electronic monitoring of defendants under electronic monitoring requirements imposed by—
 - (a) sexual risk orders,
 - (b) relevant Scottish orders within the meaning of section 136ZI that have been renewed or varied as mentioned in subsection (11) of that section (variation etc by court in England and Wales to impose electronic monitoring requirement), and
 - (c) risk of sexual harm orders that have been renewed or varied as mentioned in section 136ZJ(7) (variation etc by court in England and Wales to impose electronic monitoring requirement).
- (2) A failure to observe a code issued under this section does not of itself make a person liable to any criminal or civil proceedings.”
- (15) In section 136ZA, after subsection (2) insert—
 - “(3) A requirement that is imposed by a relevant order and that relates to the electronic monitoring of a person’s compliance with the prohibitions or requirements imposed by the order is to be treated for the purposes of subsection (2) as a requirement that is expressly confined to a particular locality.”
- (16) In section 138(3), after “containing” insert “only regulations under section 103FA(6) or section 122EA(6) or”.

- (3) The power in subsection (1) may be exercised in any place to which the constable lawfully has access (whether or not it is a place to which the public has access).
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if a constable, in exercising the power in subsection (1) to stop a terrorist offender, stops a vehicle (see section 116(2)).
- (5) The constable may search the vehicle and anything in or on it for purposes connected with protecting members of the public from a risk of terrorism.
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) confers a power to search any person, but the power to search in that subsection is in addition to the power in subsection (1) to search a terrorist offender.
- (7) The power in subsection (1) to search a terrorist offender includes power to search anything carried by the offender.
- (8) Subsection (5) of section 43B applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.
- (9) In this section—
- “search condition” means a condition requiring the offender to submit to a search of their person under this section;
- “terrorist offender” has the same meaning as in section 43B.

186 Search of premises of offender released on licence for purposes connected with protection from risk of terrorism

After section 43C of the Terrorism Act 2000 insert—

“43D Search of premises of offender released on licence for purposes connected with protection from risk of terrorism

- (1) A justice may issue a warrant under this section if, on the application of a senior police officer of the relevant force, the justice is satisfied that the requirements in subsection (2) are met.
- (2) The requirements are—
- that the person specified in the application is a relevant offender who has been released on licence (and not recalled),
 - that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person resides, or may regularly be found, at premises (whether residential or otherwise) specified in the application,
 - that it is necessary, for purposes connected with protecting members of the public from a risk of terrorism, for a constable to enter and search premises specified in the application, and
 - the occupier of the premises is unlikely to consent to a constable entering or searching the premises specified in the application.
- (3) A warrant under this section must specify each set of premises to which it relates (which are to be premises in relation to which the requirements in subsection (2)(b) to (d) are met).
- (4) A warrant under this section is a warrant that authorises a constable of the relevant force, for the purposes referred to in subsection (2)(c)—
- to enter the premises to which it relates, and
 - to search the premises or, if the premises are multiple occupancy premises, the relevant parts of the premises.
- (5) A warrant under this section may—
- authorise the constable executing it to use reasonable force if necessary to enter and search the premises;
 - authorise entry to, and search of, the premises on more than one occasion (whether on a certain number of occasions or without limit), so far as the justice who issues the warrant is satisfied that such authorisation is necessary for the purposes referred to in subsection (2)(c).
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4)—

- (a) “multiple occupancy premises” are premises at which two or more individuals who are not members of the same household reside;
 - (b) the reference to the “relevant parts” of multiple occupancy premises is to those parts of the premises to which the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the person to whom the warrant relates has access.
- (7) Subsection (5) of section 43B applies for the purposes of this section as it applies for the purposes of that section.
- (8) In this section “relevant offender” means—
- (a) a prisoner to whom Chapter 6 of Part 12 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 applies (release of fixed-term prisoners);
 - (b) a life prisoner within the meaning of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 (see section 34 of that Act);
 - (c) a short-term prisoner, long-term prisoner or life prisoner within the meaning of Part 1 of the Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993 (see section 27 of that Act);
 - (d) a fixed-term prisoner within the meaning of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order 2008 (S.I. 2008/1216 (N.I. 1)) (see Article 16 of that Order);
 - (e) a life prisoner within the meaning of the Life Sentences (Northern Ireland) Order 2001 (S.I. 2001/2564 (N.I. 2)) (see Article 2 of that Order).
- (9) In this section—
- “justice” means—
- (a) a justice of the peace in England and Wales,
 - (b) a sheriff or summary sheriff in Scotland, or
 - (c) a lay magistrate in Northern Ireland;
- “relevant force” means—
- (a) if the premises specified in the application for the warrant are in England or Wales, the police force maintained for the police area in which those premises are situated,
 - (b) if those premises are in Scotland, the Police Service of Scotland, or
 - (c) if those premises are in Northern Ireland, the Police Service of Northern Ireland;
- “senior police officer” means a constable of the rank of superintendent or above.”

“43E Seizure and retention of items found in search under section 43C or 43D

- (1) This section applies where a constable carries out—
 - (a) a search of a terrorist offender under section 43C(1),
 - (b) a search of a vehicle, or anything in or on a vehicle, under section 43C(5), or
 - (c) a search of premises further to a warrant issued under section 43D.
- (2) A constable may seize anything that the constable finds in the course of the search if—
 - (a) the constable reasonably suspects that—
 - (i) the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, and
 - (ii) it is necessary to seize it in order to prevent it being concealed, lost, damaged, altered or destroyed, or
 - (b) the constable reasonably believes that it is necessary to do so for the purpose of ascertaining—
 - (i) whether the offender has breached a condition of the offender’s licence, and
 - (ii) if so, whether the breach affects the risk of terrorism to which members of the public are exposed.
- (3) Anything seized under subsection (2) may be—
 - (a) subjected to tests;
 - (b) retained for as long as is necessary in all the circumstances (but see subsection (5)).
- (4) In particular (and regardless of the ground on which the thing was seized)—
 - (a) if a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the thing is or contains evidence in relation to an offence, it may be retained—
 - (i) for use as evidence at a trial for an offence, or
 - (ii) for forensic examination or for investigation in connection with an offence;
 - (b) if a constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the thing has been obtained in consequence of the commission of an offence, it may be retained in order to establish its lawful owner.
- (5) Anything seized under subsection (2)(b) that is not retained as mentioned in subsection (4)(a) or (b) may be retained for a maximum period of 7 days beginning with the day after the day on which the thing is seized.
- (6) Nothing may be retained for either of the purposes mentioned in subsection (4)
 - (a) if a photograph or copy would be sufficient for that purpose.
- (7) In this section “offender” means—
 - (a) in relation to a search under section 43C, the terrorist offender to whom the search relates;
 - (b) in relation to a search under section 43D, the relevant offender in relation to whom the warrant authorising the search was issued.

(9) In subsection (4)(a), after “specified in” insert “Part 1 or 2 of”.

(10) After subsection (4A) insert—

“(4B) For the purposes of section 325, a person is a relevant terrorist offender if the person falls within one or both of subsections (4C) and (4D).

(4C) A person falls within this subsection if the person is subject to the notification requirements of Part 4 of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008.

(4D) A person falls within this subsection if the person has been convicted of and sentenced for a relevant terrorist offence, or otherwise dealt within in relation to such an offence, as described in—

- (a) paragraph (a) or (b) of section 45(1) of the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008,
- (b) paragraph (a) or (b) of section 45(2) of that Act,
- (c) paragraph (a) or (b) of section 45(3) of that Act, or
- (d) paragraph (a) or (b) of paragraph 5(1) of Schedule 6 to that Act.

(4E) For the purposes of subsection (4D)—

- (a) any reference in the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 to an offence to which Part 4 of that Act applies is to be read as if it were a reference to a relevant terrorist offence, and
- (b) any reference in that Act to a hospital order is to be read as if it included a guardianship order within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983 or the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (S.I. 1986/595 (N.I. 4)).

(4F) In subsections (4D) and (4E) “relevant terrorist offence” means—

- (a) an offence specified in Part 1 or 2 of Schedule 19ZA (terrorism offences punishable with imprisonment for life or for more than two years),
- (b) a service offence as respects which the corresponding civil offence is so specified, or
- (c) an offence which was determined to have a terrorist connection (see subsection (4G));

and in paragraph (b) “service offence” and “corresponding civil offence” have the same meanings as in the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 (see section 95 of that Act).

196 British Sign Language interpreters for deaf jurors

(1) The Juries Act 1974 is amended as follows.

(2) After section 9B insert—

“9C British Sign Language interpreters for deaf jurors

- (1) For the purpose of section 9B(2), in determining whether or not a person who is deaf should act as a juror, the judge must consider whether the assistance of a British Sign Language interpreter would enable that person to be capable of acting effectively as a juror.
- (2) Where the judge considers that the assistance of a British Sign Language interpreter would enable the person to be capable of acting effectively as a juror, the judge may appoint one or more interpreters to provide that assistance, and affirm the summons.
- (3) An interpreter appointed under subsection (2) may remain with the jury in the course of their deliberations in proceedings before a court for the purpose of enabling the person the interpreter is assisting to act effectively as a juror.
- (4) The interpreter must not interfere in or influence the deliberations of the jury (see section 20I as to the offence).”

“20H Application of certain provisions to British Sign Language interpreters

- (1) Section 12(1) and (2) (challenge for cause) apply to an interpreter appointed under section 9C(2) as those provisions apply to jurors.
- (2) Section 15A (surrender of electronic communications devices) applies to an interpreter appointed under section 9C(2) as it applies to members of a jury.
- (3) Section 20A (offence of research by jurors) applies to an interpreter appointed under section 9C(2) as it applies to members of a jury with the modification that the reference to “the trial period” in subsection (5), in relation to an interpreter, is the period—
 - (a) beginning when the interpreter is appointed under section 9C(2), and
 - (b) ending when the judge discharges the jury or, if earlier, when the judge discharges the interpreter.
- (4) Section 20B (offence of sharing research with other jurors) applies to an interpreter appointed under section 9C(2) as it applies to members of a jury, but the references in section 20B to “section 20A” and “the trial period” are to be read as references to “section 20A” and “the trial period” as modified by subsection (3) of this section.
- (5) In the following provisions of section 20F (exceptions to offence of disclosing jury deliberations), the references to the conduct of a juror include the conduct of an interpreter appointed under section 9C(2)—
 - (a) subsection (1)(b)(ii);
 - (b) subsection (4)(b);
 - (c) subsection (5).

20I Offence: interpreters interfering in or influencing jury deliberations

- (1) It is an offence for an interpreter appointed under section 9C(2) intentionally to interfere in or influence the deliberations of the jury in proceedings before a court.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable, on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or a fine (or both).
- (3) Proceedings for an offence under this section may only be instituted by or with the consent of the Attorney General.”

TRANSMISSION AND RECORDING OF COURT AND TRIBUNAL PROCEEDINGS

Remote observation and recording

85A Remote observation and recording of proceedings by direction of a court or tribunal

- (1) This section applies (subject to subsections (12) and (13)) to proceedings in any court; and in this section “court” has the same meaning as in the Contempt of Court Act 1981 (see section 19 of that Act).
- (2) If the proceedings are specified under subsection (8)(a), the court may direct that images or sounds of the proceedings are to be transmitted electronically for the purpose of enabling persons not taking part in the proceedings to watch or listen to the proceedings.
- (3) A direction under subsection (2) may authorise only the following types of transmission—
 - (a) transmission to designated live-streaming premises, or
 - (b) transmission to which individuals are given access only having first identified themselves to the court (or to a person acting on behalf of the court).
- (4) In subsection (3)(a), “designated live-streaming premises” means premises that are designated by the Lord Chancellor as premises that are made available for members of the public to watch or listen to proceedings in accordance with directions under subsection (2).
- (5) A direction under subsection (2) may include further provision about—
 - (a) the manner of transmission, or

- (b) the persons who are to be able to watch or listen to the transmission (including provision making that ability subject to conditions, or aimed at preventing persons who are not meant to watch or listen from being able to do so).
- (6) If images or sounds of the proceedings are transmitted electronically (whether under a direction under subsection (2) or any other power), the court may direct that a recording of the transmission is to be made, in the manner specified in the direction, for the purpose of enabling the court to keep a record of the proceedings.
- (7) A direction under subsection (2) or (6)—
 - (a) may relate to the whole, or to part, of the proceedings concerned, and
 - (b) may be varied or revoked.
- (8) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations—
 - (a) specify proceedings (by reference to their type, the court in which they take place, or any other circumstance) in relation to which directions under subsection (2) may be made;
 - (b) specify matters of which the court must be satisfied before deciding to make such a direction;
 - (c) specify matters that the court must take into account when deciding whether, and on what terms, to make such a direction;
 - (d) require directions under subsection (2) to include certain provision under subsection (5).
- (9) Before making regulations under subsection (8), the Lord Chancellor must determine whether the function of giving or withholding concurrence to the regulations would most appropriately be exercised by—
 - (a) the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales,
 - (b) the Senior President of Tribunals, or
 - (c) both of them.
- (10) Regulations under subsection (8) may be made only with the concurrence of the Lord Chief Justice of England and Wales, the Senior President of Tribunals, or both of them, as determined under subsection (9).
- (11) Regulations under subsection (8) may make different provision for different purposes.
- (12) This section does not apply to proceedings in the Supreme Court.
- (13) This section does not apply to proceedings if provision regulating the procedure to be followed in those proceedings could be made by—
 - (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) an Act of Senedd Cymru (including one passed with the consent of a Minister of the Crown within the meaning of section 158(1) of the Government of Wales Act 2006), or

199 Offence of recording or transmission in relation to remote proceedings

In the Courts Act 2003, after section 85A (inserted by section 198) insert—

85B Offence of recording or transmission in relation to remote proceedings

- (1) It is an offence for a person to make, or attempt to make—
- (a) an unauthorised recording, or
- (b) an unauthorised transmission,
- of an image or sound within subsection (2) or (3).
- (2) An image or sound is within this subsection if it is an image or sound of court proceedings that is being transmitted to the place where the recording or transmission referred to in subsection (1) is made or attempted to be made.
- (3) An image or sound is within this subsection if it is an image or sound of a person while that person is remotely attending court proceedings.
- (4) A person is remotely attending court proceedings at any time when the person—
- (a) is not in the same place as any member of the court, and

- (b) is taking part in, watching or listening to the proceedings by way of a transmission.
- (5) For the purposes of this section a recording or transmission is “unauthorised” unless it is—
- (a) authorised (generally or specifically) by the court in which the proceedings concerned are being conducted, or
 - (b) authorised (generally or specifically) by the Lord Chancellor.
- (6) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to prove that, at the time of the actual or attempted recording or transmission, the person—
- (a) was not in designated live-streaming premises, and
 - (b) did not know that the image or sound concerned was of a sort within subsection (2) or (3).
- (7) In subsection (6)(a), “designated live-streaming premises” has the meaning given by section 85A(4).
- (8) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (9) Conduct that amounts to an offence under subsection (1) is also a contempt of court.
- But a person cannot, in respect of the same conduct, be both convicted of the offence and punished for the contempt.
- (10) For the purposes of this section it does not matter whether a person making, or attempting to make, a recording or transmission intends the recording or transmission, or anything comprised in it, to be seen or heard by any other person.
- (11) This section does not apply to proceedings in the Supreme Court.
- (12) This section does not apply to court proceedings if provision regulating the procedure to be followed in those proceedings could be made by—
- (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) an Act of Senedd Cymru (including one passed with the consent of a Minister of the Crown within the meaning of section 158(1) of the Government of Wales Act 2006), or
 - (c) an Act of the Northern Ireland Assembly passed without the consent of the Secretary of State.
- (13) In this section—
- “court” has the same meaning as in the Contempt of Court Act 1981 (see section 19 of that Act);
- “court proceedings” means proceedings in any court;
- “recording” means a recording on any medium—
- (a) of a single image, a moving image or any sound, or
 - (b) from which a single image, a moving image or any sound may be produced or reproduced;

200 Expansion of use of video and audio links in criminal proceedings

(1) In the Criminal Justice Act 2003, for section 51 substitute—

“51 Directions for live links in criminal proceedings

- (1) The court may, by a direction, require or permit a person to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through—
 - (a) a live audio link, or
 - (b) a live video link.
- (2) A direction under this section may be given in relation to a member of a jury only if the direction requires all members of the jury to take part through a live video link while present at the same place.
- (3) In this Part “eligible criminal proceedings” means—
 - (a) a preliminary hearing (see section 56(1)),
 - (b) a summary trial,
 - (c) a criminal appeal to the Crown Court and any proceedings that are preliminary or incidental to such an appeal,
 - (d) a trial on indictment or any other trial in the Crown Court for an offence,
 - (e) proceedings under section 4A or 5 of the Criminal Procedure (Insanity) Act 1964,
 - (f) proceedings under Part 3 of the Mental Health Act 1983,
 - (g) proceedings under—
 - (i) section 11 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000, or
 - (ii) section 81(1)(g) of the Senior Courts Act 1981 or section 16 of this Act in respect of a person who has been remanded by a magistrates’ court on adjourning a case under that section of the 2000 Act,
 - (h) an appeal to the criminal division of the Court of Appeal and any proceedings that are preliminary or incidental to such an appeal,
 - (i) a reference to the Court of Appeal by the Attorney General under Part 4 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 and any proceedings that are preliminary or incidental to such a reference,
 - (j) the hearing of a reference under section 9 or 11 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1995 and any proceedings that are preliminary or incidental to such a hearing,
 - (k) a hearing before a magistrates’ court or the Crown Court which is held after the defendant has entered a plea of guilty,

- (l) a hearing under section 142(1) or (2) of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980,
 - (m) a hearing before the Court of Appeal under section 80 of this Act and any proceedings that are preliminary or incidental to such a hearing,
 - (n) any hearing following conviction held for the purpose of making a decision about bail in respect of the person convicted,
 - (o) a sentencing hearing (see section 56(1)), or
 - (p) an enforcement hearing (see section 56(1)).
- (4) The court may not give a direction under this section unless—
- (a) the court is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice for the person to whom the direction relates to take part in the proceedings in accordance with the direction through the live audio link or live video link,
 - (b) the parties to the proceedings have been given the opportunity to make representations, and
 - (c) if so required by section 52(9), the relevant youth offending team has been given the opportunity to make representations.
- (5) In deciding whether to give a direction under this section, the court must consider—
- (a) any guidance given by the Lord Chief Justice, and
 - (b) all the circumstances of the case.
- (6) Those circumstances include in particular—
- (a) the availability of the person to whom the direction would relate,
 - (b) any need for that person to attend in person,
 - (c) the views of that person,
 - (d) the suitability of the facilities at the place where that person would take part in the proceedings in accordance with the direction,
 - (e) whether that person would be able to take part in the proceedings effectively if the person took part in accordance with the direction,
 - (f) in the case of a direction relating to a witness—
 - (i) the importance of the witness's evidence to the proceedings, and
 - (ii) whether the direction might tend to inhibit any party to the proceedings from effectively testing the witness's evidence, and
 - (g) the arrangements that would or could be put in place for members of the public to see or hear the proceedings as conducted in accordance with the direction."
- (2) In the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, omit Part 3A (live links in preliminary, sentencing and enforcement hearings).
- (3) Schedule 20 makes further provision in connection with the provision made by subsections (1) and (2).

202 Expedited procedure for initial regulations about remote observation of proceedings

- (1) This section applies in relation to the first regulations made under section 85A(8) of the Courts Act 2003 (as inserted by section 198(1)).
- (2) The regulations may be made without a draft of the instrument containing them having been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament (notwithstanding section 108(3) of the Courts Act 2003).
- (3) If regulations are made in reliance on subsection (2), the statutory instrument containing them must be laid before Parliament after being made.
- (4) Regulations contained in a statutory instrument laid before Parliament under subsection (3) cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the instrument is made unless, during that period, the instrument is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (5) In calculating the period of 28 days, no account is to be taken of any whole days that fall within a period during which—
 - (a) Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or
 - (b) either House of Parliament is adjourned for more than four days.
- (6) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of subsection (4), that does not—
 - (a) affect the validity of anything previously done under or by virtue of the regulations, or
 - (b) prevent the making of new regulations.

21 (1) Section 30CA (bail under section 30A: variation of conditions by police) is amended as follows.

(2) After subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) If it is reasonably practicable to do so, the investigating officer must seek the views of the alleged victim (if any) of the relevant offence on—

- (a) whether any of the conditions that are relevant conditions should be varied under subsection (1), and
- (b) if so, what variations should be made to those conditions.

(4B) The investigating officer must inform the relevant officer of any views obtained under subsection (4A).

(4C) If any of the conditions which are relevant conditions are varied under subsection (1), the investigating officer must, if it is reasonably practicable to do so, notify the alleged victim of the variations.

(4D) If the alleged victim of the relevant offence appears to the investigating officer to be vulnerable, subsections (4A) and (4C) apply as if references to the alleged victim of the offence were to a person appearing to the officer to represent the alleged victim.”

(3) For subsection (5) substitute—

“(5) In this section—

“investigating officer”, in relation to the relevant offence, means the constable or other person in charge of the investigation of the offence;

“relevant condition”, in relation to the relevant offence and an alleged victim of that offence, means a condition that relates to the safeguarding of the alleged victim;

“relevant offence” means the offence for which the person making the request under subsection (1) was under arrest when granted bail under section 30A(1);

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- “relevant officer”, in relation to a designated police station, means a custody officer but, in relation to any other police station—
- (a) means a constable who is not involved in the investigation of the relevant offence, if such a constable is readily available, and
 - (b) if no such constable is readily available—
 - (i) means a constable other than the one who granted bail to the person, if such a constable is readily available, and
 - (ii) if no such constable is readily available, means the constable who granted bail.
- (6) For the purposes of this section a person (“P”) is an alleged victim of an offence if—
- (a) an allegation has been made to a constable or other person involved in the investigation of the offence that P has suffered physical, mental or emotional harm, or economic loss, which was directly caused by the offence, and
 - (b) P is an individual.
- (7) For the purposes of this section an alleged victim of an offence is vulnerable if the alleged victim—
- (a) was aged under 18 at the time of the offence, or
 - (b) may have difficulty understanding a communication from an investigating officer under this section, or communicating effectively in response to it, by reason of—
 - (i) a physical disability or disorder,
 - (ii) a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983, or
 - (iii) a significant impairment of intelligence and social functioning.”

PART 6

GUIDANCE ON PRE-CHARGE BAIL

37 In the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, after section 50A insert—

“50B Guidance from the College of Policing on pre-charge bail

(1) The College of Policing may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, issue guidance on bail that is granted to a person under Part 3 or this Part (“pre-charge bail”).

(2) Guidance on pre-charge bail may in particular cover—

- (a) the exercise of powers to release a person on pre-charge bail;
- (b) the exercise of powers to impose or vary conditions of pre-charge bail;
- (c) the exercise of powers to arrest a person—
 - (i) for failing to answer pre-charge bail, or
 - (ii) for breaching any conditions of pre-charge bail;
- (d) the exercise of powers to extend the period of pre-charge bail;

- (e) the duty to seek the views of alleged victims about conditions of pre-charge bail.
- (3) The College of Policing may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, from time to time revise the whole or any part of its guidance on pre-charge bail.
- (4) Before issuing or revising guidance on pre-charge bail, the College of Policing must consult—
 - (a) the National Police Chiefs’ Council,
 - (b) such persons as appear to the College to represent the views of local policing bodies, and
 - (c) such other persons as the College thinks fit.
- (5) The Secretary of State must lay before Parliament any guidance on pre-charge bail issued by the College of Policing, and any revision of such guidance.
- (6) The Secretary of State is not required by subsection (5) to lay before Parliament, or may exclude from what is laid, anything the publication of which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State—
 - (a) could prejudice the prevention or detection of crime or the apprehension or prosecution of offenders, or
 - (b) could jeopardise the safety of any person.
- (7) A person who exercises functions relating to pre-charge bail must have regard to the guidance.
- (8) But subsection (7) does not apply to—
 - (a) a member of the Serious Fraud Office,
 - (b) a member of staff of the Financial Conduct Authority,
 - (c) an officer of Revenue and Customs, or
 - (d) a National Crime Agency officer.
- (9) A failure on the part of a person to whom subsection (7) applies to comply with the guidance does not of itself render the person liable to any criminal or civil proceedings.
- (10) But guidance on pre-charge bail is admissible in evidence in criminal or civil proceedings and a court may take into account a failure to comply with it in determining a question in the proceedings.”

SCHEDULE 6

Section 56

SPECIAL PROCEDURE FOR ACCESS TO MATERIAL RELATING TO HUMAN REMAINS

Making of orders by judge

- 1 (1) On an application made by a constable, a judge may make an order under paragraph 2 if the judge is satisfied that the following conditions are met.
- (2) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that material that consists of, or may relate to the location of, relevant human remains—
- (a) is in the possession or control of a person specified in the application, or
- (b) is on premises occupied or controlled by a person specified in the application.
- (3) The second condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material consists of or includes excluded material or special procedure material.
- (4) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material does not consist of or include items subject to legal privilege.
- (5) The fourth condition is that other methods of obtaining the material—
- (a) have been tried without success, or
- (b) have not been tried because it appeared that they were bound to fail.
- (6) The fifth condition is that it is in the public interest, having regard—
- (a) to the need to ensure that human remains are located and disposed of in a lawful manner, and
- (b) to the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it,
- that the material should be produced or access to it should be given.

Issue of warrants by judge

- 8 (1) On an application made by a constable, a judge may issue a warrant authorising a constable to enter and search premises if the judge is satisfied that the conditions in this paragraph are met.
- (2) The first condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there is material on the premises mentioned in sub-paragraph (5) below that consists of, or may relate to the location of, relevant human remains.
- (3) The second condition is that each of the conditions set out in paragraph 1(3) to (6) is met in relation to the material.
- (4) The third condition is that there are reasonable grounds for believing, in relation to each set of premises specified in the application—
- (a) that it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises,
 - (b) that it is practicable to communicate with a person entitled to grant entry to the premises but it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the material,
 - (c) that the material on the premises contains information which—
 - (i) is subject to a restriction on disclosure or an obligation of secrecy contained in any enactment, including an enactment contained in an Act passed after this Act, and
 - (ii) is likely to be disclosed in breach of it if a warrant is not issued, or
 - (d) that service of notice of an application for an order under paragraph 2 may seriously prejudice the purpose of the search.
- (5) The premises referred to in sub-paragraph (2) are—
- (a) one or more sets of premises specified in the application (in which case the application is for a “specific premises warrant”), or
 - (b) any premises occupied or controlled by a person specified in the application, including such sets of premises as are so specified (in which case the application is for an “all premises warrant”).

“395A Community and suspended sentence orders qualifying for special procedures

- (1) A community order or suspended sentence order qualifies for special procedures for the purposes of a relevant provision if the order—
 - (a) is of a description specified in regulations for the purposes of that provision, and
 - (b) is made within a period, or after a time, so specified.
- (2) In subsection (1) “relevant provision” means—
 - (a) section 217A;
 - (b) section 293A;
 - (c) paragraphs 10(5)(ba) and 11(2)(ba) of Schedule 10;
 - (d) paragraph 13(1)(da) of Schedule 16.
- (3) A description specified under subsection (1)(a) may, among other things, be framed by reference to—
 - (a) the courts by which the orders are made (for example, courts sitting in particular places or areas);
 - (b) the persons who are subject to the orders (for example, persons of a particular sex);
 - (c) the offences to which the orders relate.
- (4) Where regulations under subsection (1)(a) specify a description of community or suspended sentence order for the first time, they must under subsection (1)(b) specify, in relation to that description of order, a period of 18 months beginning with the day on which the regulations come into force.
- (5) Regulations under this section are to be made by the Secretary of State.
- (6) Regulations under this section are subject to—
 - (a) the negative resolution procedure, where under subsection (1)(b) the regulations specify a period, and
 - (b) the affirmative resolution procedure, in any other case.”

- 4 In section 217 (power to provide for court review of community orders), after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) Regulations under this section may not make provision in respect of community orders which for the purposes of section 217A qualify for special procedures.”

Commencement Information

I642 Sch. 14 para. 4 in force at 28.6.2022, see s. 208(5)(r)

- 5 After section 217 insert—

“217A Review of community order qualifying for special procedures

- (1) A community order that—
 - (a) imposes one or more community order requirements, and
 - (b) qualifies for special procedures for the purposes of this section, may make provision for the order to be reviewed periodically (“provision for review”).
- (2) Where a community order contains provision for review under this section, it must—
 - (a) specify the intervals at which the order is to be reviewed,
 - (b) provide for each review to be made, subject to section 217B, at a hearing held for the purpose by the responsible court (a “review hearing”),
 - (c) require the offender to attend each review hearing, and
 - (d) provide for a report by an officer of a provider of probation services on the offender’s progress in complying with the community order requirements of the order (a “progress report”) to be made to the responsible court before each review.
- (3) In this section “the responsible court”, in relation to a community order, means the court by which the order is made.
- (4) For more about community orders that qualify for special procedures, see section 395A.

217B Powers on review

- (1) This section applies where a review hearing is held on a review of a community order by virtue of section 217A.
- (2) The court may, after considering the progress report, amend—
 - (a) the community order requirements of the order, or
 - (b) any provision of the order which relates to those requirements.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (3) But the court—
- (a) may not amend the community order requirements of the order so as to impose a requirement of a different kind unless the offender expresses willingness to comply with that requirement,
 - (b) may not amend—
 - (i) a mental health treatment requirement,
 - (ii) a drug rehabilitation requirement, or
 - (iii) an alcohol treatment requirement, unless the offender expresses willingness to comply with the requirement as amended, and
 - (c) except with the consent of the offender, may not amend the order while an appeal against the order is pending.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a)—
- (a) a community order requirement of a kind within any entry in the table in section 201 is of the same kind as any other community requirement within that entry, and
 - (b) an electronic compliance monitoring requirement is a requirement of the same kind as any requirement within that table to which it relates.
- (5) If the court is of the opinion that the offender has without reasonable excuse breached a community order requirement of the order, the court may adjourn the hearing so that the court can deal with the case forthwith under paragraph 10 or 11 of Schedule 10 (powers of court to deal with offender on breach of requirement).
- (6) For some powers available where the court is of the opinion referred to in subsection (5) but does not deal with the case forthwith, see paragraph 9A of Schedule 10.
- (7) In this section—
- “review hearing”, and “progress report”,
- have the same meanings as in section 217A.

217C Alteration of review arrangements

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply where a court—
- (a) considers the progress report relating to a review under section 217A (the “current review”), and
 - (b) forms the opinion that the offender’s progress in complying with the community order requirements of the community order is satisfactory.
- (2) If the court forms that opinion before a review hearing is held at the current review—
- (a) it may order that no review hearing is to be held at the current review, and
 - (b) it may amend the community order so as to provide for each subsequent review to be held without a review hearing.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

- (3) If a review hearing is held at the current review, the court may at the hearing amend the community order so as to provide for each subsequent review to be held without a review hearing.
- (4) If at a review held without a review hearing the court—
 - (a) considers the progress report, and
 - (b) forms the opinion that the offender’s progress under the order is no longer satisfactory,it may require the offender to attend a hearing of the court at a specified time and place.
- (5) At a review hearing the court may amend the community order so as to vary the intervals specified under section 217A(2)(a).
- (6) The functions of a court under this section that are exercisable in relation to a review without a hearing are to be exercised—
 - (a) where the court is the Crown Court, by a judge of the court, and
 - (b) where the court is a magistrates’ court, by a justice of the peace.
- (7) In this section—
 - “review hearing”, and
 - “progress report”,have the same meanings as in section 217A.”

- 6 In Schedule 9 (community orders and suspended sentence orders: requirements), after Part 10 insert—

“PART 10A

DRUG TESTING REQUIREMENT

Requirement

- 22A (1) In this Code, “drug testing requirement”, in relation to a relevant order, means a requirement that during a period specified in the order, the offender must, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is any drug or psychoactive substance in the offender’s body during that period, provide samples in accordance with directions given by the responsible officer.
- (2) The order—
- (a) must provide that if the offender provides samples to a person other than the responsible officer, the results of the tests carried out on the samples are to be communicated to the responsible officer;
 - (b) may make provision about the provision of samples by virtue of sub-paragraph (1).
- (3) The power of the responsible officer to give directions by virtue of sub-paragraph (1) about the provision of samples—
- (a) is a power to give directions as to—
 - (i) the type of samples to be provided, and
 - (ii) the times at which, or circumstances in which, they are to be provided,
 - (b) is subject to any provision made by the order, and
 - (c) is to be exercised in accordance with guidance issued by the Secretary of State.
- (4) The Secretary of State may revise any guidance issued under sub-paragraph (3)(c).
- (5) In this paragraph and paragraph 22B—
- “drug” means a controlled drug as defined by section 2 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971;
- “psychoactive substance” has the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Psychoactive Substances Act 2016.

Person responsible for electronic monitoring: electronic whereabouts monitoring order

- 46
- (1) A youth rehabilitation order which imposes an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement must include provision for making a person responsible for the monitoring.
 - (2) The person who is made responsible for the monitoring must be of a description specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State.

Electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement: general

- 47
- Where a youth rehabilitation order imposes an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement, the offender must (in particular)—
- (a) submit, as required from time to time by the responsible officer or the person responsible for the monitoring, to—
 - (i) being fitted with, or installation of, any necessary apparatus, and
 - (ii) inspection or repair of any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring,
 - (b) not interfere with, or with the working of, any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring, and
 - (c) take any steps required by the responsible officer, or the person responsible for the monitoring, for the purpose of keeping in working order any apparatus fitted or installed for the purposes of the monitoring.

Restrictions on imposing electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement

- 48
- (1) Where—
 - (a) it is proposed to include an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement in a youth rehabilitation order, but
 - (b) there is a person (other than the offender) without whose co-operation it will not be practicable to secure the monitoring,the requirement may not be included in the order without that person's consent.
 - (2) A court may not include an electronic whereabouts monitoring requirement in a youth rehabilitation order in respect of an offender unless—
 - (a) the court has been notified by the Secretary of State that electronic monitoring arrangements are available in the local justice area proposed to be specified in the order (and the notice has not been withdrawn),
 - (b) the court is satisfied that—
 - (i) the offender can be fitted with any necessary apparatus under the arrangements currently available, and
 - (ii) any other necessary provision can be made under those arrangements, and

SCHEDULE 20

Section 200

FURTHER PROVISION ABOUT VIDEO AND AUDIO LINKS IN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Criminal Justice Act 2003

- 1 (1) The Criminal Justice Act 2003 is amended as follows.
- (2) For section 52 substitute—

“52 Further provision about the giving, variation and rescission of live-link directions

- (1) The power conferred by section 51 includes power to give—
- (a) a direction that is applicable to several, or all, of the persons taking part in particular eligible criminal proceedings;

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (b) a direction that is applicable to a particular person in respect of only some aspects of particular eligible criminal proceedings (such as giving evidence or attending the proceedings when not giving evidence);
 - (c) a direction requiring or permitting a person who is outside England and Wales (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through a live audio link or a live video link.
- (2) The court may vary or rescind a direction under section 51 at any time before or during the eligible criminal proceedings to which it relates (but this does not affect the court's power to give a further direction under that section in relation to the proceedings).
- (3) A direction under section 51 may not be rescinded unless—
 - (a) the court is satisfied that it is in the interests of justice for the direction to be rescinded,
 - (b) the parties to the proceedings have been given the opportunity to make representations, and
 - (c) if so required by subsection (9), the relevant youth offending team has been given the opportunity to make representations.
- (4) In relation to the variation of a direction given under section 51—
 - (a) so far as the effect of the variation would be to allow a person to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through a live audio link or a live video link, or to alter (without removing) a person's ability to do so, sections 51(4) and 53(1) to (3) apply as they apply to the giving of a direction;
 - (b) so far as the effect of the variation would be to remove a person's ability to take part in eligible criminal proceedings through a live audio link or a live video link, subsection (3) applies as it applies to the rescission of a direction.
- (5) Section 51(5) and (6) applies in relation to the variation or rescission of a direction given under section 51 as it applies to the giving of a direction under that section.
- (6) A direction under section 51 may be given, varied or rescinded—
 - (a) on an application by a party to the proceedings, or
 - (b) of the court's own motion.

But a party may not apply for a variation or rescission unless there has been a material change of circumstances since the direction was given or last varied.
- (7) The court must state in open court its reasons for refusing an application for the giving, variation or rescission of a direction under section 51 and, if it is a magistrates' court, must cause them to be entered in the register of its proceedings.
- (8) If a hearing takes place in relation to the giving, variation or rescission of a direction under section 51, the court may require or permit a person to take part in that hearing through—
 - (a) a live audio link, or
 - (b) a live video link.

Status: This version of this Act contains provisions that are prospective.

Changes to legislation: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 04 April 2024. - (9) The requirement referred to in section 51(4)(c) and subsection (3)(c) arises in a case where—
- (a) the defendant is a party to the proceedings, and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the defendant has not attained the age of 18 years, or
 - (ii) the defendant has attained the age of 18 years but the court is dealing with the case as if the defendant had not attained that age.

52A Further provision about the effect of live-link directions

- (1) A person who takes part in eligible criminal proceedings in accordance with a direction under section 51 is to be treated as complying with any requirement (however imposed or expressed) for that person to attend or appear before court, or to surrender to the custody of the court, for the purposes of that participation in those proceedings.
 - (2) A person who takes part in eligible criminal proceedings in accordance with a direction under section 51 is to be treated as present in court for the purposes of those proceedings.
 - (3) If eligible criminal proceedings are conducted with one or more persons taking part in accordance with a direction under section 51, the proceedings are to be regarded as taking place—
 - (a) if at least one member of the court is taking part in the proceedings while in a courtroom, in that courtroom (or, if more than one courtroom falls within this paragraph, such of them as the court directs),
 - (b) if no member of the court, but at least one other person, is taking part in the proceedings while in a courtroom, in that courtroom (or, if more than one courtroom falls within this paragraph, such of them as the court directs), or
 - (c) if no person is taking part in the proceedings while in a courtroom, at such place as the court directs (being a place where the court could lawfully sit for the purposes of those proceedings).
 - (4) In subsection (3), “courtroom” includes any place where proceedings of the sort in question might ordinarily be held (if no person were taking part in the proceedings in accordance with a direction under section 51).
 - (5) A statement made on oath by a witness outside the United Kingdom and given in evidence through a live audio link or a live video link in accordance with a direction under section 51 is to be treated for the purposes of section 1 of the Perjury Act 1911 as having been made in the proceedings in which it is given in evidence.”
- (3) In section 53—
- (a) for the heading substitute “Further provision about live links in magistrates’ courts”;
 - (b) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) in the words before paragraph (a), for “This section applies” substitute “Subsections (2) and (3) apply”;

- (ii) in paragraph (a), for “for evidence to be given through a live link in proceedings before the court” substitute “requiring or permitting a person to take part in proceedings before the court through a live audio link or a live video link”;
 - (iii) in paragraph (b), for “receiving such evidence” substitute “such participation”;
 - (c) after subsection (3) insert—
 - “(4) The following functions of a magistrates’ court may be discharged by a single justice—
 - (a) giving a direction under section 51 or varying such a direction under section 52(2);
 - (b) rescinding under section 52(2) a direction given under section 51 before the eligible criminal proceedings concerned begin;
 - (c) requiring or permitting, under section 52(8), a person to take part by live audio link or live video link in a hearing about a matter within paragraph (a) or (b).”
- (4) In section 54(1), for “a live link” substitute “a live audio link or a live video link by a witness (including the defendant)”.
- (5) In section 55—
 - (a) in subsection (2)—
 - (i) in paragraph (a), for “51 or 52” substitute “52(6)”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (b), for “live links” substitute “live audio links and live video links”;
 - (b) in subsection (3)—
 - (i) in paragraph (a), omit “uncontested”;
 - (ii) in paragraph (b), for “51” substitute “52(6)”;
 - (iii) in paragraph (c), for “51 or 52” substitute “52(6)”.
- (6) In section 56—
 - (a) in subsection (1)—
 - (i) omit the definition of “legal representative”;
 - (ii) before the definition of “local justice area” insert—
 - ““bail” includes remand to local authority accommodation in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 3 of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012,
