

Fireworks Act 1951

CHAPTER 58

FIREWORKS ACT 1951

- 1 Destruction of dangerous fireworks.
- 2 Determination or amendment of licences for factory where dangerous fireworks made.
- 3 Standard by which fireworks to be judged dangerous.
- 4 Determination or amendment of licences for factory where there is negligent manufacture.
- 5 Marking of fireworks.
- 6 Penalty for defacement of marks.
- 7 Small firework factory licences.
- 8 Service of notices.
- 9 Interpretation.
- 10 Short title, extent and commencement.

SCHEDULE — Kinds of Fireworks which need not be marked
Aluminium or magnesium torches (“Sparklers”).
Jumping crackers.
“Throw-downs”.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fireworks Act 1951.