
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2000 No. 1059

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Ionising Radiation (Medical Exposure) Regulations 2000

Made	- - - - -	13th April 2000
Laid before Parliament		14th April 2000
Coming into force
except for
regulation 4(1) and
4(2)		13th May 2000
regulation 4(1) and
4(2)		1st January 2001

THE IONISING RADIATION (MEDICAL EXPOSURE) REGULATIONS 2000

1. Citation and commencement
 2. Interpretation
 3. Application
 4. Duties of Employer
 5. Duties of the Practitioner, Operator and Referrer
 6. Justification of Individual Medical Exposures
 7. Optimisation
 8. Clinical Audit
 9. Expert advice
 10. Equipment
 11. Training
 12. Enforcement
 13. Defence of due diligence
 14. Revocation
- Signature

SCHEDULE 1 — Employer's Procedures

The written procedures for medical exposures shall include—

SCHEDULE 2 — Adequate Training

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Practitioners and operators shall have successfully completed training, including theoretical...

Explanatory Note