 - (ii) a note of the address to which notices and communications to the tribunal to the Secretary of the Tribunal should be sent; and
 - (iii) a notice informing the responsible body of the requirements of regulation 13(1) and of the case statement period, together with the consequences of failing to meet the requirements of that regulation within that period.
- (2) Where it is necessary to determine the identity of the responsible body in relation to any claim, the President may make such enquiries as are necessary for this purpose.
- (3) Where it appears to the President or the Secretary of the Tribunal that there may be more than one responsible body in relation to any claim, the President or the Secretary of the Tribunal may send the documentation specified in paragraph (1)(c) to any or all such bodies as may be appropriate.

(4) Where the Secretary of the Tribunal is of the opinion that, on the basis of the notice of claim, the parent is asking the tribunal to consider a matter which is not within its jurisdiction, he may give notice to the parent—

- (a) stating the reasons for his opinion; and
- (b) informing the parent that the notice of claim will not be entered in the records unless, within a specified time (which shall not be less than 5 working days), the parent notifies the Secretary of the Tribunal that he wishes to proceed with it.

(5) Where the Secretary of the Tribunal is of the opinion that there is an obvious error in the notice of claim—

- (a) he may correct that error and if he does so shall notify the parent accordingly and such notification shall state the effect of sub-paragraph (b); and
- (b) unless within 5 working days the parent notifies the Secretary of the Tribunal that he objects to the correction, the notice of claim so corrected shall be treated as the notice of claim for the purposes of these Regulations.

(6) If the Secretary of the Tribunal has given a notice under paragraph (4), the notice of claim shall only be treated as having been received for the purposes of paragraph (1) when the parent notifies the Secretary of the Tribunal that he wishes to proceed with the claim.

Case statement period

18.—(1) The case statement period shall—

- (a) be a period of 30 working days commencing on the date on which notification issued further to regulation 17(1)(b)(iv) and 17(1)(c)(iii) is taken to have been delivered in accordance with regulation 50(6); and
- (b) shall include any extension to that period ordered by the President under regulation 51(1).

(2) Where the President makes a direction in accordance with regulation 8 or makes enquiries under regulation 17(2), the Secretary of the Tribunal shall not send a notice to the parent as required by regulation 17(1)(b)(iv) or send any documents to the responsible body as required by regulation 17(1)(c) until particulars of reasons are received in response to the direction or the President has concluded his enquiries as the case may be.

Copy of documents for parties

19.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Secretary of the Tribunal shall—

- (a) forthwith send to the responsible body a copy of any amendment to the notice of claim received during the case statement period;
- (b) at the end of the case statement period send a copy of each party's statement of case and written evidence to the other party;
- (c) forthwith send copies of any amendments or supplementary statements, written representations, written evidence (other than written evidence of which a copy is received in accordance with regulation 33(2)(b)) or other documents received from a party after the end of the case statement period to the other party to the proceedings.

(2) If a notice of claim, a statement of case, amendment, supplementary statement, written representation, written evidence or other document is delivered to the Secretary of the Tribunal after the time prescribed by these Regulations, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall not send a copy of it to the other party unless the President extends the time limit pursuant to regulation 51(1).

(3) Where the Secretary of the Tribunal sends any of the copies of documents referred to in paragraph (1) to a party who has already informed the Secretary of the Tribunal in response to the enquiries made under regulation 20(a)(i) and (ii) that the party does not wish to attend or be represented at the hearing, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall ask whether the party wishes to amend that response on the basis of the copies received.

Enquiries by the Secretary of the Tribunal

20. The Secretary of the Tribunal shall, at any time after having sent each party's statement of case and written evidence to the other party in accordance with regulation 19(1)(b)—

- (a) ask each party—
 - (i) whether or not the party intends to attend the hearing;
 - (ii) whether the party wishes to be represented at the hearing in accordance with regulation 12(6) or 16(1) and if so the name of the representative;
 - (iii) whether the party wishes the hearing to be in public;
 - (iv) whether the party intends to call witnesses and if so the names of the proposed witnesses, their occupations, the likely subject matter of the evidence of each witness, and whether any of the witnesses is a medical or other expert;
 - (v) whether the party or a witness will require the assistance of an interpreter;
- (b) enquire of the parent whether he wishes any persons (other than a person who will represent him or any witness whom he proposes to call) to attend the hearing if the hearing is in private and if so the name of such persons;
- (c) inform each party of the effect of regulation 30(4)(c) and the provisions of regulation 34(1) and (2); and
- (d) inform the parties that where an answer to the enquiries made under paragraphs (a) or (b) changes after the party has responded to the enquiries, the party concerned must inform the Secretary of the Tribunal in writing forthwith.

Directions and determination of preliminary issues

21.—(1) The President may, on the application of a party or on his own initiative, at any time before the hearing give such directions on any matter arising in connection with the proceedings as appear to him to be appropriate, including such directions as are provided in regulations 23 and 24, to enable the parties to prepare for the hearing or to assist the tribunal to determine the issues.

(2) An application by a party for directions shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the Tribunal and, unless it is accompanied by the written consent of the other party, shall be served by the Secretary of the Tribunal on that other party. If the other party objects to the directions sought, the President shall consider the objection and, if he considers it necessary for the determination of the application, shall give the parties an opportunity of appearing before him.

(3) If in the opinion of the President there would not be a reasonable time before a hearing of which notice has been given under regulation 28(1) to comply with a direction for which a party applies, he shall refuse the application.

(4) A direction shall—

- (a) include a statement of the possible consequences for the claim, as provided by regulation 25, of a party's failure to comply with the requirement within the time allowed by the President;
- (b) if made under regulation 24(2), contain a reference to the fact that, under section 28J(9) (a) of the 1995 Act, any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with requirements regarding disclosure or inspection of documents shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; and

- (c) unless the person to whom the direction is addressed had an opportunity to object to the direction, or he gave his written consent to the application for it, contain a statement to the effect that that person may apply to the President under regulation 22 to vary or set aside the direction.

(5) Where, in accordance with regulation 27(2), the President orders that a claim be heard together with an appeal under Part IV of the 1996 Act, the directions given under paragraph (1) shall relate to the claim only; but in giving such directions the President may consider whether it is in the interests of the efficient disposal of the claim and the appeal, and in the interests of the parties, that the directions given with respect to the claim are the same as, or similar to, those given in the appeal.

(6) Where it appears to the President that there is an issue in any claim which must be determined prior to the substantive hearing of the claim and which cannot properly be determined by the giving of directions, he may summon the parties to appear before him for this purpose and may give any necessary directions relating to their appearance.

Varying or setting aside directions

22. Where a party to whom a direction is addressed had no opportunity to object to the giving of such direction and he did not give his written consent to the application for it, he may apply to the President, by notice to the Secretary of the Tribunal, to vary it or set it aside, but the President shall not do so without first notifying the other party and considering any representations made by him.

Particulars, and supplementary statements

23. The President may give directions requiring any party to provide in or with that party's statement of case or otherwise, such particulars, supplementary statements or other evidence, in such form and at such times as may be necessary to enable the fair hearing of the claim.

Disclosures of documents and other material

24.—(1) The President—

- (a) may give directions requiring a party to deliver to the tribunal any document or other material which the tribunal may require and which it is in the power of that party to deliver;
- (b) shall impose a condition on the supply of a copy of any document or other material delivered in compliance with a direction given under this paragraph that the party receiving it shall use such document only for the purposes of the claim; and
- (c) may require a written undertaking to observe that condition before supplying a copy.

(2) The President may grant to a party an order for such disclosure or inspection of documents (including the taking of copies) as might be granted under the Civil Procedure Rules 1998⁽⁸⁾.

Failure to comply with directions

25.—(1) If a party has not complied with a direction within the time specified in the direction the tribunal may—

- (a) where the party in default is the parent, dismiss the claim without a hearing;
- (b) where the party in default is the responsible body, determine the claim without a hearing;
- (c) hold a hearing (without notifying the party in default) at which the party in default is not entitled to attend or be represented; or

(8) S.I. 1998/3132

- (d) where the parties have been notified of the hearing in accordance with regulation 28(1), direct that neither the party in default nor any person whom he intends should represent him or give evidence on his behalf be entitled to attend the hearing.

(2) In this regulation “the party in default” means the party which has failed to comply with the direction.

Summoning witnesses

26.—(1) The President may by summons require any person in England and Wales to attend as a witness at a hearing of a claim at such time and place as may be specified in the summons, and at any adjournment of that hearing, and at the hearing to answer any questions or produce any documents or other material in his custody or under his control which relate to any matter in question in the claim:

Provided that—

- (a) no person shall be compelled to give any evidence or produce any document or other material that he could not be compelled to give or produce at a trial of an action in a Court of law;
- (b) in exercising the power conferred by this regulation, the President shall take into account the need to protect any matter that relates to intimate personal or financial circumstances or consists of information communicated or obtained in confidence;
- (c) no person shall be required to attend in obedience to such a summons unless he has been given at least 5 working days' notice of the hearing or, if less than 5 working days, he has informed the President that he accepts such notice as he has been given;
- (d) no person shall be required in obedience to such a summons to attend and give evidence or to produce any document unless the necessary expenses of his attendance are paid or tendered to him; and
- (e) no summons shall require a child under the age of 12 to attend and give evidence at the hearing except where the President determines that the evidence of such a child is necessary to enable the fair hearing of the claim.

(2) A party seeking a witness summons shall apply in writing to the Secretary of the Tribunal at least 8 working days before the hearing, or later if the person to whom the summons is to be addressed consents in writing.

(3) A witness summons shall contain—

- (a) a reference to the fact that, under section 28J(9)(b) of the 1995 Act, any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with any requirement to attend to give evidence and, if the summons so requires, to produce documents shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; and
- (b) a statement of the effect of paragraph (4).

(4) A person to whom a witness summons is addressed may apply to the President, by notice to the Secretary of the Tribunal, to vary it or set it aside, but the President shall not do so without first notifying the party who applied for the issue of the summons and considering any representations made by him.

Consolidating claims and hearing claims together with appeals under Part IV of the Education Act 1996

27.—(1) Where more than one claim relates to the same child, or requires a decision on substantially the same issue, the President may order that they be heard together.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4), where a claim relates to the same child and either arises from the same circumstances or requires a decision on substantially the same issue as an appeal against a local education authority under Part IV of the 1996 Act, the President may order that the claim be heard with the appeal.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (2) shall permit the President to make an order under that paragraph where a parent has failed to bring an appeal within the time limit for such appeals provided for by regulation 7(3) of the Special Educational Needs Tribunal Regulations 2001⁽⁹⁾ or any extension granted under those Regulations.

(4) The President may only make an order under paragraph (2) if, in addition to complying with the requirements of paragraph (7), the making of an order would not cause undue delay to the determination of the appeal.

(5) The President may make an order varying or revoking an earlier order made under paragraphs (1) or (2).

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), the President may issue an order under this regulation on the written request of either party or on his own initiative.

(7) An order made under this regulation shall only be made if it appears to be just and convenient to do so, and before an order is made the parties to every claim or appeal affected shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

Notice of place and time of hearings and adjournments

28.—(1) Subject to the provisions of regulation 29, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall, after consultation with the parties, fix the time and place of the hearing and send to each party a notice that the hearing is to be at such time and place.

(2) The notice of hearing referred to in paragraph (1) shall be sent—

- (a) not less than 5 working days before the date fixed for a hearing under regulation 15, 37, 38 or 44;
- (b) not less than 10 working days before the date fixed for the hearing in any other case; or
- (c) in any case, within such shorter period before the date fixed for the hearing as the parties may agree.

(3) The Secretary of the Tribunal shall include in or with the notice of hearing—

- (a) information and guidance, in a form approved by the President, as to attendance at the hearing of the parties and witnesses, the bringing of documents, and the right of representation or assistance as provided by regulation 12(6) or 16(1); and
- (b) a statement explaining the possible consequences of non-attendance and the right to make representations in writing enjoyed by—
 - (i) the parent if he does not attend and is not represented; and
 - (ii) the responsible body if it does not attend and is not represented and if it has submitted a statement of its case, unless it stated in writing that it did not resist the claim or withdrew its opposition to the claim.

(4) The tribunal may alter the time and place of any hearing and the Secretary of the Tribunal shall give the parties not less than 5 working days (or such shorter time as the parties agree) notice of the altered hearing date:

Provided that any altered hearing date shall not (unless the parties agree) be before the date notified under paragraph (1).

(5) If the time and place of an adjourned hearing are announced at the hearing before the adjournment, no further notice shall be required.

(9) S.I. 2001/600.

(6) Nothing in paragraphs (1) or (4) shall oblige the Secretary of the Tribunal to consult, or send a notice to any party who is not entitled to attend or be represented at the hearing.

(7) In this regulation “working day” has the meaning ascribed to it in regulation 2 except that it shall include any day in August which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or bank holiday.

PART IV

DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS

Power to determine a claim without a hearing

29.—(1) The tribunal may determine a claim or any particular issue without a hearing—

- (a) if the parties so agree in writing; or
- (b) in the circumstances described in regulations 15 or 25.

(2) The provisions of regulation 31(2) shall apply in respect of the determination of a claim, or any particular issue, under this regulation.

Hearings to be in private: arrangements and exceptions

30.—(1) A hearing shall not be in private if—

- (a) both the parent and the responsible body request that the hearing be in public; or
- (b) the President or, at a hearing, the tribunal orders that the hearing should be in public.

(2) The following persons (as well as the parties and their representatives and witnesses) shall be entitled to attend the hearing of a claim, even though it is in private—

- (a) the child;
- (b) subject to the provisions of paragraph (9) below, any person named by the parent in response to the enquiry under regulation 20(b) unless the President has determined that any such person should not attend the hearing and has notified the parent accordingly;
- (c) a parent of the child who is not a party to the claim;
- (d) the clerk to the tribunal and the Secretary of the Tribunal;
- (e) the President and a member of the chairmen’s or lay panel (when not sitting as a member of the tribunal);
- (f) a member of the Council on Tribunals;
- (g) a person undergoing training as a member of the chairmen’s or lay panel or as a clerk to the tribunal;
- (h) a person acting on behalf of the President in the training or supervision of clerks to tribunals;
- (i) an interpreter;
- (j) any person giving other necessary assistance to a person entitled to attend the hearing further to this regulation.

(3) The tribunal, with the consent of the parties or their representatives actually present, may permit any other person to attend the hearing of a claim which is held in private.

(4) Without prejudice to any other powers it may have, the tribunal may exclude from the hearing, or part of it—

- (a) a person whose conduct has disrupted or is likely, in the opinion of the tribunal, to disrupt the hearing;
- (b) a person, including the child, whose presence is likely, in the opinion of the tribunal, to make it difficult for any person to adduce the evidence or make the representations necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing;
- (c) a representative or witness whom a party omitted to name, without reasonable cause, in response to the enquiry by the Secretary of the Tribunal under regulation 20.

(5) For the purposes of arriving at its decision a tribunal shall, and for the purposes of discussing a question of procedure may, notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations, order all persons to withdraw from the sitting of the tribunal other than the members of the tribunal and any of the persons mentioned in sub-paragraphs (d) to (g), or, as their respective duties require, sub-paragraphs (i) and (j), of paragraph (2).

(6) Except as provided in paragraphs (7) and (8) none of the persons mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) to (j) of paragraph (2) or paragraph (3) shall, save in the case of the persons specified in sub-paragraphs (d), (i) and (j) of paragraph (2) as their respective duties require, take any part in the hearing or (where entitled or permitted to remain) in the deliberations of the tribunal.

(7) The tribunal may permit the child to give evidence and to address the tribunal on the subject matter of the claim.

(8) The tribunal may permit a parent of the child who is not a party to the claim to address the tribunal on the subject matter of the claim.

(9) Where the parent has named more than two persons in response to the enquiry under regulation 20(b) only two persons shall be entitled to attend the hearing unless the President, or, at a hearing, the tribunal gives permission for a greater number to attend.

Failure of parties to attend a hearing

31.—(1) If a party fails to attend or be represented at a hearing of which he had been duly notified, the tribunal may—

- (a) unless it is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for such absence, hear and determine the claim in the party's absence; or
- (b) adjourn the hearing.

(2) Before disposing of a claim in the absence of a party, the tribunal shall consider any representations in writing submitted by that party in response to the notice of hearing and, for the purpose of this regulation the notice of claim and the parties' statements of their cases shall be treated as representations in writing.

Procedure at a hearing

32.—(1) At the beginning of the hearing the chairman shall explain the order of proceedings which the tribunal proposes to adopt.

(2) The tribunal shall conduct the hearing in such manner as it considers the most suitable to the clarification of the issues and generally to the just handling of the proceedings; it shall, as far as appears to it appropriate, seek to avoid formality in its proceedings.

- (3) The tribunal shall determine the order in which the parties are heard and the issues determined.
- (4) The tribunal may, if it is satisfied that it is just and reasonable to do so, permit—
 - (a) the parent to rely on grounds not stated in his notice of claim or the statement of his case;
 - (b) the responsible body to rely on grounds not specified in its statement of its case.

(5) If at or after the beginning of a hearing a member of the tribunal other than the chairman is absent, the hearing may, with the consent of the parties, be conducted by the other two members and in that event the tribunal shall be deemed to be properly constituted and the decision of the tribunal shall be taken by those two members.

Late written evidence

33.—(1) At the beginning of the hearing, a party may submit further written evidence which satisfies the conditions set out in paragraph (2) unless the tribunal, after considering any representations from the other party, is of the opinion that it would be contrary to the interests of justice.

(2) The conditions referred to in paragraph (1) are that—

- (a) the evidence was not, and could not reasonably have been, available to that party before the end of the case statement period;
- (b) a copy of the evidence was sent or delivered to the Secretary of the Tribunal and to the other party without undue delay and, in any event, at least 5 working days before the hearing; and
- (c) the extent and form of the evidence is such that, in the opinion of the tribunal, it is not likely to impede the efficient conduct of the hearing.

(3) If paragraph (1) does not apply, the tribunal may give a party permission to submit further written evidence at the hearing if it is of the opinion that—

- (a) the case is wholly exceptional; and
- (b) unless the evidence is admitted, there is a serious risk of prejudice to the party seeking to rely on it.

(4) Before the hearing the tribunal may refer to copies of evidence sent to the Secretary of the Tribunal under paragraph (2)(b) above for the purpose of considering whether or not it satisfies the conditions in paragraph (2); but if the evidence is not admitted the tribunal shall disregard it in determining the claim.

Evidence at a hearing

34.—(1) In the course of the hearing the parties shall be entitled to give evidence, to call witnesses, to question any witness and to address the tribunal both on the evidence, including the written evidence submitted before the hearing, and generally on the subject matter of the claim:

Provided that neither party will be entitled to call more than five witnesses to give evidence orally (in addition to any witness whose attendance is required pursuant to paragraph (2)) unless the President or, at a hearing, the tribunal grants a party permission to call a greater number of witnesses.

(2) Evidence before the tribunal may be given orally or by written statement, but the tribunal may at any stage of the proceedings require the personal attendance of any maker of any written statement:

Provided that a party shall only be entitled to give evidence by written statement if such evidence is submitted with the notice of claim or the statement of his case or in accordance with regulation 33.

(3) The tribunal may receive evidence of any fact which appears to the tribunal to be relevant.

(4) The tribunal may require any witness to give evidence on oath or affirmation, and for that purpose there may be administered an oath or affirmation in due form, or may require any evidence given by written statement to be given by a statement of truth.

Adjournments and directions

- 35.—(1) The tribunal may from time to time adjourn the hearing.
- (2) When a hearing is adjourned—
- (a) the tribunal may give directions to be complied with before or at the resumed hearing;
 - (b) the chairman may announce provisional conclusions reached by the tribunal. The provisional conclusions are not a decision of the tribunal.
- (3) A direction under paragraph (2)(a) may require a party to provide such particulars, evidence or statements as may reasonably be required for the determination of the claim.
- (4) If a party fails to comply with such a direction, the tribunal shall take account of that fact when determining the claim or deciding whether to make an order for costs.

Decision of the tribunal

- 36.—(1) A decision of the tribunal may be taken by a majority and where the tribunal is constituted by two members under regulation 32(5) the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.
- (2) The decision of the tribunal may be given orally at the end of the hearing or reserved and, in any event, whether there has been a hearing or not, shall be recorded forthwith in a document which, save in the case of a decision by consent, shall also contain, or have annexed to it, a statement of the reasons (in summary form) for the tribunal's decision, and each such document shall be signed and dated by the chairman.
- (3) Neither a decision given orally nor the document referred to in paragraph (2) shall contain any reference to the decision being by majority (if that be the case) or to any opinion of a minority.
- (4) Every decision of the tribunal shall be entered in the records.
- (5) As soon as may be the Secretary of the Tribunal shall send a copy of the document referred to in paragraph (2) to each party, accompanied by guidance, in a form approved by the President, about the circumstances in which there is a right to appeal against a tribunal decision and the procedure to be followed.
- (6) Where, under regulation 12 a parent has appointed a representative the Secretary of the Tribunal shall send a copy of the documents referred to in paragraph (5) to the parent as well as to the representative.
- (7) Every decision shall be treated as having been made on the date on which a copy of the document recording it is sent to the parent (whether or not the decision has previously been announced at the end of the hearing).

Application or proposal for review of tribunal's decision

- 37.—(1) A party may apply to the Secretary of the Tribunal for the decision of the tribunal to be reviewed on the grounds that—
- (a) its decision was wrongly made as a result of an error on the part of the tribunal staff;
 - (b) a party, who was entitled to be heard at the hearing but failed to appear or to be represented, had good and sufficient reason for failing to appear;
 - (c) there was an obvious error in the decision; or
 - (d) the interests of justice require.
- (2) An application that a decision of the tribunal be reviewed shall—
- (a) be made not later than 10 working days after the date on which the decision was sent to the parties;
 - (b) be in writing stating the grounds in full.

(3) An application that a decision of the tribunal be reviewed may be refused by the President, or by the chairman of the tribunal which decided the case, if in his opinion it has no reasonable grounds of success.

(4) Unless an application that a decision of the tribunal be reviewed is refused in accordance with paragraph (3), it shall be determined, after the parties have had an opportunity to be heard, by the tribunal which made the decision or, where that is not practicable, by a tribunal appointed by the President.

(5) The tribunal may on its own initiative propose to review its decision on any of the grounds referred to in paragraph (1), in which case—

- (a) the Secretary of the Tribunal shall serve notice on the parents not later than 10 working days after the date on which the decision was sent to them; and
- (b) the parties shall have an opportunity to be heard.

(6) If, on the application of a party or on its own initiative, the tribunal is satisfied as to any of the grounds referred to in paragraph (1)—

- (a) it shall order that the whole or a specified part of the decision be reviewed; and
- (b) it may give directions to be complied with before or at the hearing of the review.

(7) A direction under paragraph (6) may require a party to provide such particulars, evidence or statements as may reasonably be required for the determination of the review.

(8) If a party fails to comply with such a direction, the tribunal shall take account of that fact when determining the review or deciding whether to make an order for costs.

Review of tribunal's decision

38.—(1) A tribunal which reviews all or part of a decision may—

- (a) by certificate under the chairman's hand set aside or vary that decision and substitute such other decision as it thinks fit; or
- (b) order a rehearing before the same or a differently constituted tribunal.

(2) If the decision is set aside or varied, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall alter the entry in the records to conform to the chairman's certificate and shall notify the parties accordingly.

Review of the President's decision

39.—(1) On the application of a party to the Secretary of the Tribunal or on his own initiative, the President may review and set aside or vary any decision of his if he is satisfied that—

- (a) the decision was wrongly made as a result of an error on the part of the tribunal staff;
- (b) there was an obvious error in the decision; or
- (c) the interests of justice so require.

(2) An application by a party for a review under paragraph (1) shall be made—

- (a) in writing stating the grounds in full;
- (b) not later than 10 working days after the date on which he was notified of the decision.

(3) Where the President proposes to review his decision on his own initiative he shall serve notice of that proposal on the parties not later than 10 working days after they were notified of the decision.

(4) The parties shall have an opportunity to be heard on any application or proposal for review under this regulation and the review shall be determined by the President.

(5) If any decision is set aside or varied under this regulation the Secretary of the Tribunal shall alter the entry in the records and shall notify the parties accordingly.

(6) Where, in accordance with regulation 7(4), the President decides under paragraph 10(3) of Schedule 3 to the 1995 Act that a claim will not be considered out of time, the decision shall be capable of being reviewed under this regulation on the application of a parent as if he were party to a claim and in such a case the responsible body shall not be entitled to be heard or notified.

Orders for costs and expenses

40.—(1) The tribunal shall not normally make an order in respect of costs and expenses but may, subject to paragraph (3), make such an order—

- (a) against a party (including a parent who has withdrawn his claim or a responsible body which has withdrawn its opposition to the claim) if it is of the opinion that that party has acted frivolously or vexatiously or that his conduct in making, pursuing or resisting a claim was wholly unreasonable;
- (b) against a party who has failed to attend or be represented at a hearing of which he has been duly notified; or
- (c) against the responsible body where it has not delivered a statement of its case under regulation 13.

(2) Any order in respect of costs and expenses may be made—

- (a) as respects any costs and expenses incurred, or any allowances paid; or
- (b) as respects the whole, or any part, of any allowance (other than allowances paid to members of the tribunal) paid by the Secretary of State under section 28J(5) of the 1995 Act to any person for the purposes of, or in connection with, his attendance at the tribunal.

(3) No order shall be made under paragraph (1) against a party without first giving that party an opportunity of making representations against the making of the order.

(4) An order under paragraph (1) may require the party against whom it is made to pay the other party either a specified sum in respect of the costs and expenses incurred by that other party in connection with the proceedings or the whole or part of such costs as assessed if not otherwise agreed.

(5) An order under this regulation for costs to be assessed shall allow the County Court to make a detailed assessment of fast track trial costs either on the standard or indemnity basis as the order may specify in accordance with the Civil Procedure Rules 1998.

PART V

ADDITIONAL POWERS OF THE TRIBUNAL

Transfer of proceedings

41. Where it appears to the President that a claim pending before a tribunal could be determined more conveniently in another tribunal he may at any time, upon the application of a party or on his own initiative, direct that the proceedings be transferred so as to be determined in that other tribunal:

Provided that no such direction shall be given unless notice has been sent to both parties giving them an opportunity to make representations against the giving of the direction.

Regulation of proceedings

42. Subject to the provisions of the 1995 Act and these Regulations, a tribunal may regulate its own procedure.

Decisions agreed by the parties

43. A tribunal may, if it thinks fit, make a decision in terms agreed in writing by the parties.

Power to strike out

44.—(1) The Secretary of the Tribunal shall, at any stage of the proceedings, if the responsible body applies or the President so directs, serve a notice on the parent stating that it appears that the claim should be struck out on one or both of the grounds specified in paragraph (2) or for want of prosecution.

(2) The grounds referred to in paragraph (1) are that—

- (a) the claim is not, or is no longer, within the jurisdiction of the tribunal;
- (b) that notice of claim is, or the claim is or has become, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious.

(3) The notice under paragraph (1) shall invite the parent to make representations.

(4) The tribunal may, after considering any representations duly made by the parent, order that the claim should be struck out on one or both of the grounds specified in paragraph (2) or for want of prosecution.

(5) The tribunal may make an order under paragraph (4) without holding a hearing unless the parent requests the opportunity to make oral representations, and if the tribunal holds a hearing it may be held at the beginning of the hearing of the substantive claim.

(6) The President may, if he thinks fit, at any stage of the proceedings order that a statement of a party's case should be struck out or amended on the grounds that it is scandalous, frivolous or vexatious.

(7) Before making an order under paragraph (6), the President shall give to the party against whom he proposes to make the order a notice inviting representations and shall consider any representations duly made.

(8) For the purposes of this regulation—

(a) a notice inviting representations must inform the recipient that he may, within a period (not being less than 5 working days) specified in the notice, either make written representations or request an opportunity to make oral representations;

(b) representations are duly made if—

(i) in the case of written representations, they are made within the period so specified; and

(ii) in the case of oral representations, the party proposing to make them has requested an opportunity to do so within the period so specified.

Power to exercise powers of President and chairman

45.—(1) An act which these Regulations require or authorise the President to do may be done by a member of the chairmen's panel authorised by him.

(2) Where a member of the chairmen's panel authorised under paragraph (1)—

(a) selects the chairman of a tribunal, he may select himself;

(b) makes a decision, regulation 39 applies in relation to that decision as if it referred to the member of the chairmen's panel in place of the President.

(3) Subject to regulation 49(6), in the event of the death or incapacity of the chairman, or if he ceases to be a member of the chairmen's panel, following the decision of the tribunal, the functions of the chairman for the completion of the proceedings, including any review of the decision, may be exercised by the President or any member of the chairmen's panel.

Power to exercise the functions of a lay member

46.—(1) In the event of the death or incapacity of a member of the tribunal other than the chairman, or if he ceases to be a member of the lay panel, following the decision of the tribunal, the functions of the tribunal in relation to any review of that decision may be undertaken by the other two members.

(2) This regulation shall not apply to a tribunal—

- (a) which is constituted of two members in accordance with regulation 32(5);
- (b) of which any person is authorised to act in place of the chairman in accordance with regulation 45(3).

The Secretary of the Tribunal

47. A function of the Secretary of the Tribunal may be performed by another member of the staff of the tribunal authorised by the President.

Orders of the Court

48.—(1) If any decision of the tribunal is set aside, varied or altered in any way by order of the Court, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall alter the entry in the records to conform to that order and shall notify the parties accordingly.

(2) If a claim is remitted to the tribunal by order of the Court to be reheard, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall notify both parties that, during a period of 15 working days (or such shorter period as the parties may agree in writing), each may submit a supplementary statement of his case and further written evidence.

(3) If an order to strike out a claim is quashed or set aside by the Court, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall notify the parties—

- (a) where the case statement period had not expired before the order to strike out took effect—
 - (i) in accordance with regulations 17(1)(b)(iv) and 17(1)(c)(iii), that a new case statement period shall be commenced; and
 - (ii) that, within the new case statement period, the parties may submit the documentation referred to in sub-paragraph (b) in respect of a statement of case or evidence submitted before the strike out took effect;
- (b) where sub-paragraph (a) does not apply, that each party has a period of 15 working days to submit a supplementary statement of his case and further written evidence.

(4) The Secretary of the Tribunal shall forthwith send a copy of all statements and written evidence received from a party during the periods referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3)(b) to the other party.

Irregularities

49.—(1) An irregularity resulting from failure to comply with any provision of these Regulations or of any direction of the tribunal before the tribunal has reached its decision shall not of itself render the proceedings void.

(2) Where any such irregularity comes to the attention of the tribunal, the tribunal may, and shall, if it considers that any person may have been prejudiced by the irregularity, give such directions as it thinks just before reaching its decision to cure or to waive the irregularity.

(3) Clerical mistakes in any document recording the decision of the tribunal or a direction or decision of the President produced by or on behalf of the tribunal or errors arising in such documents from accidental slips or omissions may at any time be corrected by the chairman or the President (as the case may be) by certificate under his hand.

(4) The Secretary of the Tribunal shall as soon as may be send a copy of any corrected document containing reasons for the tribunal's decision to each party.

(5) Where a parent has appointed a representative in accordance with regulation 12, the Secretary of the Tribunal shall (notwithstanding regulation 12(4)) send a copy of the document referred to in paragraph (4) above to the parent as well as the representative.

(6) Where these Regulations require the chairman to sign a document, but by reason of death or incapacity he is unable to do so, the other members of the tribunal shall sign it and certify that the chairman is unable to sign.

Method of sending, delivering or serving notices and documents

50.—(1) A notice given under these Regulations shall be in writing and a party whom the Regulations require to notify a matter to the Secretary of the Tribunal shall do so in writing.

(2) Notices and documents required by these Regulations to be sent or delivered to the Secretary of the Tribunal or to the Tribunal may be sent by post, by facsimile transmission or by electronic mail to or delivered at the office of the Tribunal or such other office as the Secretary of the Tribunal may notify to the parties.

(3) Notices and documents which these Regulations authorise or require the President or the Secretary of the Tribunal to send may (subject to paragraph (5)) either be sent by first class post or by facsimile transmission to or delivered at—

(a) in the case of a party—

(i) his address for service specified in the notice of claim or in a written reply or in a notice under paragraph (4), or

(ii) if no address for service has been so specified his last known address; and

(b) in the case of any other person, his place of residence or business or if such person is a corporation, the corporation's registered or principal office.

(4) A party may at any time by notice to the Secretary of the Tribunal change his address for service under these Regulations.

(5) The recorded delivery service shall be used instead of first class post for service of a summons issued under regulation 26 requiring the attendance of a witness.

(6) A notice or document sent by the Secretary of the Tribunal by post in accordance with these Regulations, and not returned, shall be taken to have been delivered to the addressee on the second day for normal postal deliveries after it was posted.

(7) A notice or document sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail shall be taken to have been delivered when it is received in legible form.

(8) Where for any sufficient reason service of any document or notice cannot be effected in the manner prescribed under this regulation, the President may dispense with service or make an order for substituted service in such manner as he may deem fit and such service shall have the same effect as service in the manner prescribed under this regulation.

Extensions of time

51.—(1) Where these Regulations or a direction made under them requires or authorises a person to do something within a period of time, the President may, on the application of that person or on his own initiative, in exceptional circumstances extend that period of time.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) Where the President has extended a period of time reference in these Regulations to that period of time shall be construed as a reference to the period of time as so extended.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations contain general provisions relating to the Special Educational Needs and Disability Tribunal (the Tribunal) and also deal with the procedures of the Tribunal for claims of disability discrimination in schools.

The general provisions relate to the exercise of the Tribunal's jurisdiction under Chapter 1 of Part IV of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 and Part IV of the Education Act 1996. The Regulations make provision for:

- (a) the appointment of members of the lay panel by the Secretary of State (regulation 3);
- (b) the establishment of individual tribunals to exercise the jurisdiction of the Tribunal (regulation 4);
- (c) the selection of Tribunal members for hearings (regulation 5);
- (d) proof of documents (regulation 6).

These Regulations also contain provisions in relation to the making of claims of disability discrimination in schools, under Chapter 1 of Part IV of the Disability Discrimination Act 1995, and with the procedures of the Tribunal for the purpose of determining those claims.

The procedures are set out in Parts II to V of the Regulations and broadly follow, with modification, the Tribunal's procedures for special educational needs appeals under Part IV of the Education Act 1996, which are contained in the Special Educational Needs Tribunal Regulations 2001 (S.I.2001/600).

Regulation 27 prescribes the circumstances in which a disability discrimination claim may be heard with a special educational needs appeal.
