EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision in relation to the allocation of housing accommodation under Part 6 of the Housing Act 1996 (“the 1996 Act”) and to housing assistance under Part 7 of the 1996 Act. These provisions apply in England only.

Regulation 2 amends the provisions of the Allocation of Housing and Homelessness (Eligibility) (England) Regulations 2006 (“the Eligibility Regulations”) which prescribe the classes of persons from abroad who are subject to immigration control who are eligible for an allocation or for housing assistance. The Regulations substitute for old Class D of the Eligibility Regulations a new class of persons who are eligible for an allocation and for housing assistance. The effect of this is two-fold. Firstly, the amendments remove from the Eligibility Regulations the class of eligibility relating to persons who left Montserrat after 1st November 1995 because of the effect on that territory of a volcanic eruption. Secondly, they substitute a new class of eligible persons who have humanitarian protection. Humanitarian protection is a form of leave granted to persons who do not qualify for refugee status but who would face a real risk of suffering serious harm if returned to their state of origin (see paragraphs 339C-344C of the Immigration Rules (HC 395)).

Regulation 3 makes provision in relation to the conditions which must be met under section 198(4) of the 1996 Act in order for a local housing authority to refer an application for housing assistance to another authority. Under section 198(4), one of the conditions for referral of a homelessness case to another authority is that the applicant was placed in accommodation in the district of the authority to which his application is now made, following a previous application made within a prescribed period to that other authority. Regulation 3 prescribes the period of time in which the previous application must have been made.

The amendments made by these Regulations do not affect applications for an allocation or for housing assistance made before 9th October 2006.

A regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for these Regulations as they have no impact on the costs of business, charities or voluntary bodies.
