EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

1. These Regulations revoke and replace the Health and Safety (Fees) Regulations 2007 (S.I. 2007/ 813) as amended by the Health and Safety (Fees) (Amendment) Regulations 2007 (S.I. 2007/1672). These regulations consolidate amendments made to those Regulations and also update fees to be charged. They also extend charging for general health and safety in high hazard industries They fix or determine the fees payable by an applicant to, in most cases, the Health and Safety Executive, in respect of an application made for —

- (a) an approval under mines and quarries legislation (regulation 2 and Schedule 1);
- (b) an approval of plant or equipment under the Agriculture (Tractor Cabs) Regulations 1974 (regulation 3 and Schedule 2);
- (c) an approval of a scheme or programme under the Freight Containers (Safety Convention) Regulations 1984 (regulation 4 and Schedule 3);

In relation to those explosive certificates, these Regulations include lower fees for those applying for such certificates so as to acquire and keep shooters' powder in certain circumstances (entries (g) to (j) in Table 1 of Part 9 of Schedule 8);
- (g) an explosives licence under Part IX of the Dangerous Substances in Harbour Areas Regulations 1987 (regulation 11 and Schedule 9);

2. The Regulations fix fees to be paid in respect of medical examinations and surveillance by an employment medical adviser which are required under certain of the relevant statutory provisions (regulations 6 and 7 and Schedules 5 and 6).

3. The Regulations fix or determine the fees payable by specified persons in the offshore for the performance by the Executive of the functions specified in those provisions and in relation to general health and safety functions at those sites (regulations 15 and 16 and Schedules 12 and 13)

4. The regulations introduce fees for advice given to nuclear licensees or potential licences for work done by the Health and Safety Executive in relation to—

- (a) advice given to potential applicants for a nuclear site licence in relation to their potential application; and
- (b) general health and safety functions conferred by the 1974 Act (a) for existing licensees (regulation 17).

5. The regulations introduce fees for work done by the Health and Safety Executive in relation to the enforcement of general health and safety functions conferred by the 1974 Act for relating to the transportation of gas through “major accident hazard pipelines”, including where such work is not directly concerned with protecting persons from the risks arising from the manner in which gas is conveyed or used(regulation 15).

6. The regulations amend the Control of Major Accident Hazards Regulations 1999 (as amended) to introduce fees for work done by the Health and Safety Executive in relation to the enforcement of general health and safety functions conferred by the 1974 Act for establishments that are required by regulation 7 of those regulations to prepare a safety report (regulation 22).

7. A Full Impact Assessment was not prepared on these changes as the impact on the voluntary sector will be nil and the impact on the private sector will be negligible.

8. The new fees compared with those fixed by or determined under the previous fee-charging provisions are as follows:

(a) S24A of the Nuclear Installations Act 1965 provides power to charge in respect of implementing the Nuclear Installations Act’s provisions and carrying out research into nuclear safety.
