EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

The provisions contained in this Order are made to give full effect to section 1(2) of the Armed Forces (Pensions and Compensation Scheme) Act 2004 (c.32) consequential upon the Armed Forces and Reserve Forces (Compensation Scheme) (Amendment) Order 2013 (S.I. 2013/436) (“the 2013 Order”) which amends the Armed Forces and Reserve Forces (Compensation Scheme) Order 2011 (S.I. 2011/517) (“the 2011 Order”). Both Orders are made under that section. The 2011 Order provides for a scheme of compensation payments to be payable to, or in respect of, a person by reason of illness or injury (whether physical or mental), or death, which is caused (wholly or partly) by service in the armed forces or the reserve forces. The 2013 Order provides for a new payment called the armed forces independence payment under the scheme.

Article 2 of the Order amends Article 25 (payments in respect of applications for exemption from wearing seat belts) of the Road Traffic (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 (S.I. 1995/2994 (N.I. 18)). The amendment provides for those in receipt of armed forces independence payment to be a class mentioned in Article 25 to whom the Department of the Environment for Northern Ireland may make payments in respect of examination for medical certificates required as a condition of any exemption relating to the wearing of seat belts.

Article 3 of the Order amends the Adoption Allowance Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1996 so that armed forces independence payment is disregarded in certain circumstances by adoption agencies in assessing the income available to adopters.

Article 4 of the Order amends the Travelling Expenses and Remission of Charges Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004 so that armed forces independence payment is included as income and taken into account when determining entitlement under these Regulations.

Article 5 of the Order amends the Maternity and Parental Leave etc Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1999. These amendments provide that where an employee is a parent of a person in receipt of armed forces independence payment, they are entitled to certain additional rights in respect of parental leave.

Article 6 of the Order amends the Flexible Working (Eligibility, Complaints and Remedies) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2003 so that the definition of “disabled” for the purposes of those Regulations includes someone entitled to armed forces independence payment.
