TOURISM, WALES

The Wales Tourist Board (Transfer of Functions to the National Assembly for Wales and Abolition) Order 2005

Made - - - - 22 November 2005

Coming into force the day after the order is made

The National Assembly for Wales, in exercise of the powers conferred upon it by section 28 of and Schedule 4 to the Government of Wales Act 1998(1), makes the following Order:

Title, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) The title of this Order is the Wales Tourist Board (Transfer of Functions to the National Assembly for Wales and Abolition) Order 2005 and it comes into force on the day after it is made.

(2) In this Order:

the “Assembly” (y “Cynulliad”) means the National Assembly for Wales;

the “Board” (y “Bwrdd”) means the Wales Tourist Board;

“relevant employee” (“cyflogai perthnasol”) means any person who, immediately before the transfer date, was employed by the Board under a contract of employment; and “transfer date” (“dyddiad trosglwyddo”) means 1 April 2006.

Transfer of functions, property, rights and liabilities of the Board to the Assembly

2.—(1) On the transfer date the functions of the Board are transferred to the Assembly in accordance with the provisions of Schedules 1 and 2 which amend the enactments and instruments relating to the Board for the purpose of:

(a) transferring its functions to the Assembly, and

(b) making provision consequential on or incidental or supplementary to the transfer.

(2) On the transfer date there are transferred to and vested in the Assembly by virtue of this paragraph all property, rights and liabilities to which the Board is entitled or subject immediately before that date.

(3) The rights and liabilities referred to in paragraph (2) above include those arising under any contract of employment made between a relevant employee and the Board.

(4) The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 1981⁽²⁾ apply to the transfer of the functions of the Board to the Assembly whether or not apart from this provision, the discharge of these functions would be treated as an undertaking in the nature of a commercial venture for the purposes of those Regulations.

(5) A certificate issued by the Assembly that any property has been transferred by paragraph (2) is conclusive evidence of the transfer.

(6) Paragraph (2) has effect in relation to property, rights or liabilities to which it applied in spite of any provision (of whatever nature) which would prevent or restrict the transfer of the property, rights or liabilities otherwise than by that paragraph.

Transitional provisions

3.—(1) Nothing in article 2 or Schedules 1 and 2 affects the validity of anything done by or in relation to the Board before its functions are transferred.

(2) There may be continued by or in relation to the Assembly anything (including legal proceedings) which—

- (a) relates to any of the functions of the Board or to any property, rights or liabilities transferred by article 2(2), and
- (b) is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Board when the said functions are transferred.

(3) Anything which—

- (a) was done by the Board for the purpose of or in connection with any of its functions or by the Board for the purpose of or in connection with any property, rights or liabilities transferred by article 2(2); and
- (b) is in effect immediately before its functions are transferred,

is to have effect as if done by the Assembly.

(4) The Assembly is substituted for the Board in any instruments, contracts or legal proceedings which relate to—

- (a) any of the functions of the Board, and
- (b) any property, rights or liabilities transferred by article 2(2), and which are made or commenced before its functions are transferred.

(5) On the transfer date the obligations of the Board, the Assembly and the Auditor General for Wales referred to below contained in section 6 of the Development of Tourism Act 1969⁽³⁾ will have effect in respect of the financial year 2005 to 2006 only but are otherwise abolished:

- (a) the Board's obligation under section 6(1) to prepare a statement of account, save that the obligation is transferred to the Assembly,
- (b) the Assembly's obligation under section 6(3) to transmit the statement of account to the Auditor General for Wales, and
- (c) the Auditor General for Wales' obligation under section 6(4) to examine and certify the statement of account and lay before the Assembly copies of the statement of account together with a report thereon.

(2) S.I. 1981/1794, as amended by the Trade Union Reform and Employment Rights Act 1993 (c. 19) by the Dock Work Act 1989 (c. 13) and by Statutory Instruments 1987/442, 1995/2587, 1998/1658, 1999/1925, 1999/2402 and 1999/2587.

(3) 1969 c. 51.

Abolition

4. Upon the transfer of its functions, property, rights and liabilities to the Assembly on the transfer date in accordance with article 2 the Board is to cease to exist.

Winding down

5. The Board must give to the Assembly all the information and do all other things which appear to the Assembly appropriate for the purpose of facilitating the transfer of its functions to the Assembly and its abolition in accordance with this Order.

Amendments to existing enactments

6.—(1) The provisions of the Development of Tourism Act 1969 and the Tourism (Overseas Promotion) (Wales) Act 1992(4) in Schedule 1 to this Order are amended in accordance with that schedule on the transfer date.

(2) The enactments specified in Schedule 2 to this Order are amended in accordance with that Schedule on the transfer date.

(3) The amendments to enactments extend to the same extent as the provision in the enactment that is amended.

Signed on behalf of the National Assembly for Wales under section 66(1) of the Government of Wales Act 1998(5).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 28 of the Government of Wales Act 1998 gives the National Assembly for Wales (the “Assembly”) powers to reform certain public bodies in Wales listed in Schedule 4 to that Act. The section includes the power to transfer functions and to abolish such bodies where all their functions have been transferred.

This Order transfers the functions, property, rights and liabilities of the Wales Tourist Board (the “Board”) to the Assembly, provides for the transfer of staff from the Board to the Assembly and makes appropriate consequential, incidental, transitional and supplementary provisions. It also abolishes the Board.

Article 2 provides for the transfer of the Board’s functions to the Assembly on 1 April 2006. This article also provides for the transfer of the Board’s staff, property, rights and liabilities to the Assembly. Staff are transferred on the basis of the principles established by the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 1981 (S.I. 1981/1794).

Article 3 makes certain transitional provisions relating to the property, rights and liabilities and for the substitution of the Assembly for the Board in all relevant instruments, contracts or legal proceedings. It also provides that the Board's statement of account for the financial year 2005-2006 is to be prepared by the Assembly. The statement of account for 2005-2006 is also to be sent to the Auditor General for Wales and copies subsequently laid before the Assembly together with the Auditor General's report in the usual way.

Article 4 provides that immediately after the transfer of the Board's functions, property, rights and liabilities to the Assembly, the Board is abolished.

Article 5 makes formal provision to reflect joint working between the Assembly and the Board for the purpose of facilitating the transfer of functions.

Article 6 brings into effect on 1 April 2006 Schedules 1 and 2 to the Order, which make amendments to primary and secondary legislation that are consequential upon and incidental to the transfer of functions and abolition of the Board. The most substantive changes are to the Development of Tourism Act 1969 and to the Tourism (Overseas Promotion) (Wales) Act 1992. Redundant references to the Wales Tourist Board have been revoked.
