

SCHEDULE 4

Alert Level 4 Restrictions

PART 1

Restrictions on movement and gathering with others

Extended households

3.—(1) A [^{F1}well-being needs] household and another household may agree to be treated as an extended household.

(2) To agree to be treated as an extended household, all [^{F2}members of the households] must agree.

(3) A household may only agree to be treated as being in 1 extended household [^{F3}at any one time].

(4) Where a [^{F4}well-being needs] household has agreed to be treated as an extended household with up to—

(a) 3 other households under paragraph 3 of Schedule 1, or

(b) 2 other households under—

(i) paragraph 3 of Schedule 2, or

(ii) paragraph 3 of Schedule 3,

[^{F5}(“the previous extended household”),] an agreement under this paragraph may be made only between the [^{F4}well-being needs] household and 1 of those other households [^{F6}unless a period of at least 10 days has expired since any member of the [^{F4}well-being needs] household last participated in a gathering with a member of those households in reliance on being treated as part of the previous extended household].

(5) A household ceases to be treated as [^{F7}part of] an extended household if any ^{F8}... member of the household ceases to agree to be treated as [^{F7}part of] the extended household.

[^{F9}(5A) Sub-paragraph (5B) applies where—

(a) a person who would be, or is, a member of an extended household is a child, and

(b) a person who has parental responsibility for the child (“P”) is a member of the child’s household.

(5B) Where this sub-paragraph applies—

(a) the agreement required by sub-paragraph (2) is to be given by P (and not the child), and

(b) a household ceases to be treated as part of an extended household in accordance with sub-paragraph (5) if P ceases to agree to be treated as part of the extended household (whether or not the child also ceases to agree).]

(6) If a household ceases to be treated as [^{F10}part of] an extended household, the household may not agree to be treated as [^{F10}part of] an extended household with any other household [^{F11}unless a period of at least 10 days has expired since any member of the household last participated in a gathering with any member of another household in reliance on being treated as part of an extended household with that household].

(7) In this Schedule, references to an extended household are references to an extended household formed under or by virtue of this paragraph.

[^{F12}(8) In this paragraph, “well-being needs household” means—
